1893-2010

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Homer David Whitfield organized this church when he was pastor of the Fayette City Charge 1891-1894. The first services were held in the Allenport School. The first frame Church building was erected in 1893, which was purchased from the Krepps family. It was partly destroyed by fire in 1944, repaired and then completely destroyed by another fire in 1959. The new church was built in 1960. In 1968 it was a part of the Allenport Circuit composed of Allenport, Howe and Mount Tabor Churches. In 1971 it became part of the Roscoe Larger Parish. In 1974 the name was changed to New Hope Parish. Roscoe Larger Parish was made up of six churches: Allenport, Coal Center, Howe, Mount Tabor, Roscoe and Saint Johns in West Brownsville. Two members of the Allenport Church went into the ministry, namely: Charles Kenneth Sowden and Norman Carlisle Young. Its membership in 1968 was 113. In 1992 Coal Center closed and in 2001 West Brownsville: Saint Johns closed and left only four churches on the Charge. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 40. The Church closed December 31, 2010.

724/222-9090

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Methodist Protestant Services were first conducted in the home of Joel Woods in 1831. In 1832 Amity was recognized as a regular appointment on the Monongahela Circuit with the Reverends John Lucas and William B. Dunlevy as preachers. In 1833 The Presbyterian log meeting house was purchased for $50 and moved and used for worship for 17 years. In 1851 a new frame church was built for $500. It was sold in 1867 and converted to a home. The new structure was built in 1867. A basement was built in 1953 and the sanctuary renovated in 1955. The church has been on the Monongahela Circuit, the Brownsville Circuit, the Washington Circuit and the Waynesburg Circuit. It became an independent station in 1873. In 1964 the Amity Methodist Official Board voted to continue worshipping with the local congregation of the Presbyterian Church following a six-month experiment on a rotating basis in the two churches. The plan ceased due to the contrary vote of the Presbyterian Church. The 1968 membership was 210. The Membership on January 1, 2003 was 154.

ASBURY CHAPEL

METHODIST EPISCOPAL SOUTH – WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON DISTRICT

1866-1972

Location: Located on Route 19 between Kirby and Mount Morris, Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal South – West Virginia Conference. This Church was one of 5 congregations which composed the Greene Circuit of the Clarksburg District of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The other Churches of the Circuit were: Claughton Chapel, Murrill Chapel, Mount Pleasant and Fairview, West Virginia. The Circuit was formed in 1866. The first Asbury Chapel was built ½ mile south of the second Church. It burned and the second Church also burned. In 1887 the third Church building was erected on a plot of ground purchased from S. H. and Melinda Rose for $150. The Church had been renovated at different times by adding electric lights, new seating, a vestibule, the excavation of a basement and provision for a parking lot. At Methodist Union, in 1939, the Churches in Pennsylvania came into the Pittsburgh Conference. They were then designated The Asbury Circuit and composed of Asbury Chapel, Shannon Run, Davistown, Shorden Chapel and Mount Pleasant. In 1966 the Circuit was divided and Asbury Chapel became a part of the Fairall Circuit. The membership in 1968 was 55. The Church closed in 1972 and the records went to Mount Morris.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. Became Methodist Protestant in 1830 and became part of the West Virginia Methodist Protestant Conference. Transferred from West Virginia Conference Methodist Protestant to Pittsburgh Conference The Methodist Church in 1939. The log church was built under Methodist Episcopal auspices in 1807 by the men of the community. The Reverend Asa L. Shinn preached the dedicatory sermon. In 1829 a society of the Associated Methodists was formed at Bald Hill and in 1830 the entire class transferred in a body to the newly founded Methodist Protestant Church. West Virginia College has no records from 1830 to 1855 when the West Virginia Conference was established. In 1835 the log church was weather boarded and sealed. In 1892 under the pastorate of the Reverend W. H. Hart another church was built on a lot donated by J. C. Watson across the road from the old location. The Reverend John M. Conway President of the West Virginia Conference preached the dedicatory sermon. Since then renovations and improvements have been made including aluminum siding, a new roof, and a modern oil furnace. In 1968 the church is on the Mount Morris Circuit, which includes the Bald Hill, Mount Morris, Shannon Run and Taylortown churches. The membership in 1968 was 32. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 23. Closed February 2, 2006. Records went to Taylortown Church.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. Grew out of a society which was organized on the Greenfield Circuit in 1799. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kenney friends of John Wesley and probably his converts moved here from England in 1802 and joined the society at Beallsville. It was included on the Peter's Creek Circuit. It became the Beallsville Circuit in 1833 with Reverend Samuel R. Brockunier as minister. Beallsville became a station in 1918. Pittsburgh Conference was organized in 1825. The Society worshipped in Thompson's School House until 1825 when the first church was built. The brick structure was built in 1872. On January 12, 1947 the last of the 10 memorial windows was dedicated. On May 5, 1957 a fine Baldwin organ, a gift of the Jess P. Miller family, was dedicated. In 1960 a stainless steel steeple was placed on the church and new steps leading to the Church were laid. The outside of the church has been cleaned and painted. In 1968 Beallsville was on a two Church appointment with Mount Zion. Currently is it part of the United Methodist Community Churches, which include Beallsville, Beallsville: Mount Zion, Marianna and Zollarsville. The membership in 1968 was 201. Mailing Address: Box 183, Bentleyville, PA 15314

Location: Located at 712 Main Street and Washington in the borough of Bentleyville, Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The first Methodist Church, a brick edifice 40 by 50 feet, was built in 1853 on the East Side of Pigeon Creek. That same year the Pittsburgh Conference recognized this as a Methodist Episcopal Congregation and assigned the first ordained minister, Reverend Henry Snyder. This building served the congregation for 40 years and in the spring of 1893 the church was torn down and a new church was erected. In 1911 and in 1925 the basement was finished and an addition was made to the rear of the church for Sunday school rooms. The educational addition was built in 1951 and the sanctuary was remodeled in 1956 with History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church had its origin as a non-denominational Church and Church School meeting in the Fire Hall in Bobtown in 1929. Due to Methodist leadership and the availability of a Methodist minister under the appointment system it became a Methodist Church in the 1930's. Land was obtained from the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company and the Church was completed in 1940. A parsonage was secured in Bobtown for the Circuit in 1963. Bobtown was on a Circuit with Mount Olive and Mount Pleasant from the 1940's. The Mount Olive Church was closed in 1965 and the Shordon and Davistown Churches were added in 1965 making the Circuit in 1968 Bobtown, Mount Pleasant, Davistown and Shordon Chapel. This became a two-point Charge in 2001 with Bobtown and Mount Calvary. The Bobtown membership in 1968 was 139. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 97.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church grew out of a series of Cottage Prayer Meetings formed and conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Fryer in 1876. In September of 1878 the Pittsburgh Annual Conference assigned Reverend Reimund C. Wolf to serve the Bridgeville and Fawcett Circuit. Under his leadership the church was organized with 12 charter members. Prior to the erection of a building, services were held in the Fryer School on Baldwin Street and later in the Valley School on Miller's Run Road. In 1886 the congregation purchased a plot of ground at the junction of Miller's Run and Hickory Grade Roads on which they built their first church building. The new building was erected in 1910 and extensively remodeled in 1955. Bridgeville was on a Circuit with the Fawcett and Federal Churches until 1910 when it became a station. It was known as the Bethany Methodist Episcopal Church until 1910 when the name was changed to the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bridgeville. The membership in 1968 was 493. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 278.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Originated in 1829 in the home of Wesley Kenney. The organized class was represented at the Quarterly Conference at Williamsport, now Monongahela City, in 1829. The first meeting house was built in 1830. It became a part of the Williamsport Circuit for four years. In 1833 it became part of the Beallsville Circuit. The first building was erected in 1830. The second building was erected in 1872 and was still in use in 1968. From 1833 to 1889 the church was on the Beallsville Circuit, with the exception of 1884 when it was on the Bentleyville Circuit. It became the Centerville-Taylor Charge in 1919. Remodeling began in March or April of 1828. Excavation was made for the basement heater, a new roof was put on the west side, new windows on the first and second floors and in the front and a new drainage system. The work was done at a cost of $20,000. The membership in 1968 was 220. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 126.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Broke off from Greenfield (Coal Center) Circuit in 1859. Some of the first meetings were held in the Normal School Hall. A new building was dedicated in 1860. It was named Kier's Chapel after Samuel Kier who gave the largest single contribution. It was part of a four-point circuit until 1865 when Greenfield and Kier's Chapel formed a two-point circuit. During the pastorate of Reverend Joseph E. Wright (1884-1887) Kier's Chapel became a single charge. The building was remodeled extensively before the turn of the century. The name was changed from Kier's Chapel to the Methodist Church of California at the time of incorporation, when the educational wing was built, in 1951. Extensive remodeling was done in 1966. This church served when California was a mining center in the earlier decades of the twentieth century. It seeks to serve the community today as it becomes more and more a residential college town. The membership in 1968 was 481. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 213.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Thomas M. Hudson, one of the three circuit riders on the Greenfield Circuit, organized this Society in 1824. Prior to 1833 it met in the old Greene Academy and that same year the Church building was erected. In 1877 under the leadership of Reverend Joseph Jackson Hays a brick church was erected with a membership of 275. In 1920 a basement was excavated, hot air heating installed and the interior was renovated. The educational building was erected in 1940 and dedicated in 1943 under the pastorate of Reverend Kenneth G. Coggon. In 1948 the Church became self-supporting after 120 years as a circuit Church. In 1968 it was on a two-point circuit with Mount Calvary. It later became a Station Appointment again. The membership in 1968 was 349. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 443.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The Church was organized November 30 1890. The first sermon was preached under an apple tree shortly after March 4, 1890 by Reverend William S. Cummings. The Members were called to build three times in the past. The first was the wooden frame structure dedicated July 26, 1891. On June 30, 1907 a more adequate and sturdy brick structure was dedicated. Again on June 30, 1927 an educational unit was dedicated to care for the growing educational needs. A remodeling and refurbishing program was carried out in 1955 to 1957. Since 1964, property consisting of 6 houses was purchased adjacent to the Church for expansion purposes. A new educational wing and a three level parking plaza was constructed in 1969 and 1970. The membership in 1968 was 912. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 520.

