Location: Located at Penna and 319 North Second Street in the Borough of Apollo on Route 56 and 66 in Armstrong County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Earliest records show that there was a deed, dated January 11, 1830, which conveyed a lot in Warren, now Apollo, to David Risher for the purpose of erecting thereon a “House of Public Worship for the Methodist Episcopal Church.” Reverend Benjamin Haynes of the Chartiers Circuit was responsible for the raising of funds for the erection of a log Church in 1838. Another deed, dated November 1, 1845, says that John and Nancy Speer sold to Peter Risher, John Elwood, John Cochran and Jeremiah Ward, Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church a lot adjacent to the Church. The old log Church and lot were sold and a two story brick Church was built on the new lot. At the instigation of Rev. Henry J. Giles, the new church was begun in 1898, completed in 1899 and dedicated in 1900. The Church was chartered by the Armstrong County Court on June 2, 1856. It celebrated its centennial in 1956 under the pastorate of Reverend Gilbert Grover Gallagher. Apollo was on the Elderton Circuit from 1859 to 1860. It became a Station from 1860-1861. It was placed on the Burrell-Apollo Circuit in 1861-1868; was a Station 1868-1876. It was on the Apollo-Leechburg Circuit 1876-1882. It remained a Station from 1882 to 1896. Through the efforts of the congregation the Vandergrift Methodist Church was organized. For one year from 1896-1897, the two churches formed the Apollo-Vandergrift Circuit. Both became Stations the following year 1897. Apollo has continued as a Station. It was known as the Methodist Episcopal Free Church until 1888 when the name was changed to The Apollo Methodist Church. The membership in 1968 was 672. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 300. Mailing Address: PO Box 192, Bolivar, PA 15923-0192
ID: 097364

Location: Located in the Borough of Bolivar on Route 259, on the Conemaugh River, in Northeastern Westmoreland County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Society was organized on June 5, 1853 by Elliott Robinson, who continued as class leader until his death. He had been class leader of the Germany Class from 1841 to 1853. There had been occasional Methodist preaching in Bolivar by the preachers on the Black Lick Circuit from as early as 1847. Services were held in a School House until the first Church was built and dedicated on February 2, 1856 by Bishop Matthew Simpson. A great revival in 1857-1858, conducted by Reverend Wiley W. Roup, produced over one hundred converts and increased the number of classes in the Society to four with Elliott Robinson, Benjamin Stuart, James Hammond and Colin McCurdy as Class Leaders. Germany and Bolivar were made a charge in 1887 and the parsonage was built that year. The new Church was built in 1893 and dedicated on January 7, 1894. It has been substantially renovated in the 1960's. In 1966 this church had the distinction of having its pastor Reverend Ralph Kenneth Keiper, Jr. to serve as one of the twelve Commemorative Circuit Riders who rode horseback to Baltimore to commemorate the Bicentennial of American Methodism. The ride was sponsored by the Conference Historical Society and covered the historic National Road, Route 40, from Uniontown to Baltimore, April 10-April 20, 1966 with Keiper representing John Cooper, the senior pastor of the Original Redstone Circuit in 1784. The Bolivar congregation supported their pastor in the unique effort by a breakfast and send-off program on April 9, 1966. The membership in 1968 was 223. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 226. Moved to Indiana District in 2010.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Erie Conference. In 1833 Reverend Zarah Hale Coston, Presiding Elder of the Allegheny District, appointed Reverends Abner Jackson and Chester Morrison to organize the Brookville and Ridgway Mission. It had twenty-nine preaching places and was two hundred fifty miles around. This provided the first Methodist preaching in the neighborhood of Brockwayville as the community was then known. In 1845 Reverend John K. Coxon and Reverend Henry M. Chamberlain pastors on the Luthersburg Mission organized a Class at Beman's Schoolhouse. The first Church in Brockwayville was built in 1861-1862. In 1889 the original Church was moved to the rear of the lot and a new frame building was built incorporating the old building as a Sunday School room. At that time Brockway had ninety members and was the head of a four-point Circuit consisting of Brockway, Crenshaw, Lanes Mills and Coal Glenn. In 1928 the interior of the Church was remodeled and the exterior was brick encased. The educational and recreation unit was built in 1967. The membership in 1968 was 611. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 510.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Erie Conference. Methodism began as a class meeting in a log barn near Brookville in 1821 with five pioneer souls present. That year seven new members were acquired for the church and a Sunday School was formed. In 1828 Reverend Nathaniel Callender was appointed preacher at Brookville then part of Shippenville Circuit. The congregation worshipped in a local mill, an old school and the courthouse until in 1850, when the first Methodist Church building was erected. This frame structure was destroyed by fire in 1856 and was replaced with a brick church in 1857. In 1885 the church building was sold and in 1886 a new larger brick structure was built nearby. Extensive membership growth later called for a larger building which was built of stone at the corner of Jefferson and Pickering and was dedicated in 1911. This structure burned in 1921 leaving only the walls standing. In 1923 the newly rebuilt church was dedicated and serves Methodists of this area. In 1965 an entire renovation of the structure with the exception of the sanctuary was completed. The 1968 membership was 902. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 679.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Sometime in the year 1876 on land donated by Benonia Clawson, ground was broken for this Church, the men of the community digging the foundation. Existing charter members believe that the contract for erection was given to Arthur Murray. Work progressed rapidly under the supervision of Reverend J. F. Steffy and on September 20, 1876 the Church was completed free of debt. The first pianist was Miss Jennie Miller. The first Trustees were; George Finley, John Winslow, Miles Grinder, Benonia Clawson and John Leasure. The first class leaders were Tobias Long, W. F. Williams, George Peffer, J. W. Vandyke, George Kremkrau and Grant Dunmire. In the Spring of 1924 the Board of Trustees under the supervision of the pastor Reverend Amedee Dilliner Eberhart made plans to erect a new building. Such rapid progress was made on the new building that the first service was held on Christmas Eve. The dedication of the building was held July 5, 1925 with Reverend Samuel Hill preaching the morning message and Reverend Benjamin Burton Wolfe, Blairsville District Superintendent, preaching the afternoon message. The building is 72' by 38' and is constructed of rustico brick. It contains a large auditorium, balcony, basement and class-rooms. The cost of the building was less than $12,000. In 1968 it was on a Charge with Covode and Steffy Chapel. The membership in 1968 was 91. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 87.

