Location: Located at 2816 Broadhead and Chapel Roads, in the Borough of Aliquippa, Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. When the new town of Woodlawn was started by the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company the need for a Methodist Church became evident. The Methodists in the community were organized by Reverend Joseph William Garland in 1910. The Church was chartered as the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Woodlawn in 1911. When the name of the town was changed to Aliquippa, the charter was changed in 1928 to The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Aliquippa. The first services were held in the Municipal Building and then the meeting place was moved to the Highland School. In 1912 the first Church building was erected on Church Street. This served until 1926 when a new building was erected on Franklin Avenue and Main Streets was opened for use. In 1964 the congregation moved to its new Church Building at Brodhead and Chapel Roads. The membership then was 1,913. In 1968 the membership was 955. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 558.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. At the session of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference held October 7-12, 1903, Bishop W. F. Mallalieu appointed Reverend Joseph E. Wright to Ambridge where their was neither an organization nor a place of worship. In November a hall was rented on the third floor of the Ambridge Savings and Trust Company's building and both morning and evening services were begun. A Charter was granted to the congregation on January 5, 1904 and three lots were secured at the corner of Sixth Street and Melrose Avenue. A Church building was started and on August 7, 1904 the building was dedicated by Reverend Dr. Thomas Newton Boyle, Presiding Elder of the Allegheny District. On August 6, 1906 this Church building was sold to St. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Greek Catholic Congregation for $6,000 and a more desirable site was sought after. Services were held in the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church and in a rented storeroom from 1906 until 1909. On May 23, 1909 the building at the corner of Maplewood Avenue and Seventh Street was dedicated at a cost of $12,000.00. In 1926 the Education Building was added to the Church. In 1950 the brick wall, sidewalks and concrete areas in front of the church were completed. In 1968 the Narthex, Pastor and Secretary offices, new front steps, new pews, communion rail, pulpit, lectern and carpet were added to the Church at a cost of $53,000.00 The new Parsonage was built and dedicated in 1965. In 2001 Economy was added to form the Ambridge/Economy Charge. The membership in 1968 was 653. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 300.

ARGENTINE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT

1920-2001

Location: Located on a legislative route in village of Argentine, 5 miles south of Eau Claire in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. A Union Sunday School had been maintained for several years, meeting first in a theater and later in the schoolhouse. In September 1920, a subscription was taken for pastoral services. The Reverend L. G. Wayne Furman, pastor of Hilliards, organized a Class and began regular preaching services in the schoolhouse. The next summer the Ladies Aid financed the building of an open air tabernacle. July 1921, an evangelistic meeting was conducted and resulted in nearly 1000 conversions. The need of the Church was then keenly felt and on April 8, 1922, a financial drive was put on and the new building was dedicated on June 24, 1922. From 1932 through 1941 no minister was appointed and no regular church services were held. Sunday School, however, was held regularly. It was reactivated in 1942 and had several circuit relationships including association with Eau Claire and has been a Station appointment with a supply pastor at times. The membership in 1968 was 54. The membership on January 1, 2001 was 36. Closed in 2001. Records went to Cornerstone Community (Boyers).

Location: Located at State Street and Dippold Avenue in the Borough of Baden, Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized on the Freedom Circuit consisting of Freedom, Concord, Baden, Slippery Rock, Plains, Unionville, Lancaster, and Zelienople. There were 29 charter members. The first church structure, 32 feet by 40 feet, was erected in 1861 at a cost of $1,000. The congregation worshipped here until 1906 when the building was remodeled and used as an office until it was dismantled in 1953. In 1892 the Church was removed from the Freedom Circuit and made a Station with its own minister. In 1900 the first parsonage was built costing $1,360. A second Church building on a new location was erected in 1906 at a cost of $7,000. In 1944 a Building Fund, to make possible further construction, was established by a bequest of $500.00 from the will of a member of the congregation. This led to the construction of a spacious Educational Building and Fellowship Hall in 1955 and a new parsonage in 1958. Construction of a new Sanctuary Building, the third in the history of the congregation, was begun in 1968. The membership in 1968 was 855. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 628.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. An extensive revival was held in the Martins School, about two miles from Bairdford, in the mid 1870's by Reverend James Baumgartner, an evangelist of the Evangelical Church. The Shaffer family gave the land for the Church and the cemetery and in 1876 a forty by sixty feet Church was built, free of debt, by the Shaffer, Bonin, Sanders and Starz families. It was known as the Little Jim Church. Due to the inability of the Evangelical Conference to supply it regularly, in 1899 it was sold to the Methodist Protestants and placed on the Bakerstown Charge. It became a separate appointment in 1957. In 1950 the church was raised and a full basement was placed under it. In 1962 it was remodeled by the addition of a narthex. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 138. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District to Butler District in 2004.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. The birthplace was the Red Brick Schoolhouse, built in 1837, located at the fringe of town. The old schoolhouse was the original home of nearly all the churches in Beaver Falls. In April 1869, Reverend Samuel Ferry Crowther, pastor of the New Brighton Methodist Protestant Church began preaching in the Schoolhouse. The First Methodist Protestant Church of Beaver Falls was organized on May 23, 1869. Ground for a church was donated by Henry Reeves. The Church was located at Third Avenue and Pine Street and was dedicated on July 17, 1870. There were 41 members and 120 Sabbath School members. Rev. W. J. Sheehan was the first pastor. The church at Sixth Avenue and Thirteenth Street was dedicated November 11, 1904. Reverend Charles Fayette Swift was the pastor. Henry J. Heinz gave the address. Andrew Carnegie donated half of History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was established about the year 1835 and known at first as “Boots School House” and in 1857 the name “Concord” first appeared in the Allegheny District records when it was listed as being part of the New Brighton Circuit. The first house of worship was erected in 1851 by Reverend Joseph Alexander, a local preacher and carpenter. After 36 years the congregation outgrew the church building and the cornerstone was laid on June 18, 1887 for the second church building which was dedicated free of debt on October 2, 1887. Various improvements were made through the years. In 1920 two Sunday School Rooms were added to the front of the building and in 1940 a basement was completed for additional classrooms. Many different circuit relationships existed through the years and on May 25, 1952 the first full time pastor was appointed and a parsonage was completed the same year. In April 1961 ground was broken for the third building to house the congregation and the first service was held in the new church October 22, 1961. The membership in 1968 was 391. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 901.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend James Jackson McIlyar, minister of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of New Brighton, conducted the first worship services at the little Red Schoolhouse at Seventh Avenue and Eighth Street in 1867. In 1868 the first church building was erected. The lots and a contribution of $2,000 were made by the Harmony Society. The first parsonage was built in 1880 on a lot next to the church. A new parsonage was located in Chippewa Township. The Church was chartered in 1883 with G. W. Altsman, Henry Doffert, Robert Mitchell, William Rosenberger, Robert McGahey and Perry Graham as trustees. The Eighth Avenue