Location: Located at 500 Thompson Avenue and Miller Avenue in the Borough of Clairton in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Tradition would indicate that in the year 1897 a Sunday School was conducted in the Blair School House on State Street. In the years 1899 and 1900 this work was developed into a Mission Church. In 1903 lots were bought on Maple Avenue and the basement in the Maple Avenue Church was first used for a church service on April 26, 1903. The property was sold in 1906 and lots on Waddell Avenue were purchased. The cornerstone for this church was laid on Sunday, April 14, 1907. This church was remodeled to provide additional space in 1922. Three acres of land were bought on Thompson Avenue in 1948, and an educational unit was dedicated in 1957. This was followed by the addition of a sanctuary in 1960. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 232. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal South – West Virginia Conference. This was one of the churches of the Asbury Circuit, located north of the Mason and Dixon Line, that became a part of the Pittsburgh Conference at Methodist reunion in 1939. The history of the Church dates back to 1867 when Reverend William F. Claughton was assigned to Luke in Greene County. Services were held in the Duvall School at first. Land was purchased and the first Church was built in 1870. It burned in 1880 and a second building was erected. This building was severely damaged by a windstorm in 1907. The third Church was built in 1907-1908. Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix of the Methodist Episcopal Church South dedicated it in June 1909. The basement was dug out of solid rock in 1954 when Reverend Norman C. Young was pastor. It became a part of the Fairall Circuit in the Pittsburgh Conference in 1940 and continued in that Charge in 2001. Its membership in 1968 was 90. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 99.

Location: Located at 1081 on route 231 North about four miles north of Claysville in West Finley Township, Washington County, PA.

History: United Brethren - Allegheny Conference. The Church dates from May 9, 1799 when three acres 137 perches were sold to Christopher Winter, about four miles north of Claysville on Route 231. A log building was likely erected. This was the fourth Church building in the United Brethren denomination. John George Pfriemmer, a native of France who came to Pennsylvania in 1788, formally organized the Church in 1801. He was one of the founders of the United Brethren Church. He lived near Zion in 1805-1808 going to Indiana in 1808. A second lot beside the original one was sold October 16, 1818 by Christopher Winter to the trustees of the "United German Congregation, Zion Church." In 1823 the Muskingum Conference of the United Brethren Conference met at Daniel Rice's near Zion Church. After the 1818 deed a larger two-story log Church was built and used until 1839. Then from 1839 to 1859 another Church was built closer to Claysville was used. It burned. In 1861 another building was erected on the original site. A number of improvements have been made and an addition built. In 1970 Zion was linked with Fairmount. The membership in 1970 was 85. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 81.

Mailing Address:

ID: 102883

Location: Located in the Borough of Coal Center on Route 88 along the west side of the Monongahela river, one mile north of the Borough of California, in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. The Church grew out of the Society organized in the home of William Riggs on the Greenfield Circuit before 1800. Early in the 1800's a log Meetinghouse was built and called Howe's Church. Coal Center is the third name for the community. It first was called Arrarat then Greenfield and finally Coal Center. Pittsburgh Conference was organized in 1825. The first Church building in Greenfield was erected in 1834. In 1858 that building was torn down and a larger one erected. In April 1873 that structure burned and the third building was erected on the same site within a year. In 1898 two rooms, a vestibule and a steeple were added. There have been significant improvements in more recent years. This Church has had various Circuit relationships but in 1968 it was a Station with 124 members. This Church closed and records went to the California church in 1991.

History: Methodist – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church is a merger of three Churches: Clover Hill, New Kirk and Ebenezer. Clover Hill Church developed from a Class that met in the Nicholson-Winnett home as far back as 1797. It erected a frame Church about three miles south of Bentleyville on land donated by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Price in 1859. New Kirk Church was located about one mile east of Bentleyville on Interstate 70. It was built in 1836 on a lot donated by Cyrus Newkirk and William Niblack. It was a brick building and for many years was known as the Pigeon Creek Methodist Church. Ebenezer Church was located in the Village of Ebenezer, three miles west of Belle Vernon on Interstate 70. It was built in 1850 during the pastorate of Reverend Warner Long on the Beallsville Circuit. It celebrated its centennial in 1950. During the pastorates of Reverends George Eugene Kennedy and Wilbur Paul Blackhurst, these three congregations merged in 1964. Three persons from each Church were the Merger Building Committee. The Herman Christopher property of 79 acres was purchased for the site of the new Church of the merged congregations. This also included a residence, which was remodeled for a parsonage. Ground breaking for the new building was on December 12, 1964 and consecration services were held the week of October 22-29, 1967. The building committee members were Mary Robison, Eva Spahr, James Marietta, Dave Spahr, Robert Umble, William Coder, William Price, Sr. Clyde Robison, Walter Patton, Walter Swearingen and William Price, Jr. The membership in 1968 was 547. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 626.

WASHINGTON DISTRICT 1840-1981

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was built about 1840. The story of its founding is that Arthur Rinehart, founder of the Washington Street Church in Waynesburg, then called the Cornfield Methodist Church, became angry one Sunday when he went to Church and the door was locked. So he determined to build his own Church, which at first was named the Union Church of Coallick Run. The Rinehart family held the property title to the Church until 1859, then by the Downey family until 1861, then by the County Commissioners until 1956, when a deed conveyed the property to the trustees of the Church. The Church was raised and the basement put under it in 1956. It has been a part of the Monongahela Circuit from its origin. Its membership in 1968 was 63. When they merged with Morrisville to form the Oakview Church the membership in 1979 was 70.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. The earliest record of preaching is in 1811 when the Leonard Roberts home was a preaching point on the Ohio Circuit served by Reverend Joshua Monroe. Pittsburgh Conference was organized in 1825: In 1833 there were eight members in the Roberts Class, which was then on the Washington Circuit. Beginning in 1841, services were held in the Reynolds School House. In 1852 land was purchased adjacent to the School and a frame Church was built and named Providence Chapel. In 1867 a group of members left the parent organization and built a Church on the National Pike. The church was named for Reverend William A. Davidson, Presiding Elder of the Washington District from 1866 to 1868. Davidson has been associated on a Charge with Hillsborough now Scenery Hill all of its existence. The membership in 1968 was 101. The membership on January 1, 2002 was 96.

Location: Located in the Village of Denbo on the Denbo road off route 88 five miles south of West Brownsville in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was organized in 1919 by Reverend George Meade Dougherty pastor of the Centerville-Taylor Charge. Known as Denbo Community Mission. Services were held in the Denbo Public School, Denbo Community Hall and the Vesta Six (Mine) Barracks. The new church building was completed under the leadership of Reverend Gervin L. Smith of the Beallsville Circuit. First services were on Easter Sunday April 9, 1950. Dedicated on March 18, 1956 by Bishop Lloyd Christ Wicke as St. Pauls Methodist Church. The Jones and Laughlin Steel Company (coal division) was instrumental in the furnishing of land for the building site and financial aid toward the structure. The Church serves the communities of Denbo, Vesta Six and Low Hill. It attained circuit status after completion of the new building. In 1968 it was on the circuit with St. John's Church in West Brownsville. The Circuit was known as Denbo Charge. There has been a continuous pastorate down through the years from mission status to circuit status. In 1970 it became connected with Fredericktown to form the Fredericktown/Denbo Charge. in 1825: They met in various homes and school houses for many years. In October 1840 John Preston deeded a piece of land to the church trustees William Jones, John Hess, John Nickolson, Ephriam Hess, Jehu Jones, Bernard Preston and Francis Williams. Upon this they erected a small church built of home baked brick. A Church building was erected in 1868 on land donated by John Hess. It was named Edwards Chapel in honor of the first pastor Reverend Charles H. Edwards. In 1936 the building was remodeled and the grounds landscaped. In 1955 the educational unit was added. Edwards Chapel was formerly on a circuit with Venetia; later it was placed on a circuit with Gastonville. The latter relationship was discontinued in 1955. In 1963 Edwards Chapel is on a two church appointment with Pleasant View. In 1994 it became a one point charge. The 1968 membership was 123. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 102.

