History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. Reverend John B. West organized the Methodist Class in Addison as a preaching place on the Somerset Circuit in 1819. The first Church building was erected in 1839, the centennial year of John Wesley's Methodism, and was named Centenary Chapel. A new Church replaced the original Chapel in 1907. In 1958 additional Sunday school facilities were added. A new parsonage was erected in 1947. It has always been part of a circuit, the 1968 Circuit consisting of Addison: First, Grace Chapel and Johnson Chapel. The membership of Addison in 1968 was 97. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 105

History: Methodist Episcopal South – Baltimore Conference. Earliest records available indicate that Grace Chapel became a part of the Listonburg Charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church South about 1875. Information from 1875-1940 was provided by the Baltimore Conference Historical Society. Its Church building was located in Jockey Hollow near Somerfield. It was forced to relocate to the present site in 1946 by the construction of the Youghiogheny Flood Control Dam. It was one of the four Churches of the Listonburg Charge of the Moorefield District, Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, transferred to the Pittsburgh Conference as a result of Methodist union, in 1940. Always on a Circuit, in 1968 Grace Chapel became a part of the Addison Circuit. Its membership in 1968 was 72. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 55. Closed in 2013.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. The original Society was organized before 1812. In 1812 the Society erected their first Church building and named it "Old Liberty Church". It was on the Bedford Circuit of the Carlisle District of the Baltimore Conference. In 1815 Bedford Circuit was divided and Somerset Circuit was created from the western portion. Then, in 1819, the Somerset Circuit was transferred to the Pittsburgh District of the Baltimore Conference. The Old Liberty Chapel was destroyed by fire in 1852 and a new Church, named Fairview Methodist Episcopal Church, was erected in 1853. This building was also destroyed by fire in 1883 and a third Church was built in 1885. It was named Johnson Chapel. This building was razed in 1949 and a new Church was dedicated in 1951. This Church has been on Circuits throughout its long history, the circuit arrangement in 1968 being with Addison and Grace Chapel. Its membership in 1968 was 111. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 87.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In 1884 a group of laymen, including Lyman Fretts, Dr. J. E. Rigg, J. P. Love, John Boyd and others, led by Reverend John Coleman High of the Coke Mission, organized the first Methodist Episcopal congregation in Stonerville, later named Alverton. A plan was conceived to build a place of worship. In 1885 a one room church building was erected on a lot which was donated by J. P. Love. The first pastor was Reverend Thomas Storer. In 1926 and 1940 additions were made to the church. In 1908 the Foreign Missionary Society was organized with thirty charter members. In 1940 this organization was replaced by the Women’s Society of Christian Service. The Circuits from which the Church has been served were Jacob’s Creek, Smithton, Tarrs and Bryan. In 1967 the church was placed on the Mount Pleasant Charge. The membership in 1968 was 117. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 111.

Mailing Address: 1800 Banning Rd, Dawson, PA 15428-9402

724/529-0402

ID: 100532

Location: Located in the small mining village of Banning along the Youghiogheny River 1798 Banning Road, Smithton, PA 15479 in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The lot was given by Anthony Banning through the influence of William Lowery to be used for Church purposes only, and to have a building erected that would cost at least $1,500.00. The building was erected in 1896 and dedicated in 1900. So far as is known this Anthony Banning has no connection with the Anthony Banning who was the son-in-law of the Widow Ann Murphy. It has been on Circuits with Layton, Smithton, Concord, Bryan, Webster and Wesley Chapel. In 1968 it was part of a two-point Charge with Smithton. Since 1965 it has added three rooms for classes that can be opened into the main sanctuary, along with a new oil heating system, new ceilings in the sanctuary and repainting of the outside. The membership in 1968 was 50 and on January 1, 2003 was 41. Transferred from Greensburg District in 2004.

Mailing Address: PO Box 783, Smithton, PA 15479

724/872-7497

ID: 170831

Location: Located at 569 Barren Run Road on Route 981, three miles from Smithton in South Huntingdon Township, Westmoreland County, PA.

History: United Brethren Church - Allegheny Conference. The Barren Run appointment is one of the oldest in the conference dating back to the time before the Conference was formed. This church began May 19, 1820 when Christian Newcomer preached at the home of Frederick Medsger. He had stopped there before in 1810, 1812 and 1819. Reverend Jacob Winter organized a class about 1830. Beginning in 1839 services were held in the Red School House. A brick church was completed in 1848. In 1883 a white frame building was erected and dedicated by Bishop J. Dickson, assisted by the pastor Reverend A. L. Funk. Out from this Class have gone Reverend J. Medsger, Dr. Elmer U. Honeshell and Dr. S. S. Hough as ministers. An addition on the south side of the building was dedicated May 4, 1958. Seven ministers have gone out from the Barren Run Church. In 1970 it was linked with Glenwood,

BELLE VERNON: CONCORD

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: PO Box 643, Belle Vernon, PA 15012-0643

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT

1830

Location: Located at 100 Municipal Drive in Belle Vernon on a section of old Route 51 in the northeastern quadrant, approximately one-fourth mile from interchange of Routes PA. 51 and Interstate 70 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Earliest records indicate that in 1830 a group of Methodists from the Fells Church were meeting together in the Concord vicinity. In that year the last of the subscription schools of Rostraver Township, Concord School, was built. This was the first meeting place of the congregation. In 1849 Bela B. Smith, one of the early settlers, gave land adjacent to the school and a red brick building was erected. The bricks were fired on the Douglas farm, which later became that of the Timms family, descendants of which were members of the church. In the absence of historical records circuit relationships have been forgotten except those of more recent times. Until 1966 the Church had been part of the Smithton Circuit with Smithton and Banning Churches. During 1966-67 the church was aligned with Webster Church. In June 1967 the church became partner with the Fayette City Church on the charge of that name. Addition of 2 classrooms and a social hall was made in the 1950's. Major renovation in 1965-1966 created a sanctuary with a divided chancel. The 1968 membership was 85. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 123.