Class with one in Bridgewater and one in Sharon (Upper end of Bridgewater) worshipped in a small frame church built on a hillside in Sharon. This is believed to be the first Methodist Episcopal Church built in Beaver County. In 1830 a church was built in Irvine Park under the pastorate of Reverend George S. Holmes. In 1868-1869 the church was torn down and a new building was completed in 1872. During the interim services were held in the courthouse. The ladies provided funds for the purchase of a bell, the first church bell ever heard in Beaver. Reverend William H. Locke was the pastor. In 1905 a new building was completed under the pastorate of Reverend Appleton Bash. In 1961 the educational building was completed under the pastorate of Reverend Clifford Delmont Buell. In 1968 the Sanctuary (Chapel) was remodeled under the pastorate of Reverend Frank Irvin Snavelly. The first parsonage was built on Second and Insurance Street in 1866. This was demolished and a new parsonage was built on the same location in 1900. It was razed in 1976 because of the need for extensive repairs. A new parsonage was built on the same site. The membership in 1968 was 997. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 629.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. The Church grew out of a Class organized in the Thomas F. Christley home located a short distance from the Pleasant Valley Church, by Reverend John McComb from Clintonville in 1857. The first church building was a log structure built in 1860. The second building was built in 1872 at Old Annandale and then moved to Boyers in 1895. In 1941 seven educational rooms, a basement, kitchen and dining room were added. This building burned on March 31, 1959. A new brick Church was dedicated on June 26, 1960. The Church has been on the Centerville, North Washington, and West Sunbury Circuits. In 1968 it is one of two churches on the Boyers Charge. The membership in 1968 was 196. In 2002 it is listed with Cornerstone Community Churches consisting of Boyers, Eau Clair: Bethel, Hilliards, Argentine and Ridgeville. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 94.

Mailing Address: 908 Market Street, Bridgewater, PA 15009

724/774-7414

ID: 096963

Location: Located at 908 Market Street and Leopold Lane in the Borough of West Bridgewater in Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. Originally the Borough was named Sharon. This Church was an outgrowth of the Connelly Class on the Original Shenango Circuit of the Baltimore Conference. In 1820 a Church was built in the hillside between Sharon and Brady's Run. Then in 1839, a two story brick Church was erected on Otter Street. It was remodeled in 1860 and 1884. The second Church was built in 1907. In 1924 the steeple was removed as the result of tornado damage. Renovations were carried on in 1954, 1963 and 1967. Originally this was an appointment on the Shenango Circuit, then on the Beaver Circuit after it was organized in 1912. Bridgewater first appears in the appointments as the head of a Circuit in 1845. It has been a Station appointment since 1943. The membership in 1968 was 162. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 123.

History: Methodist Episcopal – North East Ohio Conference. There was an earlier Brush Run Methodist Church which was standing in 1876 but which passed out of existence sometime after that date. In 1894 Frank Guy, a layman from Negley, Ohio held a revival meeting in the Court School House. As a result a congregation was organized and the Church was built in 1895. The property was donated by William Graham and the builder of the Church was Elmer Groscott. For its first forty years this was a Church of the North East Ohio Conference. In the 1930's it was closed for three years and the building was put up for sale by the North East Ohio Conference. A petition was circulated to continue the Church and presented to the Pittsburgh Conference and the Church was reopened in 1939. It was on the Koppel Charge until 1964 when it was made a single appointment. The educational addition was consecrated on December 9, 1962. The seventieth anniversary was celebrated November 7, 1965. The membership in 1968 was 135. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 117.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The original Society was organized as Knox Chapel, one mile from Cabot at the intersection of Route 256 and the Cabot Road in the year 1824. Here the first House of Worship was erected in the year 1857. This was the home of the Methodist Episcopal Church until the year 1894 when a building was located in Cabot one mile east was acquired. The frame building was acquired and used from 1894 when it was replaced by a new larger brick building near the same site in 1921. This new building served the parish until a needed educational wing was added in 1961. In 1915 the Charge was composed of Emory Chapel at Ekastown, Fisk Chapel at Leasureville and Knox Chapel at Cabot. Fisk Chapel was abandoned in 1931. The Cabot Church was, since 1868 and possibly earlier, in Circuit relationship with Emory Chapel at Ekastown. This relationship continued through 1968 as the Cabot-Ekastown Charge. Cabot became a Station appointment in 1984. The membership in 1968 was 247. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 381.

Location: Located at Darlington and Shenango Roads on Route 51 in Chippewa Township, four miles west of Beaver Falls, in Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. Abraham Powers lived in Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland County, and was converted in 1792. His house became a preaching place on the Redstone Circuit. In 1795 he sold his farm and started for Kentucky. When he got to the Beaver Valley he decided to settle there. In the spring of 1796 preaching commenced in the settlement in the Powers home attended by the Powers, Thomas Stratton and James Welch families under the leadership of the Ohio Circuit preachers. When the Shenango Circuit was formed in 1800 the Abraham Powers house was a regular preaching place until a Church was erected. This was the first Methodist Class north of the Ohio River. The first Church was built of native sandstone on the Thomas Stratton farm in 1910. It was designated the James Powers Meeting House on the Shenango Circuit in 1811. This building burned in 1848 and a new red brick Church was erected on Darlington Road in 1857. In 1925 the building was raised and a basement with kitchen was excavated. An annex to the Church was constructed in 1950. Additional property was purchased in 1956 from Alfred Wilson. The house was used for classrooms and later renovated for use as a parsonage for the Associate Pastor. The rest of the property was made into a parking lot. In 1958 the Township Building adjoining the Church was purchased for additional classrooms. It was demolished to make way for the new Educational Unit in 1963. This historic old Church is becoming one of the strong churches of the Conference, reporting 967 members in 1968. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 1124

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was organized in 1823 by Reverend John Somerville and was known as “Beaver Creek Mission” Services were held in Reverend Somerville’s and Robert Davidson’s homes and in barns and groves in warm weather. The first structure was built in 1834 on a one-acre lot on the James Davidson Farm. A Church School was formed at the same time. It was in different Circuits in its early years and was placed on Enon Valley Circuit in 1871. In 1887 the second building was erected and dedicated. The first building was sold to the I. O. O. F. In 1884 the Circuit was named Homewood-Clinton. It joined with Koppel in 1940. In 2002 the Koppel Charge consisted of Koppel: First, Clinton and Homewood. The membership in 1968 was 144. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 76.

Location: Located at 206 Main Street and Harmony Road in the Village of Connoquenessing on Route 68 about ten miles southwest of Butler in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Congregation was organized in 1857 under the leadership of Alexander Bryson, a Class leader and the Reverend Daniel P. Mitchell, Presiding Elder of the Allegheny District. In the spring of 1858 an acre of land was purchased and the Church was built at a cost of $1,250 and became part of the Harmony Circuit. In 1858 the Circuit consisted of Freedom, Baden, Concord, Lancaster, Plains, Unionville, Slippery Rock and Zelienople. In 1912 a Sunday School building was added. On April 8, 1962 ground was broken for a new church to replace the building which had remained essentially unchanged for fifty years. In 1896 with the change in name of the community from Petersville to Connoquenessing, the same change was made in the name of the Methodist Church. Except for three years of 1935-1938, the church has formed a circuit with the church at Renfrew, although prior to this time it was part of the Butler District and the Brownsdale-Harmony Circuit. The membership in 1968 was 190. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 291. Renfrew merged with Connoquenessing in 2003 to become Connoquenessing.

CONWAY METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT
1903-1996

Location: This Church was located in the Borough of Conway on the Ohio River Boulevard, Route 65, in Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church had its origin in 1903 when a group began to hold cottage prayer meetings in the town. These meetings came to the attention of Reverend Harold Henry Westwood, Pastor of the Baden Methodist Episcopal Church and he urged them to organize as a Methodist congregation in April 1903. At first services were held under the leadership of Reverend Westwood in the upstairs room of a General Store. Then they moved to Stall's Hall. A buff brick Church was built in 1906. This church burned in 1920 and a new Church was dedicated in May 1921. Until 1912 Conway was a part of the Baden Charge. Since that time it has been sometimes a Station and sometimes associated on a Charge with another Methodist Church in the Ohio Valley. From 1959 until 1996 it was part of the Conway-Economy Charge. In 1968 the membership was 60. The church closed in 1996. Records went to the Commission on Archives and History.