History: Methodist Protestant - Pittsburgh Conference. Founded in 1829 by the Reverend Josiah Foster who had been appointed to the new "Reformer" church at Bethel. A tract of land was secured from Thomas Ward in 1829 and a building was erected in 1832 or 1833 which was used as a place of worship until 1849 when it was deemed to be inadequate. The building was dismantled and a new brick building erected the same year. Major repairs and renovations were made in 1875 by putting in new pews and installing a bell in a belfry. In 1957 and 1958 a new education unit or wing was added along with a narthex at a cost of approximately $70,000. They have a well-equipped office in the educational wing, an electronic organ for worship, a divided chancel and a beautiful interior and setting for worship which is outstanding among our rural churches. The interior was redecorated and new pews installed in 1965 and 1966. Eldersville Church has always been on the same charge or circuit as Bethel with which it had a fine relationship. The 1968 membership was 211. In 1978 Bethel Church closed and merged with Eldersville. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 202.

ELDERSVILLE: BETHEL METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON DISTRICT
1829-1978

Location: It was located three miles south of Eldersville on legislative route 62006 in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church had its origin in the Methodist Episcopal and then changed and continued as a congregation from the Methodist Protestant “Reformers” Church organized in 1829. This Church had its origin in the Alexander Wells Class on the original Redstone Circuit 1784-1787. Mrs. Alexander Wells was a cousin of Richard Owings who visited the region in the interests of Methodism in 1783. Owings was a second cousin of Reason Pumphrey. Reverend George Brown, Methodist Protestant founder, was related to the Wells connection. In 1814 the first Church on the Richard Wells farm was built. In the former movement of the 1820’s a Reformer Union Society arose in the Bethel Church. After the denial of the Reformers petition by the General Conference of 1828, in 1829 Reverend Josiah Foster formed the Union Society members into the Methodist Protestant congregation, dividing the Church. The two congregations used the same building until September 9, 1832 when the Methodist Protestants erected their own building beside the Old Church. The Methodist Episcopal group went out of existence in about ten years. The second Church building was erected in 1874. It was destroyed by fire in 1909 and the congregation met in homes in the community until December 20, 1919 when the third building was dedicated. Bethel had been a charge with Eldersville from 1829 until 1978. The Bethel Church closed in 1978. The Church was sold to the Bethel Cemetery Association. The membership merged with Eldersville Church. The Membership in 1968 was 68.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Elrama Church grew out of the Methodist Church at Shire Oaks which was sold to the Pennsylvania Railroad for the expansion of their yards in 1905. Five lots were purchased in Elrama where many employees of the Railroad lived. In 1910 a Sunday school was started in the Elrama School House. The Reverend William S. Cummings, who served the Calamity Hollow and Newell Methodist Churches, conducted the morning worship services. Evening services were conducted by members themselves by the light of their Railroad lanterns. The Church building was started in 1911 and completed in June 1912. The Lapsley Brothers of Glassport were the contractors. Two additions have been made, the last being an educational building added in 1960. It was been a two-point Charge with West Elizabeth beginning in 1938. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 104. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church grew out of a preaching place on the Greenfield Circuit with services held in a School House on the Smith Creek road. In the 1830's under the urging of Judge Mark Gordon the Class moved over the hill into a new stone School House about one-half mile north of the present Church. In 1863 land was purchased from the Thomas Mooney heirs and a frame Church was built. This structure burned in 1902 and a brick Church was dedicated in 1905. The educational facilities were added in 1956 and dedicated in 1959. It was named Fairall Church for Reverend Herman H. Fairall, the pastor when the 1863 Church was built. Fairall has been the head of a Circuit since 1876. Its membership in 1968 was 132. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 139.

Location: Located at 120 Fairmount Church Road, south of Claysville in East Finley Township, Washington County, PA.

History: United Brethren – Allegheny Conference. A Class was organized about 1824. They worshiped in a log Church belonging to the Covenanters. A Church was soon built known as Wheeling Waters Meeting House. George Ealy and son-in-law, Andrew Stollar were among the founders. A later Church was built in 1852 and it served the church for 20 years when in 1870 it was partially destroyed by fire. The remnant was sold and a new structure was erected in 1874. In 1970 it was linked with Zion and had a membership of 123. In 1972 it joined with Stoney Point (former Methodist) Church to become Fairmount/Stoney Point Charge. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 124.

died in 1911. Preaching was held at his house from 1793 until 1811. Bishop Francis Asbury preached in the Fawcett home on August 30, 1803. Asbury's journal contains this account: "I stopped at John Fawcett's where, although very sick, I preached to a large congregation at 7:00 on Tuesday; My subject was Matthew 7: 7-8. I baptized several children." He also preached at the Fawcett home on August 22, 1809. After Fawcett's death in 1811 the congregation made plans for the building of a church. The land was surveyed August 12, 1812 and the original log church was completed in September 1812. Some of the original members were Benjamin Fawcett, Andrew Fawcett, Christy Boyce, David Cannon and William Keffer. It was originally known as Prospect Meeting House. The name was changed to Fawcett at its incorporation in 1925. A brick building replaced the log church in 1842. On a Sunday morning in July 1944 fire gutted the interior. In the resultant renovation the basement was excavated, a central heating plant was installed and the vestibule was added. In recent years further renovations have added an inside stairway, utility room and a kitchen. It has been on various circuits across the years. Fawcett became a single church charge in 1942. The membership in 1968 was 155. In 2001 it was linked with Meadowlands. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 105.

FEDERAL

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 811 Dutch Hill Road, Oakdale, PA 15071-1803

ID: 103741

Location: Located at 811 Dutch Hill Road in the village of Federal on the Dutch Hill Road between Bridgeville and Oakdale in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church originated as a Sunday School in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pittis in 1889. The Church building was dedicated September 14, 1891. In 1896 Federal was one of four Churches on the Noblestown Circuit. In 1897 Noblestown, Federal, Sturgeon and Treveskyn were on a Charge together. Then for several years Federal was under the care of the Methodist Church Union with part time pastor, but in 1949 it became an organized Church of the Pittsburgh Conference with a full time pastor on a Charge with Noblestown. In 1936 more space was needed for Sunday School rooms, the basement was excavated and made into classrooms. In 1955 automatic gas furnaces were installed, in 1957 a parking lot was completed and in 1958 an addition was added and the Chancel was enlarged. The mortgage burning was held on February 2, 1966. On September 17, 1966 the Church celebrated its 75th anniversary. Since that time new siding has been added to the outside of the building and a new ceiling and lights were added to the sanctuary. The membership in 1968 was 189. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 78.

Location: Located in the Village of Gastonville on the Finleyville-Elrama Road about 15 miles south of the Pittsburgh City Limits in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In April 1903 Reverend James Bly, pastor of the Jefferson and James Methodist Episcopal Charge held revival services in the Town Hall in Gastonville. The converts started a prayer meeting and Sunday school with the meetings in the Town Hall. The group was placed on a Charge with the Jefferson Church and on October 28, 1908 the pastor, Reverend John L. Dawson organized the Gastonville Church with twenty-five charter members. The Church building was erected in 1909. An educational unit was added in 1954. From 1917 until 1961 it was a part of a three point Charge that included Edward's Chapel and Pleasant View Churches. Later it became a two point charge consisting of Gastonville and Pleasant View. A charter member of the church, William Earle Thompson entered the ministry of the Pittsburgh Conference and served the Charge from 1928 to 1935. In 1961 it became a Station Charge. The membership in 1968 was 331. The membership January 1, 2003 was 96. Gastonville, Gastonville: Pleasant View and James Chapel voted to merge on November 21, 2005 and became incorporated January 31, 2006 as the Union Roads United Methodist Church. Gastonville closed June 30, 2006. Records went to Union Roads.