Location: Located at 1427 Brownfield Road in the village of Brownfield, three miles south of Hopwood, in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Shortly after a revival meeting at Hutchinson School house in 1882, was conducted by Reverend John McCarty of Fairchance and Reverend George McCollum of Uniontown, it was decided to build a Union Church at Brownfield. This building was taken over by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in 1889, but the church continued holding services there until 1897. Then the new building, with an addition in 1926, was dedicated as the Brownfield Methodist Protestant Church. It was always on a circuit. There was the Fairchance-Monroe Circuit, which included the Fairchance, Hopwood, and Brownfield Churches. There was the Fairchance Circuit, which included Brown's Chapel, White Rock and Brownfield. From 1959 to 1965 there was the Brownfield-White Rock Circuit which included Brownfield, White Rock and Hutchinson Churches. Since 1965 there was the Hopwood-Brownfield Circuit which includes the Hopwood and Brownfield Churches. The membership in 1968 was 160. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 128.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. There is evidence showing that a Methodist Society was meeting at the home of Chads Chalfant, a local exhorter and citizen of Brownsville, as early as May 3, 1794. It was made a preaching point on the Redstone Circuit July 14, 1794. The Class was officially formed August 12, of that same year. In 1804 a stone building (36' X 30') was erected. In 1806 Chads Chalfant conveyed one-half acre "in trust for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church." In 1821 the size of the church building doubled. In 1861 the stone structure was replaced by a brick building. In 1815 this church was on the Brownsville and Uniontown circuit. In 1833 Uniontown became a station, and Bridgeport (Second Methodist Episcopal Church, Brownsville; now known as South Brownsville Methodist Church) was united with First Church and together they were known as the Brownsville Station. This arrangement continued until 1849 when each church became a station. First Church was a two-point circuit, along with West Bend Methodist Church, as of 1965. In 1990 it was made a three-point Charge with Brownsville: First/South Brownsville and West Bend Churches. The 1968 membership was 295. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 161.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Bridgeport Methodist Episcopal Sunday school was organized in May of 1834 at the suggestion of Reverend Andrew Coleman. They met in an old stone school house on Second Street. Reverend Samuel E. Babcock, pastor at Brownsville First Methodist Episcopal Church, took the new group under his guidance. Land was purchased in 1833 from the Cadwallader estate for $230 and a Church building was constructed on it with dedication in 1837. The Charge was designated Brownsville and Bridgeport in 1838. It became a Station appointment in 1849. The last meeting was held in the old church June 14, 1863 and its demolition followed. The congregation met in the West Brownsville Town Hall and the Wesleyan Church. The new church was opened October 30, 1864. A parsonage was built in 1866. A new educational annex was dedicated in 1963. The name of this Church was Bridgeport until 1880 when it was changed to the Second Methodist Episcopal Church of Brownsville. In 1908 the name was changed again to South Brownsville. A new educational unit was constructed and dedicated July 1, 1963. A Baldwin Electric Organ was purchased in 1970 replacing the pipe organ purchased in 1904 with half the cost donated by Andrew Carnegie. The front pipes were left in the front of the sanctuary. A new parsonage was purchased in 1973 at 1003 High Street and the parsonage on Second Street was demolished. The membership in 1968 was 656. In 1990 First United Methodist, South Brownsville United Methodist and West Bend yoked and became the Brownsville Charge with one pastor serving all three churches. An 800 pound bell was given to the church in 1859 and after a recasting and repair of the bell tower, is still used in 2004 to call people to worship. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 221.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference 1784 until 1825; then Pittsburgh Conference since 1825. There is evidence supporting the fact that this church can trace its origin from the original Roberts Chapel of 1784, one of the original 10 churches of the Redstone Circuit, the first west of the Allegheny Mountains. John Cooper and Samuel Breeze were assigned as the first pastors by Francis Asbury at a conference in Baltimore May 28, 1784. This church resulted, too, from the dissolution of the Hopewell Methodist Episcopal Church, which was formed about 1800. "Singing-schools" are said to have flourished there. In 1830 the congregation split, going in two different directions—one becoming the Hopewell Presbyterian Church and the other The West Bend Methodist Episcopal Church being formed along the west bend of the Monongahela River. Many of its first members were from the Hopewell Church, meeting in a schoolhouse a few years until the building of a church structure. A new brick building replaced the original structure around 1882. In the past this church was on a circuit along with Perryopolis Methodist Church, and in 1965 was put with Brownsville: First. The membership in 1968 was 102. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 71.

Location: Located at 128 Chaintown Road at Bryan Crossroads on the Dawson-Layton Road about 2 miles from Dawson. Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized in 1856 with about 80 members. A house of worship was built at a cost of $900 on the property of James Bryan. In 1882 there were 40 members and a Sunday school of 75. Most of its history it has been on a circuit with Dawson. The first building was replaced in 1900 when Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran built the Dawson brick church and the old frame building was removed to Bryan. An improvement program in 1961-1962 added a basement, heating system, chimney, new roof, siding and decoration. The church trustees operate a cemetery beside the church. The church is on the Dawson Circuit with Vanderbilt and Little Summit. Its membership in 1968 was 101. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 68.

Location: Located at 209 Howell and Griscom Streets in the Borough of Dawson, Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Organized in 1870, or before, when the town was named Bloomington. A frame building was built in 1872 and dedicated by Reverend Charles Smith. In 1873 Dawson was on a seven church, two-preacher circuit including Mount Pleasant, Scottdale, Jacob's Creek, Wesley Chapel, Lebanon, Bryan and Dawson. This dropped to a one preacher, four church circuit by 1876. Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran presented the church with a new brick building in 1900 in memory of her husband, Phillip G. Cochran. She replaced it in 1925-27, with an English Gothic structure, with complete educational and social facilities. The congregation at the time numbered 240 members. A devoted Methodist, Mrs. Cochran made it possible for the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church to hold their semi-annual meeting at the Dawson Church in April, 1916. Never a station charge, in 1968 Dawson was on a four church circuit consisting of Dawson, Vanderbilt, Little Summit and Bryan. The membership in 1968 was 268. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 132.