Location: Located at 947 Freeport Road and Route 28 Exit Ramp, in East Deer Township in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Church began a Society in the home of William Nicholas in 1879. Organized on April 1, 1881 under the name of Hites Church, the meeting place of the congregation was in the Hites School and it was served by Reverend George Washington Johnson, the minister from Springdale. At the Conference session of 1881, it was placed on a Circuit with North End Church of Pittsburgh with Reverend Richard Cartwright as minister. Its first Church building was dedicated on December 18, 1881. In 1887 the Church was renamed the Janes Methodist Episcopal Church in honor of Bishop Edmund S. Janes. The second building was erected on the east side of the Freeport Road and dedicated November 15, 1903. The expansion of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company Plant in 1941 caused the sale of the property and the building of a Church. It was built across the railroad tracks. It was dedicated March 1, 1942. The Church became a Station appointment in 1882. It was placed on a two-point Charge with Center 1935-1961, becoming a Station again in 1962. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 204. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District to Butler District in 2004..

ID: 086508

Location: Located at Route 168 in the Village of Eastbrook about four miles Northeast of New Castle in Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. The congregation grew out of a small Society which met first in 1847 in the Briar Hill School. A small frame building served as the Church for 30 years at the place where the Briar Hill Cemetery is located. East Brook Village was chosen as the site for re-location in 1880. Shortly after 1900 the church declined rapidly and little progress is known until the year 1946. Improvements began with construction of a full basement and installation of a gas furnace; purchase of an organ in 1953 and chimes soon after were given in memory of the Frank Bubys. The new church school wing was added in 1953. A parsonage was bought in 1956 and the first full time pastor came to the church in that year. East Brook has been a member of various circuits in the past: King's Chapel, Croton, Harlansburg, New Wilmington, Shenango and New Castle: Grace. The membership in 1968 was 250. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 153.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. Prior to 1889 the community was known as Farmington. The first Class was organized by Reverend Coxwain, a Local Preacher, probably in the early 1840's. Lewis Chambers was the Class Leader. The Blair School House was used as a meeting place. Under the leadership of Reverend Edwin Hull, pastor at Clintonville, a Church building was commenced in 1850 and dedicated in 1851. The cost of $1,000 was raised by ten men each of whom gave $100. A second Church building was erected under the leadership of Reverend James M. Groves in 1872. The cornerstone of the third was laid September 20, 1904 and it was dedicated January 29, 1905. The building was remodeled and an annex was added in 1949. It was associated with the Argentine Church for many years but became a Station appointment in 1967. The pastor also worked with the Church Union Jolly Farm Camp. In 2002 it was part of the Cornerstone Community Churches consisting of History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. This Church was an outgrowth of the Class in the William Richards home on the original Shenango Circuit of the Baltimore Conference. The first building was erected in 1826 on land donated by William Richards from the donation land tract given him as a Revolutionary soldier. The new Church was built in 1868-1869. In the summer of 1947 the basement was built and the frame Church building was moved onto the new foundation. Ira D. Sankey, famous song leader for Dwight L. Moody, was born in Edinburg. He was the son of David and Mary Leeper Sankey, members of this Church. Since 1930 Edinburg and Hillsville Churches made up a two-point Circuit. In 1971 Edinburg and Hillsville formed Christ Parish. In 1996 they became a merged parish as Edinburg-Hillsville. Shortly after the merger the Hillsville Church was torn down. The Church cemetery remains on site and a memorial stone has been placed in memory and honor of the ministry of the Hillsville Church. The membership in 1968 was 137. The combined membership on January 1, 2003 was 60. The church officially closed on June 30, 2009. Records went to Conference Archives.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized with 25 charter members by Reverend Harvey H. Bair, Local Preacher and mill worker, in this new manufacturing town. After many financial difficulties a Church was built and dedicated April 5, 1896 on the corner of Fourth Street and Park Avenue. The Church was on a Circuit with other churches, mainly Homewood and Wurtemberg. In 1914 it became a Station appointment. In 1920 having outgrown the facilities of the building, four lots were purchased, centrally located on Fifth Street and Crescent Avenue. A new Church was dedicated July 10, 1927. The mortgage was burned in July 1952, just 50 years after the burning of the first building. An extensive inside renovation program was completed in 1957. In 1962 the lot in back of the parsonage and next to the church building was purchased for any future need. Two new office spaces, one for the secretary and the other for the Pastor's study and a Church Parlor were completed and furnished in 1967. On September 8, 1968 the 75th anniversary of Methodism in Ellwood City was celebrated. The membership in 1968 was 752. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 419.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The first Methodist Class in the vicinity of Freedom was in the home of William Elliott who purchased a farm in Moon Township, three miles south of the Ohio River in 1828. This class appears to have been on the Harmony Circuit when it was organized in 1833. The Church in Freedom was organized in 1838. Some of the members probably were from the Elliott Class. The first Church building was erected in 1842. It was enlarged in 1870. The parsonage was built in 1897, largely through the Epworth League initiative. The second Church building was opened for services on November 29, 1908 with Bishop James N. Thoburn preaching the opening sermon. The mortgage was burned in 1920. This Church celebrated its centennial in 1938. It was originally on the Harmony Circuit. From 1840-1843 it was on the Sewickley Circuit which had 17 appointments, seven meetings Houses and about 500 members on it. It was on the New Brighton Circuit from 1842-1858; then on the Freedom Circuit 1858-1867. At that time the Freedom Circuit consisted of the following Churches: Freedom, Concord, Unionville, Baden, Lancaster, Zelienople, Plains (now Dutilh) and Slippery Rock (now Wurtemberg). Freedom and Baden were made a Charge in 1868 and Freedom became a Station appointment in 1892. With the Methodist Evangelical United Brethren Merger in 1968 it put two Methodist preaching places in Freedom just a couple blocks apart from each other. In 1981 the congregations merged and used the former Evangelical United Brethren Church. It closed and merged with Freedom: Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church to form Freedom United Methodist Church in 1981. The church was sold. The membership in 1968 was 284. The membership in 1981 was 131.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Early records were lost, but we know that in 1833 the Freeport Church was taken into the Butler Circuit. Some of the early places in which the congregation met were as follows: A frame house on Third Street in 1833; a school house on High Street; a currier's shop on Market Street and at times the congregation would use the Baptist Church building for its meetings located where the old railroad station was situated. A Church edifice was erected in 1840. The Church organization was incorporated on December 26th, 1846. In 1848 the church became a part of the Tarentum Circuit until 1856 when it became a station. In 1877 this building was replaced by a new structure at a cost of $20,000 and was dedicated during the ministry of Reverend Matthew McKendree Garrett by Bishop Matthew Simpson. In 1881 the lot adjoining the church was purchased. A parsonage was built on part of this land in 1898 during the ministry of Reverend Solomon Keebler. A new three story educational building was built in 1962. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 390. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

HARLANSBURG

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

18??-1914

Location: Located on old Route 19 about two blocks off Route 108, Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. The cemetery with about 30 plus tombstones is still decorated with flags for the many veterans buried there. The last burial was in the late 1920's-1930's. It is assumed the cemetery would have been near the church. The pulpit out of the church was given to the Greenwood Methodist church and then was given to Boyne Edward Boyd when the Greenwood Church closed.