Mailing Address: PO Box 36, Gastonville, PA 15336-0036

Location: Located five miles south of Monongahela. Taking route 837 to Coal Bluff Road, it is one mile from the Monongahela River on the Coal Bluff Road in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Erected in 1871 at Coal Bluff, a mining town along the Monongahela River. Records show that there was a Church in 1868 but the actual location is not known. It was placed in the appointment list during the period from 1876-1900 known as the Coal Bluff and Belleview Charge. Since the need for a Church at Pleasant View was greater, the building was moved and rebuilt on the Harrison Lytle property. It then became Pleasant View Church in 1921. From 1921 until 1957 it was on the Gastonville-Edwards Chapel Charge; 1957-1961 Gastonville-Pleasant View Charge; for many years it was a Station and then became Gastonville-Pleasant View Charge. The membership in 1968 was 105. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 141. Gastonville, Gastonville: Pleasant View and James Chapel voted to merge on November 21, 2005 and became incorporated January 31, 2006 as the Union Road United Methodist Church.

Location: Located on the corner of 501 Fifth Street and Ohio Avenue, on the East side of the Monongahela River just one mile southwest of McKeesport in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Glassport was organized as a Mission Sunday school in 1895, Sunday school classes were held in the Pleasant Valley Schoolhouse. A frame building was erected in April 1898 under the jurisdiction of the Reynoldton Methodist Church. Reverend William T. Robinson was appointed by the Pittsburgh Annual Conference to serve as its first pastor in 1899. The corner stone was laid for a new brick church 1906 and on July 9, 1907 it was dedicated under the guidance of Reverend John Wesley Hall. The Church debt was liquidated in 1919. A new small educational wing has been added and this debt has been liquidated. For several years the church was involved in a Yoke Ministry with McKeesport: West Side. The parsonage is located at 501 Michigan Avenue and is located behind the church at the corner of Michigan Avenue and Fifth Street in Glassport. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 148. Location: Located at 1213 on the Greenock-Buena Vista Road in Elizabeth Township, south of the City of McKeesport in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This congregation was organized in 1850. It met in the Greenock School House on the corner of Luther Lane until the erection of the Church in 1858, with dedication on November 28th of that year. This frame Church building was remodeled in 1905 and again in 1923, the building being raised and a basement added in the later year. In 1956 and 1957 the brick Church was built on land purchased from Floyd Peckman. The consecration service was by Bishop Lloyd Christ Wicke and was held on December 22, 1957. The architects were T. Ray Fulton and Don Reid Health of Uniontown. In 1954, when Greenock became a Station appointment, the first parsonage was bought on Cherry Lane from Robert Johnston. A new parsonage was erected on 1306 Dalewood Street and consecrated on July 29, 1962. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 361. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

Location: Located at 213 East Pike Street in the Borough of Houston two miles of Canonsburg in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Houston Church was organized as a branch of the Canonsburg Methodist Church in the Town Hall on August 19, 1894 with eleven members and twenty-four probationers. The organizing pastor was Reverend Jacob Brenneman Uber. Worship continued in the Town Hall until 1897 when a frame church building was erected on two lots donated by W. B. Houston. The congregation continued as an afternoon appointment with Canonsburg until the Conference of 1900 when Reverend James M. Ferris, a local preacher in the congregation and a student at the Washington and Jefferson College was appointed as a pastor making morning services available to the congregation. In 1901 Reverend Ferris organized the church at Meadowlands. Houston and Meadowlands were a Charge from 1901 to 1915, and from 1930 to 1964. The Church History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. The congregation grew from a Class organized in the home of Robert James of Union Township in 1810. It probably was made a preaching place on the continuing Redstone Circuit of 1810. The first building was a small stone church built in 1817. An addition for educational and social purposes was dedicated in 1958. The Church is named for the man and wife who gave the ground for the Church and the cemetery, which adjoins it. The doors of this Church have never been closed since 1817. In 1967 the Church observed its 150th anniversary. In 1963 a parsonage was purchased. In recent years the Church was for a time part of a Circuit with Jefferson Methodist Church of Allegheny County, but it took Station status in 1956. James Chapel is the oldest building in Western Pennsylvania Conference. In 1993 it became a two-point charge as James Chapel and Donora. The 1968 membership was 162. The membership on January 1, 2002 was 114. Gastonville, Gastonville: Pleasant View and James Chapel voted to merge on November 21, 2005 and became incorporated January 31, 2006 as the Union Road United Methodist Church. Closed June 30, 2006. Records went to Union Roads.

WASHINGTON DISTRICT

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. Organized as a Society on the Greenfield Circuit by Reverend Thomas M. Hudson in 1824. Four lots were purchased on Hughes Street in Jefferson and the first Church was built in 1835. There is no record of what happened to that building. From April 16, 1869 until April 11, 1924 worship was held in the Odd Fellows Building on Greene Street. In 1924 this building burned. Services were then held in a storeroom until another Church was built and dedicated on June 17, 1928. It was a part of the Carmichaels Circuit for many years becoming a Station Charge in 1949. In 1967 the Jefferson Charge was created with Jefferson, Millsboro and Rices Landing Churches on it. The Jefferson membership in 1968 was 204. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 174.

JOLLYTOWN

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – BALTIMORE CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 1330 Jollytown Road, New Freeport, PA 15352

ID: 103364

Location: Located on Legislative Route 30010 in the Village of Jollytown just north of the West Virginia line, in Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – West Virginia Conference. In 1931 the Circuit was transferred to the Pittsburgh Conference. Started in 1821 in Centerville, which was the name of the Community until the name Jollytown was adopted in 1835. The Bland family donated the land on which the Church stands. The date of the original building is unknown. Jesse E. Taylor, the first Greene County man to be killed in the Civil War was a member of the Jollytown Church. It was an appointment on the Blacksville Circuit, Morgantown District, before it was made a Circuit under the name of Jollytown. The second Church building was erected in 1903. Its centennial was celebrated in 1921. It was a four point Circuit with Laurel Run, Pine Bank, Pleasant Hill and Jollytown until 1951 when Grandview was added. The parsonage has always been in Jollytown. It continues as a five-point charge in 1968. The membership at Jollytown in 1968 was 37. In 2001 the Jollytown Circuit consisted of Grandview, Jollytown, Pine Bank and Pleasant Hill. The membership January 1, 2003 was 33. Pine Bank Church closed June 20, 2010.

LIBERTY

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – BALTIMORE CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 1330 Banetown Road, Washington, PA 15301
ID: 103386

Location: Located in the Community of Vankirk Station, on legislative Route 62128 between Routes 18 and 19, five miles south of Washington in Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. Liberty Church dates back to the very beginnings of Western Pennsylvania Methodism. Preaching began irregularly as early as 1772 in the cabin of Thomas Lackey, two miles east of the Church. Lackey's became a regular preaching point when the Redstone Circuit was formed in 1784. Bishop Francis Asbury preached at Lackey's on June 24, 1786. Robert Ayres preached there regularly in 1786-1787. The Class was shifted to the Abraham Johnston home one mile east of Liberty Church. Thomas Scott was preaching there in 1793-1794 and that was still the preaching place when Noah Fidler was on the Circuit in 1804-1805. Soon after 1813 the Class was moved to John Scott's home and from there to his School House. It became a part of Washington Station in 1819 but separated from Washington on March 4, 1824. On December 24, 1828 John Scott deeded a plot of land to the Class and the first Church building was erected on it in 1829. A second building was erected on the same site in 1867. In 1898-1899 the new Church building was constructed, being dedicated on June 26, 1899. An educational unit was built in 1958 and a new entrance vestibule was added in 1966. Spiritual disinterest in the 1880's almost caused the abandonment of this Church in 1884. Mary Chambers, a young woman barely out of her teens, led in a revival of interest both financially and spiritually. This old historic Church was on nine different Circuits from 1824 until 1901 when it attained Station status. Its membership in 1968 was 385. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 284.

Location: Located at 926 Mapletown Road, in the Village of Mapletown, one mile west of Route 88 on legislative route 30016 in Monongahela Township, Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. In the earliest account of the original Redstone Circuit in 1784 by Reverend George Callauhan, a preaching point is listed on Big Whitley Creek. This was probably at the home of John Rutter when Reverend Robert Ayre preached in 1786. In 1797 Benjamin Maple sold land for a Church to Benjamin Wright, Jacob Black, Gideon Long, John Rutter and Jared Brush, trustees. A Church building was erected on it about 1800. Bishop Francis Asbury preached in it on August 17, 1803. He says in his journal: “I attended an appointment made for me at Mapletown; my subject was 2 Timothy 4:7-8. Many heard and felt.” Mary Minor deeded the site of the Mapletown Church to the trustees on August 13, 1887 and the building was erected that year. The Church was raised and a basement added in 1932 which was enlarged in 1951. The Christian Education addition was built in 1958. Greensboro Circuit appears in the list of appointments in 1833. On August 28, 1837 Thomas and Williamina Gabler deeded the Church property in Greensboro to the trustees and a Church was erected on it soon afterwards. The building in Greensboro was dedicated April 23, 1823. In 1919 a parsonage was built in Mapletown and served for the Greensboro-Mapletown Charge since that time. On December 5, 1968 these two congregations united to form the Mapletown United Methodist Church and the Greensboro Church was torn down. In 1968 the Greensboro membership was 117 and the Mapletown membership was 137. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 335.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference This congregation was formed by Methodist families which had moved into the community at the opening of the Marianna Mine of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Coal Companies, which was later purchased by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. The Coal Company built the town of Marianna. The lot on Second Street in Marianna was given by the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Coal Company under the leadership of the first pastor, Reverend George Bayha, pastor of the Zollarsville Charge. The frame building was erected in 1914. It was placed on a Circuit with Zollarsville and Winnett Chapel in 1927. The sanctuary was completely renovated in 1968 with wood paneling and carpet and was dedicated on November 24 1968 by Bishop Roy C. Nichols. Winnett Chapel merged on November 1, 1993, with Zollarsville and became Zollarsville Chapel. This later became the United Methodist Community Churches Parish, consisting of Beallsville, Beallsville: Mount Zion, Marianna and Zollarsville Chapel: The membership in 1968 was 125. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 88.