CONFLUENCE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: PO Box 25, 521 Hugart St. Confluence, PA 15424-1017
ID: 099341

Location: Located at 521 Hugart Street in the Borough of Confluence at Hugart Street and Logan Place on Routes 53 and 281 in Somerset County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In 1871 Reverend Silas Thayer Mitchell, Pastor of the Addison Charge, was asked by some Methodists in Confluence to hold services in the community. The first service was held in a vacant building on the bank of the Casselman River, where the bridge is located. He then preached several times in the open air where the Public Park is now located. Then he was invited by Reverend Peter Green of the Lutheran Church to hold services in the Lutheran building. From there the congregation moved to the Cook building on Oden Street. A Sunday school was organized May 8, 1872 and this spurred the erection of the first Church building which was dedicated in December 1872. Action was taken by the Official Board on March 5, 1905 to build a new Church and the brick Church building was completed the latter part of that year. The sanctuary was renovated and a new organ was purchased in 1947. In 1873 Confluence was put on a Circuit with Meyersdale and Ursina. The Confluence Circuit was created in 1875 consisting of Confluence, Ursina, Draketown, Bethel and Wesley Chapel. In 1906 it consisted of Confluence, Ohiopyle and Johnson Chapel. The 1968 Circuit consisted of Confluence, Harnedsville and Listonburg. During the year Harnedsville was closed and the congregation merged with Confluence. In 2000 it was on the Confluence Charge consisting of Confluence, Casselman and Mount Zion. The membership in 1968 was 257. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 135.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The original planning for a Church in this section of Connellsville was done in the Crawford School Building, after a split with the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Connellsville, over the choice of where a new church was needed and should be built. McKeesport District Superintendent Reverend John J. Hill organized Greenwood on May 11, 1921 in the Old Greenwood School House on the West Side with 29 Charter Members. The cornerstone for the new church was laid June 14, 1922. It was dedicated May 26, 1926. Built from native stone the Church presents an inviting appearance, Gothic structure being carried out in both the exterior and interior of the building. The Church was organized as a single charge but in 1931, due to the depression, it became a point on a circuit with Greenwood, Dunbar: Wesley, and Lemont. In 1934 the circuit became two points, Greenwood and Dunbar: Wesley. In 1947 Greenwood again became a single charge. In 1988 it became a two-point charge with East Connellsville and Greenwood. The membership in 1968 was 234. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 151.

History: United Brethren – Allegheny Conference. It was formally organized in June 1901 with services held at Kooser's Hall and Stader's Hall. At the conference in September of 1901 it was made a Mission Station and Dr. Justus H. Pershing became the pastor and work on building a brick church and parsonage was begun. The Church was dedicated February 1, 1903 by Dr. W. R. Funk. It cost $8,000. Later an addition was built to the church and a basement was placed under the church. Still later the old six room parsonage was made in to Sunday School rooms and a new parsonage of seven rooms was purchased. Originally, First Church, it became Otterbein Church in 1970 with the merger and on January 1, 1974 merged with Central Church (formerly Methodist Protestant of Pittsburgh Conference) and became the Otterbein United Methodist Church. The membership in 1970 was 545. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 491.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. The origin of this Church dates back into the eighteenth century. A Methodist Class was formed in the home of Zachariah Connell, for whom Connellsville is named, in the 1790's. It was a preaching place on the Pittsburgh Circuit. When Pittsburgh was made a Station in 1811 Connellsville became the head of the Circuit. It continued to have various Circuit relationships until 1863 when it became a Station appointment. The first Church was a stone building. Bishop Francis Asbury dedicated the partially completed building on July 10, 1808. The second Church, also a stone building, was built on Apple Street in 1848. The third Church was a brick building located on the corner of Apple Street and Meadow Lane in 1884. In 1921 the congregation moved to the Cameron School where they worshipped until June 1925, when they moved into the a stone Church on South Pittsburgh Street. The membership in 1968 was 672. The name was changed in 1968 from First Methodist to Wesley United Methodist. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 258.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. The initial step was the organizing of a Board of Trustees on May 22, 1892 in a meeting called by William Kennedy. The lot for the Church was donated by Nathaniel Murphy on June 8, 1892 and the Church was dedicated October 19, 1892. The deed for the property was not made out transferring it to the congregation until 1953. The Sunday school room was added to the building in 1953 and in 1965 the interior of the Church was completely renovated. Originally this Church was on the Percy-Coolspring Charge. Later Lemont was added. In 1968 it was part of the Coolspring-Lemont Charge and reported a membership of 48. In 1986 it became part of the Uniontown Larger Parish. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 41. Coolspring closed in 2005 and the records went to Uniontown: Community.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. About 1835 a Methodist Protestant Church was organized in Woodvale School District and a stone Church building was erected on land donated by Joseph Paull. Mr. Paull also donated the land for a burying ground, which is now the Franklin Cemetery. In 1866 the Woodvale Church was abandoned. From 1866 to 1875 the congregation worshipped in the Dunbar School House. A new Church was erected in 1875. The Church School addition was built in the early 1900's. In 1968 it was part of a four-point Circuit with Wesley Church in Dunbar, Mount Braddock and Percy. In 1972 it became a two-point charge consisting of Dunbar: Franklin Memorial and Fairview. The membership in 1968 was 254. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 215.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In 1876 a group of persons from the Dunbar community who were going to Connellsville to worship felt that there were enough of them to form their own congregation in Dunbar. At first they met in the building of the YMCA. In 1881 they moved their meeting place to a School House. They laid the cornerstone for a Church building on July 9, 1887 and it was dedicated on November 17th of that year. This building was destroyed by fire November 6, 1901. A stone Church building was erected under the leadership of Reverend William A. Prosser and dedicated April 19, 1903. It was on the Redstone Circuit at that time. In 1967 it became a part of the Dunbar Circuit with Franklin Memorial Church of Dunbar and Mount Braddock. Percy Church was added to the Charge in 1968. The membership in 1968 was 98. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 77.