Location: Located at 17740 Route 119 Highway North in the village of Covode, about six miles south of Punxsutawney, in North Mahoning Township, Indiana County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The Asbury Church which is now known as Covode was organized by a meeting of members from the former Marion Center-Georgeville Circuit together with some pioneers from Canoe Township and some from Southern Jefferson County. An acre of ground was donated by Mr. and Mrs. William P. North, from the farm now owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Engle, on which to establish a church. The construction of a frame church was started in 1854 and completed in 1855. The church was a part of the Marion Center Charge until 1907 since then it has been connected as a member of the Cloe Charge: Cloe, Covode and Steffy Chapel. In 1900 a vestibule including a belfry was added to the front of the structure. In 1936 the belfry was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire. A new belfry was built the following year to replace the original. A basement was completed in 1951. The church has recently been completely renovated and adorned with new furniture. A new floor was laid and new seats installed in early 1959. The membership in 1968 was 74. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 87.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was organized, it is said, as early as 1821, probably by Reverend Thomas M. Hudson during his itinerant labors in the region, there being at that time about 12 members. Meetings were held in the various homes and barns in the region until in 1826 a log building was erected. It was located in the center of the cemetery plot and the name of Emory Chapel of the Methodist Church was given to the structure. The deed for this property was not secured until March 7, 1839 from Jacob and Elizabeth Pontius. The name Emory Chapel was in honor of Bishop John Emory. The first Sunday School was started about 1840 and at that time was held only during the summer; using the Bible and catechism as the texts for their studies. In 1865 the trustees decided to erect a brick church on the land with the parsonage, and work was started on making and burning the brick of the clay found in the land of Emory Chapel. The Church was completed in the fall of 1868 or early 1869. This structure is still a part of the Church in 1968. The modern addition to the Church was completed in 1966. The membership in 1968 was 263. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 256.

ELDERTON: SALEM
METHODIST EPISCOPAL - PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

INDIANA DISTRICT

Location: Located about seven miles north east of Elderton, in Indiana County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. A Methodist Class was organized in the community of Advance in 1848 and met in the homes of the members. The Class leader was Moses Miller and some of the members were Joseph Bates, Adam Altemus and Sterling Yeomans. Trustees at the time of the purchase of ground and building of the first church were Robert Beatty, John Grey. Joseph Bates, Adam Altemus, Joshua Ballentine and Mr. Coulter. This was in 1850. The new building was built in 1861. Several other churches were organized because of the evangelistic influence of the Salem congregation in years past. Salem Church was originally on the Elderton Circuit with several other churches and then for some years was on the Plumville Charge and in its final years was on the Elderton Circuit again with the Mount Zion, Cochran's Mill and Elderton Churches. Due to the decline of population in the community with a resultant decline in the membership and support of the church, the Salem congregation on May 19, 1968 voted to cease services and the final service was conducted on June 16, 1968 by the pastor Reverend Ellsworth D. Crispens. The membership was merged with the Elderton congregation. The membership in 1968 was 23.