Location: Located on the southwest corner of East Lincoln and Center Avenues in the Borough of McDonald, Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized by Reverend Albert H. Davies September 2, 1894 and put on the Noblestown Charge by the Annual Conference September 19, 1894. The first meetings of the "Society" were held in the Gladden building, West Lincoln and South McDonald Streets. Later the Meeting Place was moved to the Young and Williams Hall on East Lincoln Avenue where the Church was organized. In 1897 a Church building was erected at the corner of East Lincoln and Center Avenues. This building underwent extensive repairs in 1952 and 1962. In 1962, the wooden structure was covered with brick and a new roof put on. The Church was incorporated in 1898. It has been on a Charge with Noblestown and on a Charge with Sturgeon, which was later abandoned and sold. It has been a Station appointment since 1950. The membership in 1968 was 216. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 185.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Colonel John Murphy, owner of the Meadow Lands Farm, gave the land on which the Church stands for a Methodist Church in 1887. Reverend James S. Ferris of the Houston Methodist Church began holding services at Meadow Lands in 1900. The congregation was organized with 15 members in 1902 and this group dedicated their first Church building on September 28, 1902. A second building was erected with dedication on October 31, 1915. The original building was made into Sunday School rooms. The basement was excavated in 1949 and the educational annex was added in 1955. From 1901 to 1915 it was on a Charge with Houston. From 1915 to 1930 it was a Station, then from 1930 to 1963 it was again on a Charge with Houston returning to Station status in 1963. A home next door to the Church was purchased and remodeled for use as a parsonage in 1967. The membership in 1968 was 255. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 167.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Joseph E. Wright organized this congregation while pastor of the Noblestown-Fayetteville Charge. He started holding services every two weeks in a School House, which stood across the alley to the rear of the Church in the Fall of 1873. On February 1, 1874 the Church was organized with sixteen members and on the first Tuesday of December that year the new Church building was dedicated by Bishop Randolph Foster. The Church was remodeled in 1904. The parsonage was purchased from Lizzie and Ida Porter in 1907. The basement was added in 1932. The educational unit was dedicated on March 23, 1961, the mortgage for it being burned August 18, 1968. The Church was on various Circuits until 1962 when it became a Station appointment. The membership in 1968 was 270. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 152.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church including a group of Reformers erected a log Church building in Millsboro in 1830-1831. The Church was built on land donated by Jesse Bumgarner. The Reverend Thomas Flower organized the Reformers into a congregation of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1834. This group flourished for a while, but then the membership declined and it was finally disbanded, most of the members returning to the Methodist Episcopal group. Both groups used the same Church building. In 1855 the brick Church that continued in 1968 was erected on the site of the original log cabin. For many years it was on the West Bend Circuit, in 1968 Millsboro was placed on the Jefferson Charge with Jefferson and History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. The first Methodist Class was organized by the Riggs brothers, who were bachelors, in Williamsport (Monongahela) in 1813 with eight members. Aeneas Graham joined the class and became the class leader. It was in the Monongahela District. The first Circuit Rider ministers to preach every third Sunday were Reverend Thornton Fleming and Reverend Lewis R. Fechtige. The congregation met in homes, seven different locations served as places of worship. It was a member of the Connellsville Circuit in 1813. In 1816 they used the Union Church for worship, which was shared with other congregations of the community. In 1825, Lorenzo Dow was scheduled to preach, but the Presbyterians would not unlock the door because Mr. Dow was not ordained and considered an eccentric. When the doors were unlocked there were no lights or heat, this gave the Methodists the determination to purchase a house, in 1826, and this house was used until 1834 when larger accommodations were needed. In 1825 Monongahela was made head of the Circuit under the name of Williamsport with several ministers residing in or near the community so worship was held every second Sunday. In 1833 it became a Station with Reverend Charles Cooke as the first full time minister. A building was erected and dedicated in May of 1835. Reverend Matthew Simpson was pastor in 1836, later became a professor at Allegheny College and was elected Bishop. He presided over the Pittsburgh Conference Session that was held in Monongahela City in 1857 at the old Methodist Church. That building was used until 1867. A new Church was begun in 1864, completed and dedicated in 1873. The lecture room in the new building was named Simpson Chapel in commemoration of Bishop Simpson's service. The Church hosted the Pittsburgh Conference Session in 1895 with Bishop Stephen M. Merrill presiding. In 1903 the auditorium was renovated and a new pipe organ installed, a gift of Andrew Carnegie. A two story educational unit was planned in 1913 since the average attendance was 500. It was dedicated in 1917 during the pastorate of Reverend Herbert M. Carnahan and a Century of Methodism was celebrated. In 1925, with mingled emotions, parishioners saw the removal of the tall steeple, which had been a landmark for miles around. A bell tower containing a set of magnificent chimes replaced the steeple. Memorial stained glass windows were installed the same year. To commemorate one hundred-fifty years of continuous service to the community, a Sesqui-Centennial Celebration was observed October 6-13, 1963, highlighted by messages from some of the former pastors of the congregation. One hundred seventy five years of Methodism in Monongahela was observed in 1988 and in 2003 the church has celebrated 190 years. The membership in 1968 was 652. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 514.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized in 1905 by a committee consisting of Reverend Doctor C. C. Conway, G. T. Livengood, Amada Rice, C. E. Stoneking, Charles Lantz, and Joseph Headlee. The Church was dedicated September 23, 1906 with Reverend Samuel Kyle Spahr preaching the dedicatory sermon. Assigned to the Monongahela Circuit in 1912, it was on that Circuit until 1966 when it was joined with the Carmichaels Church on a two point Charge. New pews were installed in 1926 replacing old opera chairs. The Church was wired in 1938. In 1949 a basement was excavated and central gas heating was installed, with interior sanctuary repairs in 1951. Major improvements on the building and grounds were completed in 1953 and in 1956. Fifty years of service were celebrated with an Anniversary and Homecoming. Since 1984 it has been linked with Bobtown Church. The membership in 1968 was 104. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 70.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. One of the preaching points on the Clarksburg Circuit listed by Isaac Robbins in 1800 is that of David Boydston. In 1813 it is listed on the Redstone Circuit by Reverend Nathaniel B. Mills. In August 1825 David and Esther Boydston jointly deeded the land to James Donnelly, Samuel Lemley, Baltis Higgins, Solomon Russell, David Lemley, Joseph Dooley, James Callahan and Justice G. Fordyce, as trustees for the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Mount Morris and the first Church building was erected on it that year. The date of the second building is not known. The third building was erected in 1886. In 1917 under the pastorate of the Reverend J. V. Potter, the building was extensively remodeled and new facilities added with Bishop F. Berry presiding at the service of dedication in June 1918. Since that time additional improvements and remodeling projects have been completed. In 1939 the Methodist Protestant Church in Mount Morris was closed and the two congregations merged to form the Mount Morris Methodist Church. The Circuit, which bears its name, consists of Bald Hill, Mount Morris, Shannon Run and Taylortown Churches. The membership in 1968 was 168. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 116.

Mailing Address:

ID: 010308

Location: Located on Township Road 432, ¼ mile south of the village of Bluff in Jackson Township, Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. The first church was built in 1850 and was destroyed by fire in 1883. The present church lot, across the road from the original building, was donated to the trustees in 1883 by W. W. Taylor, L. H. Mitchell and J. L. Evans and their wives and the church was built on it that year. Reverend William H. Gladden, pastor at the time of the fire and rebuilding, used as his text for the opening of the new church the passage from Jeremiah 8:22 which was on the page recovered of the burned pulpit Bible. The church was remodeled in 1951 and the exterior was covered with aluminum siding in 1963. The church was first on the Bethel Circuit, then on the Rogersville Circuit. Since 1960 it has been a part of the four-point Throckmorton Circuit. It's membership in 1968 was 41. The church was discontinued in 1983 and the property reverted back to its heirs.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Was on the Brave Circuit. From the 1952 Journal, “As there have been no Church services in the Murrell Church for the period of two years, as the building is deteriorating and as there are other Methodist Churches within reach of the former attendants of the Murrell Church, I move that the Murrell Church be declared abandoned and that it's future disposition be placed in the care of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference Trustees. The resolution was adopted. The records went to the Murrell family.