Location: Located in the village of Evans Manor on Route 119 three miles north of Uniontown, in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist – Pittsburgh Conference. In the spring of 1938 Mrs. Ethel Stewart asked three members of the staff of the McCrum Community House, a Board of Missions project of the Pittsburgh Conference, to start a Sunday School in Evans Manor. They met in a schoolhouse on West Penn Boulevard. A charter was granted to the Evans Manor Methodist Church on June 13, 1948. Deaconess Bessie K. Van Scyoc was the pastor. There were 35 charter members. A lot was purchased on the corner of Edison Street and West Penn Boulevard and a basement unit was built and dedicated June 5, 1949. Work commenced on the sanctuary in November 1961, and it was dedicated on April 14, 1962. After the retirement of Miss Van Scyoc in 1957 the Church has had different Circuit relationships. In 1967 it has been part of the Upper Middletown Charge. In 1998 Evans Manor and Hutchinson Churches merged to form Smock: Community. It later became part of the Uniontown Larger Parish. The membership in 1968 was 80. The membership on January 1, 2001 was 167. In 1998 Evans Manor and Hutchinson merged to form the Community United Methodist Church in Smock, PA.

Location: Located at Main Street, Fairchance, on Route 857 about 6 miles south of Uniontown in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. What was known as The Independent Methodist Church of Fairchance was organized sometime previous to 1903. It seems that as an Independent Church it was difficult to get pastors. It was arranged that the Church should be placed under the care of Reverend Edward George Loughery, pastor of the Uniontown Methodist Episcopal Church. He organized Fairchance as a Methodist Episcopal Church. Accordingly at a meeting on the Independent Methodist Church of Fairchance, held January 19, 1904, it was voted to petition the Fayette County Court to allow the Church Charter to be amended so the name of the Church should be The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Fairchance. Under this name the church commenced its existence in 1904. A new church building, erected in 1924, replaced the original building, which stood on the same site and was destroyed by fire. In 1965-1966 an addition was made to the structure. In 1968 Trinity Church was on a circuit with Smithfield and Hutchinson. The membership in 1968 was 211. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 115.

Location: Located on the Laureldale road in Grindstone near Perryopolis in northwestern Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Fairview was organized in 1828 with about forty members. They used a stone Schoolhouse for a year for their meetings, then a frame Church was built in 1829. The second Church was a brick building erected in 1849. It was remodeled in 1889. On March 7, 1929 a windstorm took the roof off this Church and before repairs could be made, on March 18th, another wind storm completely demolished the building. A new building was erected during the summer of 1929, being dedicated on September 22nd. The Sunday school room was added in 1949. Always part of a Circuit, in 1968 it is on the Perryopolis Charge with Perryopolis and Layton Churches. The 1968 membership was 121. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 45.

METHODIST PROTESTANT – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT

1841-1973

Location: This Church was located one-half mile off Route 119, three miles north of Point Marion in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Fallen Timbers Church was founded in 1841. The original structure was destroyed by fire in 1854. Trustees of the class purchased land for one dollar from Samuel Hall and a new Church building was erected on it that same year. In 1854, the Church became part of Avery, West Virginia Circuit. In 1905 Fallen Timbers and the Methodist Protestant Church of Point Marion, Pennsylvania, merged into one circuit, continuing until 1945, when Fallen Timbers was withdrawn and placed in the Coke Mission of the Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Frederick William Wright, pastor, was assisted by several other pastors. Abolishment of the Coke Mission occurred in 1951. Fallen Timbers and Gans Methodist were placed in one circuit with Lake Lynn Methodist being added in 1953. This circuit has continued to 1968. The annex to the Church was erected in 1954. The Church was declared abandoned and closed June 9, 1973. The membership in 1968 was 106.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Origin is from a class formed in 1815 and attached to Redstone Circuit. First meetings were held in Crane's storehouse, homes of members and a stone school on the present site of Mount Auburn Cemetery. The Village was then known as Cookstown. It was first active religious denomination in the town. First church was built in 1820, and known as Union Church, since it was also shared with other denominations. Worship continued here and in a building located at 213 Water Street until 1842. The first brick structure was then constructed at 110 Fourth Street. Membership numbered 65. Until 1850 church was part of the Redstone Circuit, when, along with Belle Vernon, was made a new circuit. The relationship continued until 1870 when the church was again placed on the Redstone Circuit. It was also part of the Perryopolis Circuit until 1891 when relationships to both circuits were dissolved. Fayette City Circuit was created which included the Allenport Church across the Monongahela River. The Church was made a station in 1908, when a yellow brick edifice was built. Major renovation was undertaken in 1939 and completed in the next couple of years. Circuit relationship with Concord Church in Rostraver Township was established in 1967 and continued in 2001. The 1968 membership was 299. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 154.

Location: Located at 1268 Fells Church Road, in the village of Fellsburg in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Baltimore Conference. Fells grew out of a Class on the original Redstone Circuit that met in the home of Edward Teal in 1785. Other meeting-places were the homes of Benjamin Fell and Matthew Bezell. The first log Church was built on land donated by Benjamin Fell. It was started in 1792 but not completed until 1804. In 1804 it was in the Monongahela District. In 1820 it was in the Pittsburgh District. A stone Church was built on the same site in 1834-1835. It was known as "The Forks Methodist Church" lying as it does in the forks of the Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers. This Church was remodeled and a religious education unit was added in 1950. It was sold to Rostraver Township for use as a municipal building in 1967. A new brick Church was erected in 1966-1967 on a six and one-half acre plot of ground about one-fourth of a mile from the original site. It was on circuits from its founding until 1930 when it became a Station appointment. In 1967 it was placed on a two-point Charge with Webster. In 1979 it became a Station appointment. The membership in 1968 was 434. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 493.