Pastors: Elderton: Salem: Ellsworth D. Crispens 1967-1968. Merged with Elderton in 1968.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Organized from a Union Sunday School in September 1888 by Reverend William W. Hall pastor of the Oakland Circuit. The first church was a gift of Captain John B. Ford founder of the town and was dedicated in 1890. The adjoining parsonage was a gift of Mrs Ford. The name was then adopted in honor of the benefactors. The new church was built in 1923-1924. The congregation experienced extreme financial strain during the depression being forced to sell the parsonage and convert part of the education building into a parsonage. In 1945 the mortgage was burned and in 1967 a major renovation of the parsonage was completed. On various circuits in its early years it has been a station since 1910 except for a short alignment with Rogers Chapel. The 1968 membership was 412. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 238.

GRACETON METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

INDIANA DISTRICT

Location: Located in Graceton, approximately half-way between Black Lick and Homer City, three blocks west of Route 19, in Indiana County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The exact circumstances surrounding the first organized Methodist Church in Graceton are unavailable. It is believed to have been before the turn of the century. The earliest records are when the Church joined with Hopewell and Livermore on a Circuit in October 1907, with Reverend George A. Williams as pastor. At that time there were 68 members on the roll indicating that it had been organized for some time. Graceton was a mining town adjoining Coral and during the working periods Graceton Mine undoubtedly boasted many members and gave a fine spirit to the communities. An Indiana County Record Book C., page 347, tells us that an incorporation Charter was recorded on March 28, 1908, and signed by John Hockenbury, Samuel Ashbaugh, C. M. Lingle, C. M. Campbell and H. C. English. The original frame Church with a basement and kitchen is still being used today (in 1968) as the House of Worship. The land originally belonged to H. C. English, and was later deeded to John Appleton. In 1907 Graceton was joined with Jacksonville, Livermore and Hopewell. From 1918-1952 it was served from Black Lick with various circuit affiliations. Then in 1952 it joined the Black Lick Circuit, consisting of Black Lick, Hopewell and Strangford. Perhaps before 1907 it was served by Homer City. New Industrial development in the community gives promise of growth. The membership in 1968 was 28. The Church closed in 1979 and the records were given to the Conference Archives and History.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Hopewell Church was organized in 1817 at which time it was on the Mahoning Circuit of the Baltimore Conference. The first log building was constructed in 1819 on land given by Jonathan Doty. There were only three meeting-places outside of homes for Methodists in the whole area; Hopewell, an Armstrong County schoolhouse, and the Kittanning Court House. Pat McGee, an early member, was the first to be buried in the church cemetery in 1818. In 1832 Hopewell was on the Blairsville Circuit with Indiana, Johnstown, Hopewell (near Johnstown), Armagh and other points. In 1840 a new frame building was built and in 1843 the Circuit was reduced by the formation of the Indiana Circuit. In 1848 Hopewell shared preachers with New Derry, New Alexandria, Saltsburg, Jacksonville, and Ross Chapel (at Crabtree). By 1886 Hopewell was on the Livermore Circuit with Jacksonville, New Alexandria, and Livermore. In 1907 Graceton was added and New Alexandria was placed with Latrobe. At times Avonmore can be found in the record books too. The new building was constructed in 1889 and around 1919 Hopewell started being served from Black Lick. Jacksonville closed and with Livermore taken by the Conemaugh River Flood Project, Hopewell became part of the Black Lick Circuit with Black Lick, Strangford and Graceton in 1952. 1963 saw the addition of a large kitchen and Sunday School annex. The membership in 1968 was 104. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 182.