HARMARVILLE METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT
1893-2001

Location: Located at 100 Guy's Run Road, off Route 28 in the village of Harmarville in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Preaching commenced in the Harmarville School in March 1893. In March 1894, the Koontz family, owners of the Billy Baxter Bottling Company, donated the lot and a frame Church was erected on it that year. At that time it was part of the Hoboken (later named Blawnox) Charge. The Church was destroyed by fire on February 12, 1902, and the red brick Church was dedicated on July 5, 1903. In 1919 a Sunday School room was added. The Church, located near the Allegheny River, was severely damaged by the Saint Patrick's Day Flood in 1936 with the flood waters reaching a depth of ten feet in the sanctuary. The building was repaired and a re-dedication service was held on September 27, 1936. In recent years this church was part of the North Shore Co-operative parish including Bairdford, Community (Aspinwall and Blawnox), Fox Chapel: Faith, Sharpsburg: Grace, Millvale, Millerstown and Walter Chapel. The membership on January 1, 2001 was 27. The Church closed December 31, 2001 and the records went to the Commission on Archives and History. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

HARMONY METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT
1882-1945

Location: This Church was located at 99 Pittsburgh Street in the Borough of Harmony in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In October 1842 a Charter was granted to thirty Christians for the first Methodist Society in this vicinity under the name of Monroe Chapel. In 1880 they purchased property on German Street, now called Liberty Street in Harmony. This building was called Monroe Chapel for Joshua Monroe, an early Methodist Presiding Elder, on the Allegheny District in 1835-1836. On October 23, 1882 a charter was granted and the congregation became known as the Harmony-Zelienople Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1915 sixty members living in Zelienople withdrew to form a Church in Zelienople. On September 15, 1918 a Church building on East New Castle Street, Zelienople was dedicated and chartered under the name of The Zelienople Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1938 Reverend Wayne W. Patch was appointed to be pastor of both the Harmony and the Zelienople Methodist Episcopal Churches. On April 22, 1945 the two congregations voted to merge.

Pastors: Harmony-Zelienople: Theodore J. Shaffer 1882-1883; Zenas M. Silbaugh 1883-1884; George Emerson Cable 1884-1885; Frank Prosser 1885-1886; Edgar C. Location: 123 Pittsburgh Street in the Borough of Zelienople, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. In 1938 Reverend Wayne W. Patch was appointed to be pastor of both the Harmony and the Zelienople Methodist Episcopal Churches. On April 22, 1945 the two congregations voted to merge. Property was purchased in 1946 and a new sanctuary was built in 1947. In just 14 years the ministries and Sunday School program outgrew the basement of the church and the educational building was erected. In October 1967 a building lot for a new parsonage was purchased at 105 Peffer Street in Harmony. In 1970 a new parsonage was built. In the 1980s refinished floors, added a ramp for easy access, padding to the pews, new carpeting, a paved parking lot and a new boiler. In 1997 they celebrated 50 years occupying the building that was built to unite the two small churches. In 1999 a new, larger sanctuary, new fellowship hall, kitchen and youth room were completed. The old sanctuary was converted into an Office Complex with four private offices, two cubical offices, a meeting room, a general office, a choir room/music office and a library. The old fellowship hall was converted into an Adult Education Center with six classrooms and a kitchenette. All this was completed in early 2002. The 1968 the Harmony-Zelienople membership was 357. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 682

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – BALTIMORE CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT

1802-1996

Location: Located in Hillsville, Mahoning Township, Lawrence County, on the east side of Main Street approximatedly 1000 feet south of the intersection of Main Street and Church Hill Road.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. This historic church had its beginning in 1802 as a Class on the original Shenango Circuit under Circuit Rider Reverend Asa Shinn. The first building, a small round log structure, was built in 1823, on land deeded “to the Trustees in trust for the Methodist Episcopal Church” by John and Elizabeth (Patterson) Zouvers. Hillsville Church was the first church in Mahoning Township, south of the Mahoning River, in what was at that time, a part of Mercer County. A second building was erected in 1849 and a frame building in 1897-1898. In 1930 it was included with the Edinburg Church on the Edinburg-Hillsville Charge. The membership in 1968 was 63. In 1996 Hillsville yoked with Edinburg and the records are with Edinburg. Shortly after the merger the Hillsville Church was torn down. The church cemetery remains on site. A memorial stone has been placed in memory and honor of the ministry of the Hillsville church. The Ebensburg-Hillsville Church Closed June 30, 2009.

HOPKINS CHAPEL

BUTLER DISTRICT

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

1808-1916

Location: Hopkins Chapel was located in Bell Acres Township, Big Sewickley Creek, Allegheny County, Pittsburgh, PA.

Butler District

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. A small group of Methodists was brought together by Reverend Thomas McClelland in 1808 or 1809. They met in homes. Reverend McClelland died in 1820 and the group became aimless and their meetings were more and more sporadic. Bishop Robert Hopkins, a tall man with a long white beard, visited the area in 1844. His eloquent preaching soon rekindled the religious fires of the area residents to the point to where funds were quickly raised to erect a house of worship on the farm of Matthew Ingram. The site chosen was a small plateau adjacent to a steep bluff which rises out of the bed of the Big Sewickley Creek. A brick structure was constructed the same year and dedicated by the Bishop, who also gave his name to the new chapel. It had old fashioned pine pews. The chapel was used continuously for the next seventy odd years. At times, only Sunday School services were held. Due to the sparsely settled population of the surrounding area, it was never financially feasible to retain a regular pastor. Matthew Ingram, father of T. R. Ingram, was one of the central figures in the church's history for many years. Hopkins Chapel was on the Sewickley Circuit with Sewickley, Blackburn and Franklin from 1856 until 1858. Near the turn of the century the Sewickley Methodist Church gave spiritual and financial help to the struggling congregation. This enabled them to effect several necessary repairs to the aging building, thus prolonging the life of the church. However, the church had to be condemned in 1916 and was torn down in the late 1930's or early 1940's by people who wanted the brick. In 1999 it was noted that the cemetery was badly damaged, some graves dug up and tombstones scattered in the woods. It was overgrown with vines and bushes and tombstones broken.

Pastors: Hopkins Chapel: Thomas McClelland 1808-1820; Robert Finley Hopkins, Joshua Monroe, Isaac P. Sadler, Daniel P. Mitchell, Isaac Newtpon Baird, Lancelot Robinson Beacom, Francis D. Fast, Adna Bradway Leonard, John McCarty, S. F. Fishor, Joseph Horner, Joseph Buchannon Risk.

INDUSTRY

EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN – ALLEGHENY CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT

186?-1970

Location: Industry was located in Industry, Beaver County, PA.