Washington District

History: Methodist Episcopal – West Virginia Conference. A preaching place on the Jollytown Circuit, which was part of the West Virginia Conference, until the Circuit was transferred to the Pittsburgh Conference in 1931. Popularly known as Rice's Pleasant Hill Church to identify it from other Pleasant Hill Churches in the area. In 1866 Josiphas Rice donated the land on which the original Church was built. In 1904 a new Church was erected on the same location. Mr. Lemmon donated a great deal of the lumber from his timber. It was built on a high hill and for years has had the tradition of having Easter Sunrise Services, which draws people from the entire region. In 1968 it was on the Jollytown Charge and reported a membership of 39. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 29.

Mailing Address: PO Box 43, Nineveh, PA 15353-0043
ID: 103728

Location: Located twenty miles south of Washington on Route 18 in the Village of Nineveh in Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The congregation was organized in 1880 and the first Church completed in 1881 as a part of the Waynesburg Circuit which consisted of Waynesburg, Hopewell, Throckmorton, Simpson and Nineveh. At the Annual Conference of 1883 the Circuit was divided. Nineveh, Hopewell and Simpson remained together to form the new Nineveh Circuit. On December 29, 1883 Nineveh Church was destroyed by fire. A new building committee was immediately appointed and in 1884 a vigorous building program was undertaken. A new Church and parsonage were virtually completed by the year 1885. Records indicated that by 1892 only Nineveh and Hopewell remained on the Circuit. They continued together and in 1934 Swarts Church was added to the Circuit. The membership in 1968 was 105. It later became part of the Greene Hills Charge consisting of Nineveh, Fairmount and Union Valley. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 134.

1832-1984

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was organized in 1832. Services were held in homes until 1839 when the first church was built on land purchased from Peter Graham. It was a small structure and in 1858 a new church was erected to provide more adequate seating. Due to damages to the Church a new building had to be erected in 1882. This structure was used for the church services until 1984. It was a member of the Waynesburg Circuit until 1882 when it joined with Nineveh and Simpson to form the Nineveh Circuit. It was still a part of the Nineveh Circuit in 1968. The Church closed in 1984 and was given as a “quick claim” to the Cemetery Association. The records went to Nineveh Church. The membership in 1968 was 27.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. It became a preaching place between 1835 and 1850. In the summer of 1851 the first Methodist Church building was dedicated, which was located on a hill. In 1851 they were one of eight churches on the Chartiers Circuit. In 1859 they became a part of Shousetown Circuit. In 1868 Noblestown and Fayette were made separate Charges but in 1874 Midway was added until in 1876 they became part of the Florence Circuit. On April 12, 1896 the present building was dedicated. At that time the Circuit was again shortened with Noblestown, Federal, Midway and McDonald as a Charge but only for one year. In 1897 Noblestown and McDonald became a Charge. In 1900 Noblestown became a Station and continued until 1934 when they again joined McDonald until 1946. From 1946 until 1948 they were again a Station. In 1948 they joined with Federal to make up a Charge. A new educational unit was added in 1963. The membership in 1968 was 176. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 123.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Ingram Spragg moved into the community in the mid-1890's and was instrumental in organizing a permanent Sunday School in the Village. He led in the effort to build a Church. The land for the Church was purchased from Mrs. Abigail Hoge on June 11, 1898 and the Church was dedicated on August 14, 1898. The trustees were Joseph R. Throckmorton, James Knight, Jesse Huffman, and Edward Hoge. The building of the Church was an interdenominational effort but the congregation decided to become Methodist because the appointment system would provide them with a minister. The basement was excavated and dedicated in 1928. It was placed on the Fairall Circuit at first. In 1968 it was a part of the four-church Throckmorton Circuit and reported a membership of 38. The Oak Forest Church closed in 1985. The records went to the Throckmorton Church. In 1989 the Oak Forest Church was declared abandoned.

History: Methodist Episcopal - West Virginia Conference. An appointment on the Jollytown Circuit in the West Virginia Conference until 1931 when the Circuit was transferred to the Pittsburgh Conference. In the summer of 1903 Elizabeth J. Ovetnurff asked Reverend S. B. Hart, pastor of Wise, West Virginia to preach at the Pine Bank School. A series of revival meetings were held in the school that fall which produced a number of conversions. At the Quarterly Meeting held at Wise in November 1903 a building committee was named. In 1905 the Church was built just west of the School House. It was dedicated on November 19, 1905 by Reverend J. S. Robinson, Presiding Elder of the Morgantown District. A basement was built under the church in 1954. It was a part of the Jollytown Circuit of five preaching places in 1968 with the parsonage at Jollytown. The membership in 1968 was 90. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 21. Pine Bank Church officially closed on June 30, 2010.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. This congregation may have had some of its roots in the Society that met at Shepherd’s Meeting House. Shepherds was a preaching place on the original Redstone Circuit of 1784-1787. Its first building was erected one and one-half miles south of Rices Landing in 1793. By 1844 Shepherds was a part of the Waynesburg Methodist Protestant Circuit. The building was not used much after 1870. At about this time steps were taken to establish a Methodist Episcopal Church in Rices Landing and some of the Shepherd’s Methodist Protestant members living in the community apparently became members of the new group. The Church property was purchased from Samuel and Elizabeth Sharpnack on July 11, 1871 and a Church was erected that year. The basement was excavated in 1931 and other renovations carried out. There was further renovation after a partial fire in 1957. Jefferson and Rices Landing were linked as a Charge from 1877 to 1926, when Rices Landing was transferred to the West Bend Charge. In 1967 it was placed on the Jefferson Charge with Jefferson and Millsboro Churches. Its membership in 1968 was 64. Membership on January 1, 2003 was 69.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Roscoe was known as Lucyville until the 1890's. Reverence Charles McCaslin, pastor of Mount Tabor Circuit, organized a Sunday School in Lucyville in 1881. The first Superintendent was Hiram Stephens. Other leaders were Harry Orkney, David Conner, J. W. Aisles, H. C. Sphar and D. A. Furlong. Services were held in a frame building across beginning in 1883. The new Church was completed in 1898. The annex was built in 1921 and the basement was excavated in 1931. The Church bell is from the river steamboat Robert E. Lee donated to the Church by the Rogers Sand Company. Roscoe was on Charges with Mount Tabor, Allenport and Howe until 1949 when it became a single appointment. Later it became known as the Roscoe Larger Parish and later still the name was changed to New Hope Parish consisting of Roscoe, Allenport, Coal Center, Howe, Mount Tabor and St. Johns in West Brownsville. The membership in 1968 was 326. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 160.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Church was constructed in 1850 at a cost of $660.00. The structure was forty by forty feet. The Church was founded by William Riggs in 1850. The ground had been purchased by the Quakers in 1799 from Joseph Allen, an English Quaker who had bought eight hundred acres from John and Thomas Penn (William Penn's grandsons). The original Quaker Church had been called the Fallowfield Meeting House. The building was formally dedicated on May 16, 1851. At various times the Church has been remodeled and has a modern chancel but still retains the original pews. In 1959 an electric organ was purchased. An oil furnace was installed in 1964. The walls and ceiling were painted in 1968 and vinyl siding added to the exterior of the Church. It has always been on Circuit Charges and in 1968 was part of a three point Charge with Allenport and Howe. In 1971 it became part of the Roscoe Larger Parish later called New Hope Parish consisting of Roscoe, Allenport, Howe, Coal Center, Mount Tabor and West Brownsville: St. Johns. The membership in 1968 was 47. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 22. Mount Tabor Church officially Closed on December 31, 2009.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The first Methodist Church in Hillsborough was built in 1852 by the Reverend Hiram Winnett. Before the erection of that building services were held in the local school house. The Church was located at the site of the North Bethlehem Township garage. The second Methodist Church was begun in 1878 along East National Pike, and was completed in 1879. This Church was severely damaged by a windstorm on Easter Sunday 1920 and had to be replaced. The third Methodist Church was begun in 1920. It was erected on the same ground that had been occupied by the second Church and was completed in April 1921. The beautiful yellow brick building has been enhanced in the last few years through the addition of glass outer doors, a new folding door dividing the sanctuary from the Church School room and by the remodeling of one of the side rooms into a study for the use of the pastor. The Church was on the Bentleyville Charge for many years before 1893. In that year the Hillsborough Charge was created with Hillsborough, Davidson and Fairview Churches. In 1900 Fairview burned and its membership transferred to Hillsborough. The Church name was changed to Scenery Hill in 1906. It continues to be associated with Davidson in a two-point Charge in 1968. Its membership in 1968 was 225. The membership on January 1, 2002 was 148.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In 1864 under the leadership of the Reverend William Gamble church school and worship services were held in a log schoolhouse near the home of Ansel Lemley. In 1868 under the pastorate of the Reverend Charles M. McCaslin a Church was built, the timbers being cut by David Lemley on a water powered sawmill. The land was deeded by Phineas Headley and his wife Nancy. The church was deeded to the first three trustees, Joseph Headley of Jessie, Elijah Hartley and Frank Headlee, their successors and assigns and the Pittsburgh Conference, “so long as the word of God is expounded.” Originally the Church had eight by ten inch windowpanes and a shingle roof and was heated by a small coal stove in the sanctuary. Reverend Charles M. McCaslin was the first pastor to preach at Shannon Run when church was completed in 1878. Later a small basement was dug out for the coal furnace. Many improvements were made over the years, including a full basement under the entire Church, a new shingle roof, and a modern oil furnace. The Church has had numerous Circuit relationships and in 1968 was on the Mount Morris Circuit comprising Bald Hill, Mount Morris, Shannon Run, and Taylortown. The membership in 1968 was 48. In 2000 the Church closed, merged with Claughton Chapel and its records went to Claughton Chapel.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized in 1890 by J. W. Jennings, a lay preacher. A school house was bought for a place of worship; renovated in 1908; remodeled in 1916. The building and property were condemned in 1940 to permit highway construction. A new Church was built at the corner of Jane and Rebecca Streets, on Speers Hill in 1951. Dedication was held October 10, 1954. It became a Station appointment in 1961. Mrs. Susie Cowell donated her house and grounds for a parsonage, which was dedicated on April 23, 1961. This parsonage was sold during the pastorate of Reverend Rex Allen Wasser in order to provide the downpayment on the newly purchased parsonage that the Wasser family was the first to occupy. In 1961, an addition to the sanctuary and an educational wing were built to care for increased membership. The consecration for the new addition was on January 21, 1962. The membership in 1968 was 321. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 247.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