Location: Located at Church and Seventh Streets in the Borough of Indiana, in Indiana County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Thomas M. Hudson records the origin of the Methodist Society in Indiana. He says "In 1822 I was appointed to the Mahoning Circuit in Pennsylvania. At that time there was no preaching in the town of Indiana. I secured permission to begin Methodist preaching there in the Courthouse". Until 1841 meetings were held in the Courthouse and in the homes of members. The first building looked on Water and Carpenter Streets was completed in 1841. Indiana first appears in the appointments as the head of a Circuit in 1843. In 1875 a new church building was needed and the Board of Trustees purchased a lot on the corner of Church and Seventh Streets where a two story brick church was erected. This building was used until due to increasing membership the Board of Trustees purchased additional property to provide for the building of the beautiful New England Colonial structure. The new building was completed in 1931. The original name was First Methodist Episcopal Church of Indiana and later was changed to Indiana: Grace United Methodist Church. The membership in 1968 was 1323. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 1821.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The Mahoning Circuit was formed in 1812 and in 1822 The Kittanning Courthouse is listed as a preaching place on the Circuit. The Society was probably organized as early as 1812. After worshipping in homes and the Courthouse, the Methodists built a one-story with basement brick church on Market Street, probably as early as 1829. This was the first church building in Kittanning. On North McKean Street in 1863, the two-story brick Church with sanctuary on the second floor and Sunday School rooms on the first, was dedicated by Bishop Matthew Simpson. The new brown stone church at the corner of Vine and North Jefferson Streets was dedicated January 1, 1911 by Bishop John W. Hamilton. This sanctuary was remodeled in 1954; then in 1960 the attic space was converted to Sunday School rooms. From 1830 until 1850 the Kittanning Circuit was composed of the following 18 preaching places: Kittanning, Spaces, Brown's Furnace, Beck's, Glade Run, Coleman's, Georgeville, Leechburg, Smicksburg, Elderton, Mount Zion, Cochran's Mills, Graham, Rhoades, Ore Hill, Rural Valley, Colwell's Furnace and Sturgeon's. Location: Located on Route 949 twelve miles south of Ridgway, in Elk County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Erie Conference. This church was on the Arroyo Charge of the Clarion District which consisted of Halton, Arroyo, Portland Mills, Croyland, Rains Mills and Lake City. Organized about 1884 by Reverend James R. Miller, pastor of the Arroyo Charge. Services were held in the school house. Original families were: Scott Smith, J. K. Moore, Perry Kinley, Carlton Shick, Perry Moore, Sherman Fulmer, George Culver, John Kennedy, Mrs. Elizabeth Jefferson and Mrs. Gust Olson. Between the years 1894 and 1896 the Portland Lumber Company built a parsonage at Portland Mills and Reverend Tate W English came to live there. On January 29, 1896 J. K. and Rachel Moore deeded a plot of land on which to build a church at Lake City. The Warren Mills at Middletown and Neal Mill gave and donated the sawing of the lumber. Perry Moore and W. S. Moore did a lot of cutting and hauling timber. Everyone helped by donating logs and labor for the building and raising money to buy furnishings. In the Spring of 1897 the building was completed and Reverend Orley H Sibley, a visiting minister preached the dedication service. By 1906 Croyland and Rains Mill had broken up leaving four churches. These held together as a unit until 1926 when the charge was broken up. About 1930 Lake City was added to the Hazen Charge which in 1968 consisted of Hazen, Allen's Mills, Munderf, Richardsville and Lake City. The membership in 1968 was 34. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 25.

NEW FLORENCE UNITED BRETHREN – ALLEGHENY CONFERENCE

Location: Located on Ligonier Street in New Florence, Westmoreland County, PA.

History: United Brethren Church - Allegheny Conference. This church was located on Ligonier Street in the Borough of New Florence. The first meeting was held in 1850 in the Reed Laurel school house, later known as Furnace School. A “frolic” or logging was held by the people in the neighborhood and a log church was built and the congregation moved into a log church in 1856. On October 20, 1872 the new church was dedicated by Bishop J. Weaver, built under the pastorate of Reverend S. S. Canage. It was on Ligonier Street. In 1875 an organ was purchased and bracked lamps were replaced by a chandelier. A home for the pastor was built in 1886. In 1886 under Reverend George Wagner, the first Sunday School was organized. This class was first attached to Jenner Crossroads, then to Johnstown, in 1866 to Wilkensburg, in 1871 to Greensburg, in 1874 to Ligonier, later to Morrellville and in 1892 to Bradenville and became a station in 1903. Reverend Wagner perished in the Johnstown Flood of 1889. In 1890 new windows were installed, as well as a new roof, repapering and revarnishing of the woodwork. On November 16, 1946 the United Brethren Church and the Evangelical Church united. Between 1953 and 1960 extensive renovation took place. The basement was excavated and the church raised, pews were purchased from Park Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church and a gas furnace installed. In 1970 the church merged with the former Methodist Church and the congregation used the Methodist Church for services. The former United Brethren Church was sold. All members were united with the Methodist Church. At the time of the merger there were 164 members. Transferred from Greensburg District in 2004.