History: Evangelical United Brethren – Allegheny Conference. It grew out of a preaching place established by Reverend Christian Newcomer, one of the earliest congregations in the Allegheny Conference. The first worship services were held on the farm of George Engle. The first building, erected in 1865 stood along Wolf Run. The first pastor was Reverend E. B. Kephart. The seats were slabs mounted on legs or sticks. A second building was erected in 1896 under the leadership of Reverend E. H. Barnhart and was dedicated by Bishop E. B. Kephart November 7, 1898 and cost $3,000. This church was extensively remodeled and the basement finished under the pastorate of Reverend E. E. Ormston in 1923-1924 at a cost of $7,000 and rededicated May 7, 1924 by Dr. J. S. Fulton. In 1970 when the Church closed there were 129 members. It merged with Midland United Methodist and the records went to Midland.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. The Church was organized under Reverend David C. Plannette, pastor of the Fairview Charge, in 1874, although there had been services as early as 1870. Mrs. J. H. Abrams donated the land for the Church and parsonage. Both the Church and the Parsonage burned in 1915. A new brick Church was immediately constructed under the leadership of Reverend Thomas N. Ryder, which served until 1956 when it was enlarged during the ministry of Reverend Clarence Peter Dalton. It was completely re-modeled and re-furnished in 1962 under the ministry of Reverend John Herbert Clark. The Karns City Charge included Fairview and Kaylor during the years 1910-1925. Since then the church has been on the Chicora Charge, which also included

Kaylor from 1925-1956. A new parsonage was purchased in 1966 and is shared with the Chicora Church. The membership in 1968 was 241. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 241.

Toby Factory used in 1909 and 1910. The congregation then moved into Koppel and used a rented building formerly used as a carpenter shop and tool building. The Koppel Public School was built in 1913 and a room in the school was used for Church School and Worship services. A new Church building was built in August 1914. The church prospered and the mortgage was burned in 1919. A parsonage was added on the adjoining lot in 1924. Clinton and Homewood Church were added to the Charge in 1940. A Church school and social auditorium was added in 1966 to care for the growing congregation. The membership in 1968 was 244. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 101.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In its origins, this Church has a close relationship with the Fenelton Church. In October 1857 a Church building was erected on the Graff farm and used as a joint Methodist-Lutheran place of worship. During the Civil War the congregation dwindled to a few members and the Church was sold to Thomas Dipner and used as a granary. In 1881 Peter Fennell secured the services of Parks McKee and a revival meeting was held at Gospel Corners, the crossroads at Fenelton. It was determined to reorganize the Old

Chapel. Thomas Dipner deeded the building to the congregation in 1881, and it has been in use since that date. McKee Chapel, Fenelton and Craigsville Church have always sustained a close relationship and in 1969 they were constituted a three-point charge. The membership in 1968 was 91. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 48.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The names of the founders of the Church are not known. The Church was built in 1853 on land donated by Benjamin Miller, one of the early settlers. It is believed that this parcel of ground was donated in 1852. The sanctuary, which is still in use was erected of hand made bricks. In 1952, under the leadership of Reverend Mrs. Frances Athey who succeeded her husband, Reverend Lawrence Athey, as minister, an educational unit of three rooms was added. Under the leadership of Reverend George Campbell the Church, in 1962, purchased two acres of land. The ground is used for parking and recreation, with future plans of erecting a new Church structure. The Church has been part of many circuits, therefore pastoral relationships cannot be readily traced. Millerstown and Bairdford were a two point Charge in 2000 and in 2003 Millerstown and Creighton: Janes were a two point Charge. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 135. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

MONROE CHAPEL (HARMONY-ZELIENOPLE) METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT

Location: Located in the borough of Zelenople, in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Records indicate that the “Harmony Circuit” was established by Elder Joshua Monroe in 1834 which brought preachers to the Harmony-Zelenople area for the first time. In October 1842, a Charter was granted to thirty Christians for the first Methodist Society in this vicinity. A small building was erected on the corner of High and New Castle Streets in Zelenople. This building was called Monroe Chapel for Joshua Monroe, an early Methodist Presiding Elder, on the Allegheny District in 1835-1836, and was the first Methodist Episcopal Church in the area. In 1858 The Circuit consisted of Freedom, Baden, Concord, Lancaster, Plains (later called Dutilh), Unionville, Slippery Rock and Zelenople. In 1880 the people of Monroe Chapel purchased property on German Street in Harmony and built their first church. The church’s name was the “Harmony Methodist Episcopal Church.” On October 23, 1882 a charter was granted and the congregation became known as the Harmony-Zelenople Methodist Episcopal Church.

NATRONA METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT
1852-1995

Mailing Address: 3 Philadelphia Avenue, Natrona, PA 15065

Location: Located at the corner of Philadelphia Avenue and Wood Street in the town of Natrona, between Route 28 and the Allegheny River approximately 22 miles north of Pittsburgh, in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. At first, a United Presbyterian Church existed in Natrona for all Protestants denominations. The nearest Methodist Churches were in Freeport and Tarentum. The first building was started in 1852 on Railroad Street, now Blue Ridge Avenue, on ground given by the Penn Salt Chemical firm. It was dedicated on October 27, 1864, during the pastorate of Reverend Jeremiah W. Kessler. The ground on which this Church was located was reclaimed by Penn Salt when the firm deeded the plot for the church's site to the Natrona Methodist Episcopal congregation, in 1913. In 1913, during the pastorate of the Reverend Daniel M. Paul, the buff brick church and parsonage were erected at the corner of Philadelphia Avenue and Wood Street at a cost of $50,000.00. The Church and parsonage were built as a unit and were so dedicated on July 26, 1914. In 1952, October 5 to 26, The Natrona Methodist Church held its Centennial Observance, "A Century of Christian Service", during the pastorate of Reverend William E. Collins. Natrona was a part of a two point charge with Tarentum between the years 1864 and 1886, at which time it became a Station church with its own minister. In 1995 it "administratively blended" with the Natrona Heights: Grace United Methodist Church, for pastorate care and ministry. Both buildings are being used. The membership on January 1, 2000 was included with Natrona Heights: Grace Church. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 1333 Freeport Road, Natrona Heights, PA 15065-1197

ID: 096427

Location: Located at 1333 Freeport Road in Natrona Heights, Harrison Township on Route 28, in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This congregation has its origin in a prayer meeting in the home of Samuel R. Montgomery, Sr. in 1877. First a lime shed, then a storeroom in the community of Pleasantville were used as places of worship. In 1894 the Pleasantville Church was erected. In 1914 Mrs. Elizabeth Bender donated two lots at Keystone and Second Streets in the Compton Community, and a Church was erected on them being dedicated August 30, 1914. The site on Route 28 was secured in 1922. The first unit of the building was dedicated on April 5, 1925. At that time the name was changed from Compton to Grace Church of Natrona Heights. The Church building was dedicated August 5, 1928. During the depression of the 1930's the Church property was saved through the sponsorship of the Methodist Church Union. The parsonage was lost during the time of financial difficulties. Another parsonage on California Avenue was donated by Samuel R. Montgomery, Jr. in 1940. The mortgage was finally paid off in 1948 and in 1957 the Nate Danver and Hrivnak properties adjoining the Church were purchased. On these properties a new educational building and youth center was erected in 1963 at a cost of $750,000.00. A strong youth activity and musical program featured the work of this Church. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 518. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Phineas Inskip of the Wellsville Circuit organized the Church as a Methodist Protestant Mission in 1842. There were twenty-five names on the membership list and they met in a small building located on the northeast corner of Third Avenue and Twelfth Street. In 1843 a Church edifice, known as the First Methodist Protestant Church of New Brighton, was erected on a site given by Hugh Robinson and located at the southeast corner of Fifth Avenue and Thirteenth Street and served as a place of worship for nearly twenty years. In March of 1860 the Society became a corporate body, the charter was signed and work began on the erection of a new building. Leadership was in the hands of Reverend Dr. William Reeves and his wife, the Reverend Mrs. Hannah Reeves. Under their guidance the ground floor of the new structure was finished in time for the Pittsburgh Conference Methodist Protestant Church to hold its twenty-eighth annual session on September 4, 1861. Two years later, in 1863, the second story was completed which included also the steeple and the bell. The history continues with extensive repairs from 1866 through 1873 when under the pastorate of Reverend Dr. David Jones the tower was at last completed as per the original design. In 1898 Reverend William Henry Gladden dedicated the newly installed Pipe Organ on Easter Sunday morning. With Methodist reunion in 1939 we ceased to be known as the First Methodist Protestant Church of New Brighton” and became known as the “Fifth Avenue Methodist Church.” In the 1950’s a piano was purchased and many repairs and improvements were made to the church. A new parsonage was purchased. A new console for the organ was purchased in 1964. The membership

