Praying in Color
the Fall Women's Spirituality Retreat with Rev. Lisa Grant
September 23-25, 2012

This event begins with 5:30 dinner on Sunday, Sept 23, and continues through lunch on Tuesday, Sept 25.

Our time together will introduce participants to praying beyond words. We will be using as our resource the book "Praying in Color" by Sybil MacBeth. Come explore praying with the right side of your brain!

- o Do you love color?
- o Do you hunger to know God better?
- o Are you tired of words?
- o Do you have good intentions about praying and then find yourself distracted, impatient, restless, and bored with your own voice and thoughts?

Come play with us as we doodle, color, and even fidget our way into the presence of God. Copies of the MacBeth book will be available for purchase. All supplies for experimenting with this new path to God will be provided.

Rev. Lisa Grant is currently the senior pastor of the Edinboro UMC. She has served is several Western Pennsylvania churches in Butler, Bethel Park and New Castle, PA. She recently served as the Director of Connectional Ministries for the WPA Conference. Rev. Grant graduated with a BA in social work from Edinboro University, received her M. Div. from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary., and was ordained a full elder in 1984. When not tending to her church Rev. Grant enjoys reading, old movies and spending time with extended family.