1830-1972

Location: Located on State Route 231 five miles south of Claysville, Washington County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Preaching was first held in the house of Luke Enlow and afterwards at the house of Elliott Enlow. The first Church building was built on one of the Enlow farms in 1830. The name “Stoney Point” first appears in the Quarterly Conference Minutes as the name of the Church in 1855. Prior to that time it was referred to as Enlow’s or Enlow’s Meeting House. Local tradition which goes back to Nicholas Pees, states that there have been three buildings used by this congregation. The first building, built in 1830, built of logs, with flattened logs for seats. Boyd Crumline, in his History of Washington County, states that there was an older building that was made part of the frame of the new building. This must have been the second building. The frame of a fireplace, which apparently heated the second building was under the platform of the sanctuary of the third building. The new building dated from the 1870's. Always on a Circuit, in 1968 Stoney Point was part of a two point Charge with Claysville. The membership in 1968 was 55. In 1972 Stoney Point merged with Fairmount.

Location: Located off Route 18 at Sycamore two miles north on legislative route 30011 in the village of Swarts, Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. In 1816 John Simpson, a farmer opened his home as a preaching place on the Greenfield Circuit. Services were held in his home for forty years. In 1856 a building was erected in a new location. It was called Simpson Chapel and services were held there until 1877. A new Church was built in Swarts on property purchased from Sylvester Cary for two hundred dollars and was dedicated in 1883. A basement was added several years later and in 1911 the balcony and two Sunday School rooms were removed to give more seating space in the sanctuary. It was at one time a part of an eight point Circuit. Since 1934 it has been a part of the Nineveh Circuit. The 1968 membership was 86. The Church closed in 1998 and joined with Union Valley. The records are with Union Valley. A new congregation had been busy renovating and had hoped to hold their first East services in 2004 when a fire caused extensive damage to the building.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. In the summer of 1772 Eli Shickle, a local preacher from Baltimore, preached to a group of people between Brownsville and Washington, Pennsylvania. Perhaps he preached in the vicinity of Taylor Church. Thus, a group may have commenced meeting in homes for prayer and worship. This Circuit had 10 preaching places, all in private homes. The home of William and Cassandra Hawkins on the original Redstone Circuit in 1784 became a preaching place. The two preachers Reverend John Cooper and Reverend Samuel Breeze alternated, preaching occurred twice a month. Services on this site have been held regularly for a longer period than any other site in the Western Pennsylvania Conference. The first log Meeting House was probably erected in 1786 and known as Hawkins Chapel. In 1790 the Hawkins farm was sold to William Taylor (1794-1841) and later the Church was named for him. The Meeting House lot was sold to the Church trustees, Joseph Woodfield, Henry Hormel and Robert Swaney on June 9 1790. This was the time Hawkins Meeting House became known as Taylor Church. Francis Asbury preached several times at Taylor Church. The chair made by Joseph Woodfield in which Bishop Francis Asbury sat while staying Catherine Woodfield's home is at the Taylor Church. The log Meeting House was torn down in 1809 and replaced by a stone Church in 1810 and this was replaced by a brick Church in 1857. This building was destroyed by fire in the spring of 1872 and a new brick building was erected. The first Sunday School was organized in 1855. The first organ was installed in the 1870s and replaced in 1889. It was remodeled in 1904. Electricity was installed in 1927. The upper wall of the church was rebuilt in 1929 when it collapsed while the basement was being built. Memorial windows were added in the 1920s. A tornado practically demolished the church July 27, 1936. The pulpit furniture, altar rail, carpet, pews and the newly added Hammond electric organ were destroyed. In 1959 the educational unit, pulpit furniture, carpets, new kitchen and vestibule were added. It has had various Circuit relationships across the years and in 2001 is part of a two point Charge with Centerville. The membership in 1968 was 198. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 135.

History: Methodist Protestant - West Virginia Conference. In 1860 a number of people withdrew from an existing Methodist Protestant Church known as the “Calico Church.” One of the separatists, George Kussart, built a Church on some land he owned jointly with his wife, Rebecca. Beginning in 1865 church school classes were held in the new Church eight months out of the year, with preaching services held irregularly. In 1877 the two congregations were reconciled and regular joint services began to be held alternately in the two Churches. In 1886 the older Calico Church became a community building and the two congregations united to worship and work together again as one Methodist Protestant congregation in the new Church. In 1888 George and Rebecca Kussart deeded the building and an adjoining lot to the trustees to the Church and the Pittsburgh Conference. Some time after 1888 the Church was closed for a time but it was reorganized and reopened in 1912 as part of the West Virginia Conference Methodist Protestant until the Reunion in 1939 and has been in constant use. The Church is on the Mount Morris Circuit comprised of Bald Hill, Mount Morris, Shannon Run, and Taylortown. In 2001 the Circuit consisted of Mount Morris, Bald Hill and Taylortown. The membership in 1968 was 50. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 26.

