Guidelines for Pages

1. Youth who have completed seventh grade by the spring of 2013 or is a 2013 high school graduate will have first priority.
2. Must attend the orientation session and remain throughout the entire Conference, Tuesday, June 11 at 1:00 p.m. through Sunday, June 15, 2013.
3. Must make own travel arrangements to and from Conference in Grove City.
4. Must be willing to work at a variety of assignments including carrying luggage, videotaping conference activities, operation of portable microphones, delivering messages, operating snack booth, and early morning and late night assembling and distributing written materials, etc.
5. Must be willing to follow the rules set for the Youth Caucus and remain on Campus unless given specific permission by an adult advisor.
6. Must be housed with the pages, youth delegates, and advisors.
7. Clothing will be modest and respectful at this Christian event. One set of dress clothes will be worn for ushering the Ordination service. Three Annual Conference t-shirts will be used while serving on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Appropriate dress includes fingertip length shorts, and Christian t-shirts. Conversely, inappropriate dress includes short shorts/ skirts, low-cut tops, stomach revealing tops, and t-shirts advertising sex, drugs, alcohol, etc. For safety reasons, shoes covering the entire foot are required while working.
8. Will need to bring the following personal items: wash cloths, towels, soap, blanket (if necessary), pillow and sheets or sleeping bag, a fan, and a swimsuit.
9. Cell phones will be turned OFF during all work times. The conference will not be responsible for lost/stolen cell phones.
10. Are NOT allowed to have visitors on campus. If you do have an unexpected visitor, he or she must report to one of the Youth Caucus adult advisors.
11. Remember, as a page or delegate you represent the entire youth membership of Western Pennsylvania. We expect conduct and attire to be appropriate.

GUIDELINES FOR YOUTH DELEGATES

Youth delegates are fully participating, voting members of Annual Conference. They sit on the floor of the Conference with other delegates. However, they come at the same time as the pages and help with the preliminary work. They must be willing to abide by the above guidelines. They must be FULL MEMBERS of a local United Methodist Church. It is expected that they will lead youth representation to Section meetings, attend all plenary meetings, and report nightly on Conference decisions. Delegates are encouraged to speak and debate issues on the Conference floor.