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. A Sunday School was organized in a School House in New Brighton on May 8, 1837. In 1840 New Brighton was made the head of the New Brighton Circuit with Reverend Edward Birkett, the Circuit Rider. The Circuit continued until 1859 when New Brighton became a Station appointment. The first Church was built in 1848 on Sixth Avenue. The Charter of the Church is dated February 8, 1849. A second Church building was erected in 1868 at Fourth Avenue and Eleventh Street. In 1895 one hundred seventy-six members withdrew from the membership of First Church and organized the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church congregation. The Church at Sixth Avenue and Eleventh Street was built in 1904. The new educational wing was added in 1959. The membership in 1968 was 671. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 309. New Brighton: First became part of New Brighton Church in 2007 which was a merger of New Brighton: Fifth, New Brighton: First, New Brighton: Grace and Freedom. New Brighton Churches were rotated for worship. The three New Brighton Churches merged in 2007 to form a new church called New Brighton. History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Church was organized on Wednesday evening, October 16, 1895 by the Reverend Asbury L. Petty, Presiding Elder of the Allegheny District of the Pittsburgh Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church. Original name was Grace Methodist Episcopal Church and the membership was composed of 176 persons, all members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of New Brighton. First step toward organization was taken on the evening of October 3, 1895, when 20 persons gathered to consult about the matter and decided unanimously to organize. The second step was a public meeting in Grace Mission Chapel in 13th Avenue with a large number of persons present and enthusiastically in favor of organizing. On Sunday, October 13, 1895, the Reverend R. N. Leak, later to be appointed first pastor, preached to “large and interested congregations” in the morning and evening at the same place. Motivation for formation of the new congregation is not mentioned in historical records, but older members say a schism over management of money at First Church was responsible. The congregation first met at Grace Mission Chapel on 13th Avenue but by November of 1895 had moved to the Andre and Mali Building at 707-709 Third Avenue. This building was first leased, then bought, remodeled and improved in 1899 and 1901 and was used until 1917. Then the property was sold and the first unit of the present building was erected and put into use that same year. The new sanctuary and sub-structure were built in 1922 and with minor changes has continued to serve the congregation. The Church was a Station from the beginning. It was legally incorporated on April 27, 1896. In 1999 it became linked with New Brighton: Fifth Avenue to form the New Brighton Parish: Faith with New Brighton: Faith and New Brighton: Grace. The membership reported in the 1968 Journal was 518. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 210. New Brighton: Grace became part of New Brighton Church in 2007 which was a merger of New Brighton: Fifth, New Brighton: First, New Brighton: Grace and Freedom. New Brighton Churches were rotated for worship. The three New Brighton Churches merged in 2007 to form a new church called New Brighton. History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. This Church was organized by a group of members from First Methodist Church of New Castle because of geographical and transportation difficulties. The first building, Second Methodist Church of New Castle, but also known as “Little Jim Church,” was erected on a five acre tract on the corner of Pearson and Epworth Streets in 1875. In 1884 the Church was destroyed by fire. In 1885 a new brick Church was erected and named Epworth. The Church was responsible for the formation of Grace Methodist Church of New Castle in 1898. When Grace Church out-lived its usefulness because of the establishment of an Italian “national” mission it merged with the mother Church in 1929 and the new building was erected on East Washington Street. It was dedicated in July 1931. The Italian Mission work began in 1904 and it was named the Italian Methodist Episcopal Church in 1915 when its last building was built. In 1948 the name was changed to Christ Methodist Church and merger with the Epworth Church took place in 1965. In 1968 the property presently was valued at $700,000.00 and was one of the most beautiful churches in the New Castle area. The membership in 1968 was 737. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 275.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. In 1803 the First Methodist Class was formed in the home of Reverend William Richards on the original Shenango Circuit. The 1810 Class was rejuvenated by same people with Reverend James Watts, Circuit Rider. The second church was built of brick on the same site in 1835. The third church was built on the same location in 1854. The fourth church on North Jefferson and North Streets was built in 1888 and enlarged in 1911 as a result of the Billy Sunday campaign. Ira D. Sankey, the famous gospel singer, donated the land for this building and served as Church School Superintendent. It grew to a church of 1823 members before the depression hit New Castle. The famous Treadwell windows were installed in 1905 and the Sankey windows in 1911. After several years of talk and survey, land was purchased in Neshannock Township for the fifth structure. The first Sunday in the new building was the Sunday after Easter, April 1, 1967. The building consisted of a Fellowship Hall and an Educational Unit. The membership in 1968 was 699. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 433.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. Grace Church was an outgrowth of the New Castle: Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church. In its same location there arose the Italian “National” Mission work begun in 1904 and it was named the Italian Methodist Episcopal Church in 1915, when its last building was built. Grace Methodist outlived its usefulness because of the Italian Methodist Work. New Castle: Grace then merged with the mother church and closed in 1929.

NEW CASTLE: GREENWOOD METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT
1857-1983

Location: Located at 930 State Road, at the intersection of Route 65 and State Road, six miles south of New Castle, Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. In the years 1857-1858 successful camp meetings were held in a Maple Grove at the intersection of Route 65 and State Road south of New Castle and as a result of these meetings a Methodist Class was formed in 1859. Services were held in a log school building known as Warnock School. In 1860 a church building was erected on land donated by William Harbison for Church purposes and a burial ground. The Church was a frame structure and was built by Abraham P. Shaffer with lumber donated by Mr. Aiken and brought to the site from Crawford County. The Church was a part of what was known as the Moravia Circuit which included Greenwood, Croton, Savannah, Moravia and Mount Pleasant. The original building was still used until 1983 with the exception that in 1921 the building was raised and a basement added. New pews, stained glass windows and a heating system was also added. In 1938 the building was damaged by fire and at this time the interior was completely renovated. On May 19, 1968 the remaining membership of the Simpson Church was merged with the Greenwood congregation. The Simpson Church was organized in 1903 by a merger of the Oakland Mission and the McKinley Street Mission and its Church building was erected at 1117 Atlantic Avenue on Route 18 in 1904. The Greenwood membership in 1968 was 149. With declining membership the remaining members declared the church abandoned in 1983 and the church records were turned over to the Conference Commission on Archives and History. The Church Closed in 1983.

War veteran, moved into the neighborhood in 1806. In 1830 he and his wife gave an acre of land for Church purposes and the first Church building was erected on it in 1835 with one door for men and one for women. They sat on opposite sides of the sanctuary. Later Church buildings were erected in 1856, 1898 and 1961. Ira D. Sankey, Dwight L. Moody's song leader, was converted at King's Chapel in 1858 and became choir director of the congregation. It became known as the "Singing Chapel". For many years before 1940 it was on a Charge with Wesley Church and from 1940 to 1960 it was part of a Charge with Pulaski. In 1960 it became a Station appointment. The congregation moved into a building located on the Heckathorn farm close to the original location, on April 15, 1962, with 200 members. The 1968 membership was 311. Membership on January 1, 2003 was 199.