History: Methodist Protestant - Pittsburgh Conference. First minister was Reverend John Clark, pastor of the Ohio Circuit 1833-1836. It was a Station Charge in 1839. Temporary quarters were the Washington County Court House from 1840-1842. It was chartered January 5, 1850. The original Church was destroyed by fire on November 8, 1851. On June 27, 1852 it was named Avery Chapel in honor of Charles Avery. December 18, 1852 was the dedication of the new Avery Chapel costing $7,200. From 1862-1869 it was on a Circuit with Amity. During years 1871-1882, the Silent Years, the Church was occupied by Second Presbyterians. The Christian Endeavor Society was organized March 12, 1882. Women's Foreign Mission Society was organized in 1888. The parsonage was built in 1893. The Reverend George C. Shepherd held the longest pastorate from 1896 to 1919. At the Uniting Conference in 1939 it was called the Avery Methodist Church of the Pittsburgh Conference. On March 17, 1957 land was purchased for the new Church at Gabby Heights and October 12, 1958 ground was broken. In December 1958 the new parsonage was completed. The last service in the old Avery Church was held on July 5, 1959 and the first service in the new Avery Church was held July 12, 1959. The consecration service was held September 16, 1959 by the Reverend Carl Emmett Sphar and the Church was dedicated November 8, 1964. Membership in 1968 was 480. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 318.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference. Preaching began in the Washington Area in 1772 when Eli Sheckle, a local preacher from Maryland, preached in the cabins of Resin Pumphrey, Thomas Lackey and Eli Nuttle. Congregation grew out of the Society organized on the original Redstone Circuit in 1784 at the Thomas Lackey home about two miles southeast of Washington. Preaching began in town in June 1793 and the first Class in town was organized in March 1794. Thomas Lackey's name heads the list of trustees who built the first log Church in 1801. Bishop Francis Asbury preached in this Church in 1809. Other buildings were erected in 1816, 1848, and 1875. Washington belonged to the Ohio Circuit from 1787 to 1819 when it became a Station. From this Church split off Liberty, Avery and Jefferson Avenue Churches. An education unit was added in 1959. Union services with Friedenskirche, Karl-Marx-Stadt, East Germany were started in 1960, held the first Sunday in March. The membership in 1968 was 496. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 292.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The Church grew out of more than a year's consideration of the crowded condition of the First Methodist Church in Washington. It was finally decided that another Church was a necessity and that a new Church should be located in the western end of the town as no denomination had entered that area. The Reverend James Mechem, pastor of First Methodist and the Reverend James Fletcher Jones, Presiding Elder of the Washington District, began to look for a suitable site. The location of the Church is land donated by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Shirls. The Church was organized on September 23, 1890 in the old Washington Court House with twenty-four members. The Sunday School was organized the next Sunday on September 30, 1890. The Reverend James Mechem selected these twenty-four members from the congregation of First Methodist Church. On September 26, 1890 the cornerstone was laid. Reverend George S. Holmes was the first pastor coming to the Church the first Sunday after organization. The first service was held in the building on February 13, 1891 and it was dedicated on the following May 31, 1891. The original name was Second Methodist Episcopal Church until changed by the Official Board action November 3, 1890 to Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church. The 1968 membership was 496. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 455.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Central Jurisdiction - Washington Conference. This Church grew out of Class Meetings, which were held in the home of Jerry Frame on North Lincoln Street. The first organizational meeting was held in the home of John T. Washington and the date of the Church Charter was April 11, 1906. Meetings and services were held in various buildings on East Wheeling Street, West Maiden Street and Sixth Street during the period of 1906-1912. The first Church building was erected and dedicated Central Avenue on January 7, 1912. It was destroyed by fire one month later. During the time of rebuilding the congregation moved back to the “Stone Front Building” on Sixth Street. The Central Avenue building was dedicated in April 1912. This Church and pastor were transferred to the Western Pennsylvania Conference at the dissolution of the Washington Conference of the Central Jurisdiction on June 9, 1965. History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. It was during his summer vacation in 1894 that Reverend Samuel Wesley Davis, pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church conducted a revival meeting in Shannon’s apple orchard, located at what is now the corner of Addison Street and Hart Avenue in West Washington. From this meeting the new congregation emerged. A Charter was granted on November 26, 1894 to twenty four members. On January 14, 1895 the Reverend E. T. Coyle came as the first minister. On July 28, 1895 the first Church was dedicated at the site on Fayette Street, less than a year after the “Orchard Meetings.” The building was built at a total cost of $78,000 and dedicated on April 24, 1927. The new parsonage and Fellowship Hall were both dedicated on October 6, 1957. Eight ministers, four missionaries, four deaconesses, two evangelists, and eight ministers’ wives have gone out from this congregation since its founding. The 1968 membership was 812. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 312.

Mailing Address: 152 South Washington Street, Waynesburg, PA 15370

724/627-3240

ID: 104062

Location: Located at 152 South Washington Street in the Borough of Waynesburg, in Greene County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Early beginnings in 1829 as an outgrowth on the Union Society in the Waynesburg Methodist Episcopal Church. The Church was organized 1831 by Isaac Slater, William Hunter and Daniel Hook in the old Catholic Church. Isaac Slater donated a plot of ground in Marion Township (now part of Waynesburg Borough) in the midst of a cornfield—hence the nickname “Old Corn Field Church.” They met in “an old brick Meeting House” until 1892 when it was torn down. In 1893 under the pastorate of Reverend Christian Albert Sturm, the older part of the building on South Washington Street was erected. In 1916 the educational unit was added. It was originally on the Washington-Amity and Waynesburg Circuit. Later it was part of the Waynesburg-Morrisville Circuit. In 1902 Washington Street Church became a Station appointment. The name was the First Methodist Protestant Church of Waynesburg until the Methodist Reunion in 1939 when it was renamed the Washington Street Methodist Church. It has the distinction of serving as the host of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church eight times—more than any other church in the conference. The membership in 1968 was 477. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 293.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized in 1922. Meetings were held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tretiak. Church School was organized in 1923. The original name was St. John's Slovak Methodist Church. In 1924 a building was rented from the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh. Coke Mission closed in 1932. The building was purchased in 1962. This building was an old frame structure begun during the Civil War era and remained as originally constructed. During the days of the Coke Mission activity in this area, St. John's played an important part. It was associated with Gans, Lake Lynn, Nilan, Fallen Timber, Phillips, Lamberton and Hutchinson. There have been several Circuit relationships with the Brownsville Churches. In 1968 it was circuited with Denbo on the Denbo Charge. It later was placed on the Circuit called New Hope Parish consisting of Roscoe, Allenport, Coal Center, Howe, Mount Tabor and St. John's. The membership in 1968 was 39. The membership on January 1, 2001 was 16. The Church closed in 2001. The records are in the District Office.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The congregation was organized about 1858 in a barn on the Rapp Farm, the building being located near the head of Border Street. In 1859 a frame building was erected on Third Street. Reverend Eaton was the first pastor of the congregation. In 1879, due to over crowding at revival meetings conducted by Reverend Samuel M. Bell, it was decided to build a larger structure. Four lots were given by Joseph Walton and Company. Plans were drawn by T. J. Wilson and construction was started in 1879 and was completed and dedicated in 1880. In 1964 an Educational Building was added. Since 1938 it has been a two-point Charge with Elrama. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 210. Transferred from Pittsburgh East in 2004. Church closed June 30, 2011. Records went to Washington District Office June 30, 2011.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. It grew out of a need for a Meetinghouse in this vicinity. It should be noted that two of the original trustees were also among the original trustees of the Zollarsville Church, Stephen Ullery, and Solomon Wise. On August 26 1853 William McCullough and Rebecca Dunn McCullough, his wife, made a deed to the trustees of the Methodist Society of a parcel of land upon which the Church stood. The trustees named in this deed were Stephen Ullery, George Baker, Solomon Wise, Nehemiah Woodruff and John Lewis. The land was to be used for a Meetinghouse for the Methodist Society. In 1854 a solicitation drive was undertaken under the leadership of Reverend Hiram Winnett for funds to build a Meetinghouse. Reverend Winnett, who was a Methodist local preacher, was responsible for building around ten Churches in nearby communities. As a result, the first building was constructed in 1854. It was destroyed by fire in 1864. Again, under the leadership of Reverend Hiram Winnett, another building was erected on the same spot in 1866. The Society was so grateful for the untiring efforts of Reverend Hiram Winnett that the new building was named Winnett Chapel. A kitchen and social rooms were added in 1959. It had Circuit relationships on the West Bend and Millsboro Circuits. From 1927 to 1983 it was on the Marianna Circuit with Marianna and Zollarsville. Winnett Chapel merged with Zollarsville on November 1, 1983. Zollarsville then became Zollarsville Chapel. They used Winnett Chapel for a couple of years for special programs and events and then sold the Church in 1996. The membership in 1968 was 48.

Church was originally Baptist, but Enoch's son, Joseph, a Methodist Minister was instrumental in having the property bequeathed to the Methodist Society. Enoch was strongly opposed to slavery and stipulated that "no slavery doctrine or sentiments should be preached or discussed in this Church." In spite of being damaged in the tornado which struck this area in 1854, that first structure served until 1922 when the second building was erected. Ground was broken for the new building early in 1922 and on May 13, 1923 it was dedicated by Bishop Francis McConnell. Contributions from C. P. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. David Reese, the Laural Band Class and others freed the Church from indebtedness by April 1942. The membership in 1968 was 323. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 241.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Originally known at the "Ten Mile Methodist Church." The Ten Mile Methodist Episcopal Church at Zollarsville grew out of a Class which met in the homes of Bennett Morton and wife, Samuel Gass and wife, William Bennington and wife, Samuel Garrett and wife, Solomon Wise, Stephen Ullery and several others. Reverends John Gregg and Reverend Hiram Winnett, local preachers, held the first services about 1840, in an old log Lutheran Church that has been torn down. A granite stone marking the site of this Lutheran Church is located in the Horne Cemetery near the Church, one mile north of Claysville. In 1842 the new House of Worship was erected by Stephen Ullery at a cost of $3,000 and presented for the use of the Methodist Society. The first trustees were Bennett Morton, Solomon Wise, Stephen Ullery, William Garrett and Samuel Garrett. The first preacher appointed to the Charge was Reverend John Coil on the Morgantown Circuit. The original deed for the land on which the Church was built is still in the possession of the Church and shows that it was purchased from Jacob and Isabelle Ullery, dated April 27, 1842. The original building is still in use. A small social room was added in 1913. The basement was excavated in 1956 and a modern kitchen, heating system, and rest rooms were installed. A stainless steel spire was erected in 1968. The name later was changed from Ten Mile to Zollarsville. In later years it was on the Greensboro and Millsboro Circuits. In 1927 it was placed on the Marianna