HOLLSOPPLE: HOPEWELL

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 151 Hopewell Road, Hollsopple, PA 15935-6633
ID: 097865

Location: Located at 151 Hopewell Road off of Route 601, half way between Jerome and Boswell, about 17 miles from Johnstown, in Somerset County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. Moses Fream moved into the area from Hagerstown, Maryland in 1792. He purchased land and built a large two-story house, which he opened to itinerant Methodist ministers. The second floor housed the first school and first worship services in the area. Land was bought for $5 by Fream and others. A log Church was built in 1827. The first organized service was May 31, 1827. The log Church burned in 1851 and a new Church was built the same year for $800. It was a plank building plastered inside and weather boarded on the outside. It was used until 1905. The records are incomplete because of the fire. The new building was built in 1905 on land purchased for $1. It is a beautiful English Style structure. There is a Church Cemetery next to the Church. Fream and his family as well as other early church members are buried in the cemetery. It was on the Stoystown Circuit which included the Hopewell, Mount Zion (now Roxbury) and Stoystown churches until 1927. It was on the Berlin-Wesley Chapel Circuit 1927-1941; Wesley Chapel-Hopewell 1941-1954; and Roxbury-Hopewell from 1954-1969. The membership in 1968 was 74. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 101. Transferred from Johnstown District in 2004.

ID: 187751

Location: Located at 126 Charles and Barn Streets in the Borough of Hooversville, Somerset County, PA.

History: United Brethren – Allegheny Conference. It was organized in 1885. The group worshipped with members of the Weigle's Lutheran and Reformed Churches. The Class bought the interest of the Lutheran Church when that body built their new church. They later sold this interest to the Reformed Church and with the money received placed an organ in the new church. In March 1901 work on the new building was begun. It was dedicated September 24, 1902 with Dr. S. W. Keister. The new church was built during the pastorate of Reverend A. E. Fulton, on ground donated by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Weigle, this being the third church built on ground donated by them from their farm. J. S. Fulton and J. H. Stokes entered the ministry from this class. In 1970 it was linked with Kantner and Otterbein. The membership in 1970 was 122. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 83.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. Founded in 1828 by members who withdrew from the Methodist Episcopal Church. First Church building was erected in 1833 on a lot donated by Gaddis Hopwood. Reverend Moses Scott was the first preacher to be called to the congregation. The Church was rebuilt in 1873 and in 1883 it was placed on the Fairchance Circuit. First members and Church Reformers were: Reverend James Hopwood and wife; Thomas Hopwood and wife; Reverend Thomas Johnson Nesmith and wife; Moses Hopwood Farr and wife; John Deford and wife; Thomas Hopwood and wife; John Bennington and wife; Henry Crayton and wife; Miss Maty Ann Criswell, S. K. Brown and wife; Mrs. Hannah Brownfield and Mrs. Margaret Devan. First minister who officiated in the Chapel was Reverend William College, pastor on the Union Circuit. In 1898, the house of Worship being too small, members began to work for the purpose of building a new Church. June 4, 1900 a lot was presented by W. A. Stone. The new Church stands on that lot. It was dedicated June 9, 1901. The basement was excavated in 1927. The Church has been on various Location: Was located at RR 11, Box 250, Smock, PA, about one mile south of U.S. route 40, three miles east of Uniontown near the town of Hopwood, in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. About 1880 Reverend Samuel Wesley Davis organized the Coke Mission of the Pittsburgh Conference and with the help of his daughter, Elizabeth, the work was carried on in various communities in the coal mining areas of Fayette County. The property was secured in 1907. The church was organized in 1946 as The Hutchinson Methodist Church after the Coke Mission had been dissolved. This church had been on various circuits in the area. The circuit was made up of Smithfield, Fairchance, and Hutchinson. On February 27, 1960 a family of the church donated a 72' by 216' lot, adjoining the church property. Many improvements had been made both inside and outside the church. Membership in 1968 was 45. In 1998 Hutchinson and Evans Manor merged to form Smock: Community.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. According to the claim of the Church it was organized in 1817 with twenty members. But there is evidence that there was a preaching appointment at Jacob's Creek on the divided Redstone Circuit in the Monongahela District in the year of its division 1787-1788. The first log Church was built in 1822. J. W. and Catherine Stouffer gave the land on which the building stands and the Church was built in 1863. The partition down the middle of the pews separating the men from the women was removed in 1932. The basement was excavated in 1948. Always on a Circuit the Jacob's Creek Charge in 1963 consisted of Jacob's Creek, Hickory Square, and Wesley Chapel. In 1997 it became a part of Bright Horizons Cluster consisting of Alverton, January 3, 1936. The H. C. Frick Company gave the congregation permission to use one of the company houses as a Church and it was occupied in November 1936. Application was made to The Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Church in 1936 and the congregation was officially received into the Conference as the Juniata Methodist Protestant Church. In 1957 the congregation was confronted with the need for enlarged facilities. Dr. William Hogg, the District Superintendent of the McKeesport District, inquired of the Union Supply Company about the use of the vacant Union Supply Store building in Juniata. As a result the building was donated for use as the Juniata Methodist Church. This building was remodeled as a Church and was occupied July 13, 1958. In 1968 this Church was a part of the four-point Upper Middletown Circuit, and it had a membership of 67. Juniata and Phillips merged in 1983 to form the Juniata United Methodist Church. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 84.