NEW CASTLE: MAHONING METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

1868-1992

Location: This Church was located on North Cedar Street in the City of New castle, Lawrence County, PA

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. This section of New Castle was originally called Crosscut and later Mahoningtown. It is now the seventh Ward of the City of New Castle. In 1866 Reverend Ebenezer Bennett, pastor of the Greenwood Charge, lived in New Castle. He began preaching twice a month in the Schoolhouse in Mahoningtown. The first frame Church building was dedicated in May 1868 on the corner of Cedar and Madison Streets. It was on a Circuit with Mount Jackson, Wampum and Hillsville until about 1890. In 1893 the Church was swung around and used for Sunday School purposes and a brick sanctuary was erected. In 1912 the entire building was torn down and a new building was commenced that year and completed in 1913. The membership in 1968 was 158. The Church congregation merged with Savannah United Methodist Church in 1992 and the church was sold.

Location: Located at 1204 West Washington Street in the city of New Castle, Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. It began as a missionary project by the New Castle: First Methodist Episcopal Church, former Erie Conference in 1889, in a little white school building. In 1902, a brick structure was erected, with plans to enlarge it as soon as possible. After forty years, in 1948, it was decided to abandon the plans to enlarge. The structure was sold to the Pilgrim Holiness Church for $5,000. This money was used toward the purchase of a five and a half-acre tract of land across the street. In 1954 the sanctuary was erected upon the basement the congregation had been using for six years. In 1863 an educational wing was added. The congregation is proud of its beautiful stone edifice. The 1968 membership was 662. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 247.

ID: 087024

Location: Located at the corner of Route 208 and 125 South Mercer Street in the Borough of New Wilmington in Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. Methodism was organized on the Mercer Circuit in 1839. The first Church building was erected in 1842. In 1843 a Sunday School was organized with Robert Ramsey as Superintendent. Mr. Ramsey, a cabinet maker and Undertaker, took an active interest in social concerns and served as a station on the “underground railroad” to help escaped slaves to make their way to Canada. He used his hearse to transport run-away slaves. In 1849 the Church was made a Station appointment. The original building was repaired and enlarged in 1858. The construction of a new building was started in 1897 with the dedication service in 1899.

NEWPORT METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

BUTLER DISTRICT 1869-2000

Location: Located in the village of Newport seven miles from New Castle and three miles from Wampum in Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. Newport's only place of worship after 1848 was a Presbyterian Church which was torn down in 1889. For a number of years the village was without a Church building. Services were held in homes and in the school building. In 1898 Reverend Darius E. Baldwin was appointed to the Wampum Methodist Episcopal Church and became pastor to this churchless congregation. Land for the present Church was donated by Michael Bannon in 1901 and on June 29, 1902 the Church was dedicated. The membership in 1968 was 36. January 1, 2000 the membership was 17. Closed and merged with West Pittsburg in 2000. The records are with West Pittsburg.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 334 West Airport Road, Butler, PA 16002

ID: 095503

Location: Located six miles south of the City of Butler on Airport Road, one mile west of Route 8, in the Village of Nixon, Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In the early 1800's the first Class was held in the Robert Brown home. In 1839 Reverend Rathburn reorganized this Class and appointed Robert Brown as Class Leader. In 1859 they began to build the first church building and in 1860 it was dedicated and known as Brownsdale Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1920 ground was purchased in the Village of Nixon and the old Church at Brownsdale was torn down. The new Church was dedicated in 1924. In 1956 Brownsdale Church became a Station appointment. In 1966 the Brown Educational Building was built. In 1967, due to the fact that the Church is in the village of Nixon, the name was changed to the Nixon United Methodist Church. The membership in 1968 was 372. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 346.

Location: Located on the corner of Water Drive and Shenango Street in the Village of Pulaski on Route 208 in Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. Organized in 1854 as an appointment on the New Wilmington Circuit by the Reverend Richard A. Caruthers. During the first two years the congregation held services in the log Pulaski School which stood on the hill east of the town. The frame Church was built in 1856. The parsonage was built in 1901. The first educational annex was added in 1930, then in 1963 a further addition of six Sunday School rooms and a Pastor's Study was built. The chimes were installed in 1949. The Church is proud of the Bible presented to it by the Reverend Homer H. Moore, the New Wilmington Circuit pastor from 1856-1858. A display case for it was provided by the Woman's Society of the Church in 1966. This Church was on the New Wilmington Circuit from 1854-1885, then on a Charge with King's Chapel 1885-1962. It was made a Station appointment in 1962. The membership in 1968 was 112. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 156.

Mailing Address: Shippingport, PA 15077

ID: 096724

Location: Located on Route 168 in Shippingport about one-half mile from the Shippingport Bridge and the Atomic Power Station in Beaver County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Other names by which this Church has been known are Safe Harbor and Green Valley and Shippingport. The congregation was organized about 1850 and used an old schoolhouse as a meeting place until 1918. Originally it was part of the Georgetown Circuit with Reverend Jacob Keiss Miller as the first pastor. From 1850 to 1885 the Georgetown Circuit consisted of Georgetown, Bethel Meeting House, Safe Harbor (now Shippingport), Asbury Chapel, Hookstown, Crail's Schoolhouse and New Cumberland. The second Church building was constructed in 1918. The first load of bricks for the Church was lost when the barge carrying them was sunk in the Ohio River. Since its inception, Shippingport has been a circuit church linked with numerous other Methodist Congregations in southern Beaver County. In 1968 the Shippingport Church was on a two-point Circuit with Georgetown Methodist Church. The 1968 membership was 181. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 73.