The first Church and parsonage were built in 1879 when Reverend David C. Plannette was the pastor. The cornerstone of the new brick Church building was laid June 30, 1905 and the Church was dedicated April 29, 1906 by Bishop J. F. Berry. RINGGOLD

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: PO Box 191, Ringgold, PA 15770-0191

ID: 085845

Location: Located at 4027 Route 536 in the village of Ringgold, thirteen miles west of Punxsutawney in Jefferson County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Erie Conference. Methodism started in the Ringgold area about 1816 when two traveling missionary brothers named Hancock passed through what is now Ringgold Township and preached at the house of David Milliron. Ringgold was formerly called Perrysville. Preaching continued in homes and other places and in 1842 John Wise donated ground for the site of a Church. About 1853 a joint Church of the Methodists and Evangelical Association was erected and a minister was appointed by the Methodist Conference. The first minister was Reverend George F. Reeser who was pastor of the Punxsutawney Circuit at that time. The Church has undergone several renovations. A building program was initiated in 1965 with the purpose of erecting a new Church and using the old building as an educational facility. Ground was broken for the new building on September 19, 1965 and it was occupied for services in 1966. The Church is part of a three-point Charge with Barton Chapel and Langville. The 2003 Circuit consists of Ringgold, Langville and North Freedom. The membership in 1968 was 145. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 173.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Erie Conference. Called "The Church in the Wildwood" because it stands in a thicket of woods. The Church was started in 1853 in a log schoolhouse. When the School burned a small house was erected on the David Steele farm which was used until 1860. At that time a church was built on land donated by L. D. Swam. Land was also donated by David Steele at the same time for a cemetery, both were members of the congregation. The church was part of the Sigel Charge until 1927 when it was disbanded. Retaining an active Missionary Society kept it a local Methodist Church. In 1934 it was reorganized by the congregation, repainted and the cemetery cleaned up and the driveway made usable. The Rev. William A. Thornton, pastor at Brookville, is credited with the reorganization and renovation of the church. Today it is an active and growing congregation on the Sigel Circuit. The membership in 1968 was 77. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 69.

Mailing Address: Box 336, Smicksburg, PA 16256-0336

ID: 097592

Location: Located in the Village of Smicksburg on route 954 in Indiana County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The history of this Church begins in the summer of 1829 when Reverend. Elijah Coleman held the first service in the then new village of Smicksburg the same year in which the town was laid out. This service was held in the open air as there were no churches in the area. The first Methodist place of worship was located somewhere about three-fourths of a mile west of Smicksburg on the land belonging to the Coleman family. Sometime about 1850 or 1852 a church was built in the town of Smicksburg. The first minister of whom we have any record as a regular minister of this charge was Reverend George Washington Cranage in 1851. The first church building stood until 1893 when it was torn down and replaced by the new structure during the ministry of Reverend Frank Prosser. The new church was completed in 1894 and is one of the most beautiful churches in this part of the country having a sloping floor in the sanctuary which was an innovation at the time it was built. It has been part of the Dayton Charge for many years. The membership in 1968 was 58. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 59.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. It was first formulated as an idea by Charles F. Libengood, who with the aid of many Strangford citizens was able to organize a Union Sunday School with Reverend Cravener as their representative in 1903. From 1903 to 1905 Sunday School was held in the Libengood School House with John Silvis as Superintendent and in 1905 they moved their meetings to the "New" school. Meanwhile the villagers were worshipping at Blairsville Intersection Methodist Church (now Torrance). This meant a boat trip across the river and with no bridge building in sight the citizens met to decide on their own church. On January 18, 1907, a meeting was held and Robert Pratt was elected chairman with Reverend Samuel G. Noble as secretary a Methodist affiliation was sought after and when a building began in 1907, Reverend Noble was the Pastor and Strangford was a member of the Cokeville Charge. In 1948 the Cokeville Circuit was dissolved and Supply Pastors served until 1952. Due to the Conemaugh river flood control project the Church was moved, in 1948 from the southern part of town to ground given by Edna Lear. A basement was dug and the building encased in brick and the congregation began to be part of the Black Lick Circuit. The membership in 1968 was 78. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 32.