Mailing Address: % Edith Frye. 146 Walnut Avenue, Scottdale, PA 15683-1964

Location: Located at Redstone Church Road at Navajo Hollow Road, two and one-fourth miles east of Fayette City and one-half mile north of route 201 in Washington Township, Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Methodist meetings were held in the early 1840's in the Baptist Meetinghouse, a Schoolhouse, and in the homes of Nathaniel Stephens, Robert Stephens, and Hugh Ford. The Society organized as a congregation on January 14, 1857. Land was purchased from James Stephens and a brick Church was erected in 1857. It was dedicated by Reverend James Green Sansom, Presiding Elder of the Uniontown District. It was on the Redstone and Connellsville Circuit at that time. In 1902 the entrance was remodeled, stained glass windows installed and new seats purchased. A centennial celebration was held in 1957. Always on a Circuit, it has been associated with Fayette City and Perryopolis. Since 1934 it has been part of a three-point Charge consisting of Little Redstone, Newell and Star Junction. The membership in 1968 was 111. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 82.

Worthington's home and over $1,000 pledged for a building. The amount pledged grew rapidly to over $4,000 and a building was erected and dedicated on May 28, 1922. Members and neighboring churches including Central Methodist and Scottdale Methodist donated many items of construction and decoration. Being a small church, Little Summit has always been on a circuit. In 1968 it was a part of the four-point Dawson Circuit, consisting of Dawson, Vanderbilt, Little Summit and Bryan Churches, and reported sixty-one members. In 1995 the Dawson Circuit consisted of Dawson, Cochran Memorial, Bryan, Little Summit and Vanderbilt. The membership on January 1, 2001 was 37. Little Summit merged with Cochran Memorial in 2001 and the records went to Cochran Memorial.

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT

1800-1972

Location: Located in Stewart Township, Fayette County, off Route 381, 1 ½ miles south of Ohiopyle, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. This Church had its origin about 1800 as a preaching place in the home of Moses Mercer on the Redstone Circuit. After 1830 preaching was in the home of Elizabeth Potter and after 1840 in a school house. In 1860 Benjamin and Sarah Leonard donated land and the Church was built that year. The deed was recorded on November 16, 1869 to trustees: Cyrus Edmundson, Rubin Leonard, George P. Potter, John B. Potter and Joseph Stark. The original interior of the Church was renovated in 1900 and other renovations have been carried out since that time. In 1968 this Church was on the Ohiopyle Charge and reported a membership of 47. It closed in 1972 and the records went to Confluence.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The church in Meyersdale dates from the conference year 1870 during which time the Reverends Silas Thayer Mitchell and Daniel J. Davis took it as an appointment for a weekday evening on the Somerset Circuit. The first member was George W. Case. In 1869 James S. Black and wife joined followed by John L. Curly and wife, Dr. G. W. Brown, Miss Ellen Matthews, John Graves, C. J. Masters, Emily J. Shipley and E. E. Lockard and Dr. W. C. Hicks. These twelve constituted the legal membership at the Conference of March 1873 when the church became for the first time a Sabbath appointment. They worshipped in a small frame church on Main Street, the property of the Evangelical Lutheran and German Reformed Societies. Later the School Hall was secured for Sunday School and finally for the regular preaching services. In 1873 the foundation for the church building was laid and in January 1874 the building was completed and dedicated. In 1903 the old building was torn down and a new building begun. It was completed in 1904. The church has been on a circuit most of its time of existence except for a period from 1875 until 1890. At first it was on a circuit with Somerset then was put on with Ursina and Confluence churches and the circuit became known as the Dale City (Meyersdale) Circuit. When the name of the town was changed in 1874 so was the name of the circuit. In 1890 it became a two point charge with Salisbury. The church received its charter in 1875. Membership in 1968 was 196. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 66.

History: Evangelical Association – Pittsburgh Conference. At first, services were held in a union (Richards) church. In 1877 a frame building was built and known as The Centennial Church of the Evangelical Association of North America. In 1891 the Saint John's Church divided. The United Evangelical group built a church on the site of Richards Church. The Evangelical Association group continued to worship in the 1877 building. In 1922 the groups merged and met together again in the original church. In 1935 a new building was dedicated. In 1970 it was linked

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. On September 25, 1898, Reverend Jacob Thomas Pender, stationed at Belle Vernon, organized the first Methodist congregation in Monessen, in a school building located on the site of Eastgate Manor. This was before Monessen was incorporated as a borough. The congregation later moved to Loutitt's Hall where the Sunday school was organized. The East Side Land Company, the founders of Monessen, donated three lots at the corner of Fourth Street and Schoonmaker Avenue. On October 27, 1898, papers of incorporation for the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Monessen were taken out. Dr. Pender had pastoral oversight until the conference of 1899 when it was placed on the Rostraver Charge. It became a Station appointment in 1900. In 1899 work on a church building to cost $3,500 was started. The building was opened for public worship on February 4, 1900. After some years it became evident that the building was inadequate, and it was determined to erect a new church building. Final services were held in the old church on November 24, 1929. A contract for a new church building to cost approximately $125,000 was entered into, and the cornerstone for the new Church was laid on April 20, 1930. The membership in 1968 was 590. Monessen: First and Monessen: Grace merged to become Monessen in 1979.

Connellsville District

MOORE MEMORIAL UNITED BRETHREN – ALLEGHENY CONFERENCE

188?-1???