Location: Located at the corner of Franklin Street and Maple Street in the Borough of Slippery Rock, in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The first sermon was preached in a bar room by the Reverend John Chandler of the Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend John Somerville started the first Class Meetings in 1831 in the home of John Stevenson. Later meetings were held in a school house that stood at the 130 Franklin Street church location. Prior to 1894 Slippery Rock was known as Centerville. In 1837 a small meeting house was erected and was on the Harrisville Circuit. In 1860 the old church was torn down and a brick Church was built at a cost of $3,000. Reverend Calvin R. Pattee was the pastor at that time. The brick for the Church was made locally by John Cross. In 1897 an educational wing was added to the Church through the efforts of Reverend John A. McCamey. In 1960 a new sanctuary and fellowship Hall were constructed under the leadership of Reverend Hugh Dewey Crocker. The old building was converted into an educational building. The Church was originally part of the Harrisville Circuit until 1896; from 1896-1933 it was a Station appointment; and from 1933 to 1964 it was a two-point circuit with West Liberty. In 1964 because of its increased ministry to the Slippery Rock State College it became a one-point charge. The Church was incorporated in 1931 as the Slippery Rock Methodist Church. The membership in 1968 was 459. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 419.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Location: Located on Route 28 north of Tarentum in Allegheny County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church had its origin as a preaching place in the log cabin of Thomas and Molly Horton on the original Shenango Circuit in 1810, or perhaps earlier. Fourteen members of the Class are recorded for 1910. William Kennedy became the Class Leader after the death of Thomas Horton in 1812. The Class was a part of various Circuits until 1846 when it became head of a Circuit with Emory Chapel, Walter's Chapel, Millertown, Freeport and Natrona. It became a Station in 1884. A great revival in 1842 under the preaching of Reverend Peter McGown quadrupled the congregation with 90 converts. It's first Church building, on Ninth Avenue, was dedicated on October 27, 1844. This frame building was raised in 1859 and a story was built under it. In 1885 it was moved across Ninth Avenue where it continued until 1968 as a double house. A three-story brick Church was built on the original site from 1885-1887, being dedicated by Bishop Thomas Bowman on May 22, 1827. This building, after several renovations, was sold to the Tarentum School District in 1961 and the congregation moved in to their new half million dollar Church plant on Freeport Road. The membership in 1968 was 864. The name was changed to Brackenridge: Trinity in 1970. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church grew out of Kennedy's Class organized in 1837 and called "The Temple" with John Kennedy and wife, Thomas Robinson, Betsy, Nancy, and Hamilton Cunningham, Elijah and Rebecca Burkhart as members. This building was a crude log cabin 20 x 26 feet and located on the site of the present Thorn Creek Cemetery. This building served as part of the Butler Circuit until 1866 when a new building was begun and completed in 1868 located beside the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad. It is believed that this building was called The Leggett Methodist Episcopal Church, but no records are available to substantiate this. In 1870 the name appears in the Trustee's minutes as Thorn Creek, its new name. Because of increased noise from the railroad traffic, a new church was constructed one-half mile above the tracks on land given by William Kennedy in December 1911. Following a fire on February 11, 1947 the congregation decided to rebuild immediately on a new two-acre site one mile above the former church. This land was given to the church by Arthur Burtner. The basement was completed in October of 1947 and the church building was dedicated on March 18, 1953. In 1955 the Thorn Creek Church became a station appointment after having been a part of the Brownsdale Circuit. The 1968 membership was 250. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 301.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. The Tucker Church is an outgrowth of the Class organized in the James Holmes home on the original Redstone Circuit probably in 1786. John and Henrietta Tucker, who had settled on a four hundred-acre tract of land in 1775, gave the land on which the Church and cemetery are located. The hand-dressed stone Church 33 x 44 feet was erected in 1824. It was constructed by four brothers of Minesinger, who were stone masons from Island Creek, Ohio. The Church has been in continuous use since that time. It is the second oldest Church building in the Western Pennsylvania Conference. The building has been renovated from time to time to adapt it to modern use. The basement was added in 1954 and the vestibule and other renovations to match the original stone of the building were added in 1965. The family reunions of the historic Tucker family are held at this Church. The membership in 1968 was 83. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 65.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. From literary meetings and spelling bees in a little country school, prayer meetings started in 1863, then a Sunday School. As crowds became too large for the school, in 1865 Adam and Sarah Walter offered the land and work began on the Church with lumber shipped by raft on the Allegheny River to Cheswick, then hauled by a four horse team to the site where the church was built. Word was received of Abraham Lincoln's assassination during the construction. The first pastor was the Reverend Gideon D. Kinnear of the Springdale Circuit. The deed was recorded June 14, 1869 and the church and adjoining cemetery were named for the donators. In 1932 an assembly room was dug out of solid rock beneath the church by members of the church and friends. Electric lights were installed in 1939. Church School rooms, office and additional basement were added in 1955. The sanctuary was remodeled in 1957. Additional Church School Rooms and Vestibule were built in 1966. It was on various circuits and was established as a Station appointment in 1959. The membership on January 1, 2002 was 139. Transferred from Pittsburgh East District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. In 1869 a few interested residents of the area, headed by William Thompson, decided to organize a group to study religion. The meeting place was the Cooper Shop at the southern end of Wampum. Mr. Reed suggested they become a Church, namely the Methodist Episcopal Church. Application was made to the Erie Conference in 1871. The Church building began on a lot given by the owners of the Furnace Company on Main Street. A canal boat captained by R. H. Aley brought Stone for the basement walls up the Beaver River. The basement was completed and used for services. Reverend John Ault sawed the trees for the framework of the Church at his saw mill. The building was dedicated in 1875. Reverend Edson F. Edmunds had six charter members at this time. The sanctuary was remodeled in 1904 and in 1910. The parsonage was built in 1891. Additions to the basement of the Church were made in 1957. The new parsonage was built in 1958. Two rooms were added in 1962. For many years it was on Circuit relations and a few years as a Station appointment. The membership in 1968 was 186. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 109.

Location: Located at 135 Church Road in the Borough of West Liberty about seven miles south of Slippery Rock, Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. This Church grew out of a stirring revival of religion started in the winter and spring of 1875. The evangelistic services were conducted by Reverend Job L. Stratton, pastor of the Harlansburg and Mount Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Circuit and his sister, Maria. Many people were converted in the revival and in 1877 the Methodist Meeting House was built under the leadership of Daniel Keefer, William Boyd and W. W. Robinson. The original congregation consisted of fifty charter members and for the first ten years, Solomon Fisher was the Class Leader. He was succeeded by Milton Mayer. The Reverend John A. Ward was the first regular pastor. Additions to the physical structure of the Church were made in 1921 and 1930. It has been an appointment on different Circuits across the years. The membership in 1968 was 119. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 115.

WEST PITTSBURGH

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – ERIE CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: PO Box 143, West Pittsburgh, PA 16160

ID: 086931

Location: Located at the corner of Lawrence and Eighth Streets in the Village of West Pittsburgh four miles south of New Castle in Lawrence County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Erie Conference. A plot of ground was donated by the West Pittsburgh Realty Company, the real estate firm of the Garland Company, to the Trustees of the Church with the agreement that a building for Church purposes should be erected thereon within six months of the date of the deed, which was dated August 16, 1904. This agreement was fulfilled. The Trustees were R. A. Dietrich, Smith Pitzer, C. P. Pitzer, S. S. Pitzer and Robert Davis. From the 1870's, before the development of the town of West Pittsburgh, a small Methodist Church known as East Moravia, worshipped in the community near the new town site until the new Church was built. The West Moravia Methodist Church was built about 1890. In 1914 it was closed and the majority of the members came to West Pittsburgh to worship, bringing a substantial treasury with them which resulted in the building of an addition to the original West Pittsburgh building. The membership in 1968 was 78. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 51.

ZELIENOPE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 123 North Pittsburgh Street, Zelenople, PA 16063

BUTLER DISTRICT

1916-1945

Location: Located on Pittsburgh Street in the Borough of Harmony, in Butler County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In October 1842, a Charter was granted to thirty Christians for the first Methodist Society in this vicinity under the name of Monroe Chapel. In 1858 The Circuit consisted of Freedom, Baden, Concord, Lancaster, Plains (later called Dutilh), Unionville, Slippery Rock and Zelenople. In 1880 they purchased property on German Street, now called Liberty Street in Harmony. This building was called Monroe Chapel for Joshua Monroe, an early Methodist Presiding Elder, on the Allegheny District in 1835-1836. In 1880 the place of worship was moved to Harmony where the congregation built a church on German Street. On October 23, 1882 a charter was granted and the congregation became known as the Harmony-Zelenople Methodist Episcopal Church. In the summer of 1916 sixty members living in Zelenople withdrew to form a Church in Zelenople. On September 15, 1918 a Church building on East New Castle Street, Zelenople was dedicated and chartered under the name of The Zelenople Methodist Episcopal Church. That building is occupied by Faith Full Gospel Church and has been moved to a new location. In 1938 Reverend Wayne W. Patch was appointed to be pastor of both the Harmony and the Zelenople Methodist Episcopal Churches. On April 22, 1945 the two congregations voted to merge to form Harmony-Zelenople.