History: United Brethren – Allegheny Conference. The Moore Memorial Class resulted from meetings held in the Brakeneck School House and dates its organization back to the 1880s. In 1889, the Baptists, the Church of God and the United Brethren built a Union Church each having one third interest. Here the Class worshipped until they moved into their own building. Under the pastorate of Reverend W. H. Mingle the cornerstone was laid by Reverend W. H. Spangler, in 1901 and the completed Church was dedicated by Dr. W. R. Funk, April 20, 1902. The Church was made a History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Mount Pleasant Church had its origin in a Class in the home of a German by the name of Samuel Miller on the original Pittsburgh Circuit before 1811. The Miller home was located on Main Street east of the railroad. The Rupert home on Main Street was also a meeting place before the first church was built in 1833. This small brick Church, which served also as a school house, was located east of the Diamond Square where the D. P. Lowe residence was located. The new building was erected in 1856. It was remodeled with the front addition in 1892 and the rear addition was built in 1940. The appointment was on various circuits beginning with Connellsville in 1811 until 1863 when it attained Station status. In 1967 it was made a two point Charge with Alverton. Across the years it has produced nine ministers and five missionaries. Following the Location: Located at 3270 Springfield Pike in the village of Normalville on Route 711, in Springfield Township, Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Normalville was formerly known as Springfield. As early as 1825 the Reverend James Green Sansom occasionally preached at the house of Solomon Kern. A class was formed and preaching services were held in schoolhouses. In 1844 a society was formed and a house of worship was built. In the fall of 1863 it was consumed by fire lit by the hands of an incendiary, which was refused the hand of fellowship owing to his failure to observe its ordinances. Again the meetings were held in schoolhouses and in the United Brethren Church until a new frame church was built in 1881. The church has had numerous Circuit relationships. The membership in 1968 was 94. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 198.

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT

1830-1972

Location: This church was located one mile east of route 119, midway between Connellsville and Uniontown, in North Union Township in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. When the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church met in Uniontown in 1850 a group of the ministers organized a Class at Coolspring. The congregation met in the Coolspring stone School House until 1869, when they transferred to the new Mount Independence School House. They began a Church building on March 20, 1870 and it was dedicated on August 8, 1871. It was built of stone. A second Church was built in 1893 and dedicated on October 8th of that year. The brick Church is the third Church building of the congregation, being dedicated May 2, 1954 by Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke. This Church has been on various Circuit arrangements. In 1968 it was made a part of the Dunbar Circuit. Its membership in 1968 was 64. In 1972 it merged with Mount Braddock to become the Fairview United Methodist Church.

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT

189?-1983

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. In the early 1890s a group of Christian people started holding services in the Phillips School House. They built a Presbyterian Church in 1893 and dedicated it on July 1 of that year. After the H. C. Frick Company removed the coal from under the church it leaned heavily and was abandoned. Through the efforts of Reverend Asahel Coleman Brown, a Methodist, the Frick Company built piers under the Church and straightened it. It became a Church of the Coke Mission of the Pittsburgh Conference in 1914 and continued in that relation until the disbanding of the Mission in 1951, when it became a part of the Upper Middletown Circuit. The Church was remodeled in 1961. The membership in 1968 was 64. Phillips merged with Juniata in 1983 and became Juniata United Methodist Church.

POINT MARION: FIRST
METHODIST EPISCOPAL – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT
1843-1970

Location: Located at Broadway and Morgantown Streets in the Borough of Point Marion in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church was organized in 1843 through the efforts of Ambrose Dilliner, with four members. They had no regular place of worship, but met from place to place, such as the Polly Rose House, the Mill House, and the Ferry House. Membership by 1850 was 23. A lot for a Church was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Sadler. This lot was traded for a lot owned by the Ruble family on the north side of Penn Street, the main street of the town, later occupied by the Gallatin Bank. A building was erected for $1,000.00 in 1861 and connected with Mount Morris circuit. In 1866 transferred to the Greensboro Circuit with Mapletown and Mount Olive Churches. In 1904 it transferred from Washington District to the McKeesport District and for years was with the Fairchance Church. On January 29, 1921 the old building was sold for $12,000.00. The corner stone was laid for the new church on Broadway and Morgantown streets on September 11, 1921 and was dedicated on April 16, 1922 under the ministry of Reverend Oscar J. Rishel. In 1967 First Church was yoked with Trinity of Point Marion (formerly Methodist Protestant) under the ministry of Edward E. Donner. The membership in 1968 was 258. This Church Merged with Point Marion: Trinity to become the Point Marion United Methodist Church

CONNELLSVILLE DISTRICT
1898-1970

Location: This Church was located at 116 Sadler Street in the Borough of Point Marion in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. A church of the West Virginia Methodist Protestant Conference before 1939. Members of the Eden Church of Stewartstown, West Virginia, who had moved to Point Marion began holding meetings in the Mapel Building on the northeast corner of Main and Penn Streets in 1895. Later they moved to the First Christian Church, then to the School building on Union Street. The new Church was built in 1900-1901 and dedicated June 30, 1901. The lumber for the Church was floated down the Cheat River and sawed by the J. D. Clarke Lumber Company. The pastor, Reverend W. H. Morrison, received nineteen charter members into the Church on March 24, 1900. The parsonage was built next door to the Church in 1916. In 1935 the Church was raised and the basement constructed. Extensive remodeling was completed in 1951 and dedicated in a fiftieth anniversary service by Bishop Lloyd Christ Wicke on June 3, 1951. The Church was a part of the Avery Circuit at first and later it was on a Charge with Fallen Timbers and Nilan. In 1967 Trinity entered into a "yoked ministry" with the former Methodist Episcopal congregation of Point Marion. The membership in 1968 was 168. Merged with Point Marion: Methodist Episcopal Church in 1970 to become the Point Marion United Methodist Church.

1883-1972

Location: Located on Ord Street in the village of Salisbury on Route 219 near to the Maryland line in Southern Somerset County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The Church was organized in 1883 by a group of 9 residents of Salisbury under the leadership of Reverend George S. Holmes, pastor of the Meyersdale Church. They met for 9 months in quarters unsuitable for worship until, under the leadership of Reverend Charles L. E. Cartwright, they were able to change their meeting place to what was known as the Sam Lowry Hall. Following this they moved in to what was known as the Boucher storeroom where they met until the close of Dr. Cartwright's ministry in 1886, when the Church was transferred to the West Virginia Conference and the Reverend Josephus Harrison Enlow came to minister to them. The Chapel was built and dedicated in 1892. In approximately 1890 the Church was again a part of the Pittsburgh Conference and was on the Charge with Meyersdale. About 1905 the Church underwent extensive remodeling and the vestibule was added. In 1962 a Christian Education Unit was added to the rear of the building. The membership in 1968 was 92. It closed in 1972 and the records went to Meyersdale.

Location: Located on Route 40, at Rankin Road, one and one-half miles east of the village of Farmington and twelve miles east of Uniontown, in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. The first Class was organized in 1841 at the Potter School House and services were held at several places in Wharton Township. In 1855 Reverend Matthias Myers Eaton, pastor of the Addison Circuit, organized the group as the Sansom Chapel congregation with the Smith School House on the National Pike as the meeting place. It was named for Reverend James Green Sansom, Presiding Elder of the Uniontown District at the time. Sansom, known as "The Sweet Singer of the Conference" was a charter member of the Pittsburgh Conference. The first Church was built in 1857 on the north side of the National Road, one-half mile east of the Smith School House. It burned in 1898 and the School was again used for services until 1905, when a new Church was built on the south side of Route 40, one-fourth of a mile west of the Smith School House. In 1968 it was a part of the Ohio Pyle Circuit and reported a membership of 78. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 82.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. In 1849 the Cochran Society was a preaching appointment on the Connellsville Circuit of the Methodist Protestant Pittsburgh Conference. Services were held in Cochran's School House. Apparently the Church was built in 1854 or 1855. It was made a Station appointment in 1887, and a parsonage was erected that year. Frequent changes in the appointments and equipment of the Church has marked the passage of the years. In 1968 it was a part of the Jacob's Creek Charge and reported a membership of 88. In 1997 it became part of the Bright Horizon Cluster consisting of Alverton, Hickory Square, Jacobs Creek, Mount Nebo, Owensdale and Scottdale: Wesley. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 48.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. In 1874 the society was formed with a membership of 10. It became part of the Jacobs Creek Circuit with Reverend Amos Potter Leonard, pastor. The first class leader was John Cotton. Meetings were held in the reformed church or a schoolhouse. In 1880 Reverend Daniel N. Stafford, pastor of the Jacobs Creek and Scottdale Circuit held a six-week protracted meeting over a wagon maker's shop at the corner of Pittsburgh and Grant Streets. Ten people professed Christ. This spurred the society, now numbering about 40, into building a church. A two-story brick church was constructed. It was dedicated December 18, 1881. In 1884 the church became a station. On May 14, 1900 the razing of the brick church was begun and a stone church of Romanesque Architecture was built. It was dedicated November 2, 1902. Reverend Charles L. E. Cartwright was pastor. In 1956 the interior of the church was changed into a divided chancel. The membership in 1968 was 560. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 510.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. Reverend Dennis Battee and a Mr. Stevenson organized the Society in 1819 at the home of Dr. Sackett. James Smith, a member, had applied to the preacher on the Redstone Circuit to organize a Church and having secured a sufficient number the Society was organized. The original members were: James, Candacy, Rachel, Mary, Martha, Freeman, Stephen and Hannah Smith, Benoni and Mary Freeman, Lydia Dunham, Dr. Samuel and Eva Sackett, Rebecca Cooley, Nancy Griffin, and Gen. Alexander McClellen. For several years meetings were held in members' homes, especially Dr. Sackett and James McCormick's. In 1833 a Camp Meeting was held on Gen. McClellen's farm; the Sabbath meeting had over 3,000 in attendance. Reverend Thomas M. Hudson and Reverend Thornton Fleming were two of the preachers. In 1834, the Trustees purchased a Church site from Thomas Gaddis and shortly thereafter, erected a frame meeting house, which was used until 1891 when a brick building was built and which was greatly enlarged and remodeled in 1915. Always on a Circuit, the 1968 Charge was made up of Smithfield, Fairchance and Hutchinson Churches. Membership in 1968 was 204. In 2001 the charge was composed of Fairchance and Smithfield. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 195.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. It had its beginning from a Sunday School started by Joseph Hough, held at the local Mineral School in 1882 and from revival services held by Reverend Winnett at what was then the Free Methodist Church of Smithton. The Church lot was donated by J. O. Williams. In 1885 the Church was built and dedicated. The founding fathers honored Reverend Winnett by naming it the Winnett Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1922 a furnace, kitchen, and social room was added to the Church plant. The Circuit relations of the Church have been with Layton, Concord, Alverton, Webster, Middletown and Banning. During 1929 a parsonage was built connecting with the Church basement. In 1968 a program of renovation was undertaken. This included new pews and new carpet for the sanctuary, and the addition of the pastor's study, an entry hall and cloak room, a new approach to the Social and Sunday School room, and a center entrance to the Church. In 1968 it was part of a two-point Charge with Banning. The membership in 1968 was 129 members. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 80. Transferred from Greensburg District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Baltimore Conference and then in the Pittsburgh Conference in 1825. The Somerset Circuit first appears in the Appointments list on the Carlisle District of the Baltimore Conference in 1815. Bishop Francis Asbury stopped in the town on July 19, 1815 on his valedictory tour through the region. He made note of the visit in his Journal as follows: "We came to Somerset. We found that on the last Sabbath a notice had been politely given of our expected arrival. Many attended at the courthouse and the Lord spoke his own truths through a tottering tenement of clay, accompanied with conviction in many minds. William Ross, with whom we lodged, stepped around the town with our mite subscription, and the citizens were liberal. In 1819 the Somerset Circuit was transferred to the Pittsburgh District. The date of the original Church building is not known but it was destroyed by fire in 1833. A second building was erected on East Patriot Street in 1833. The third building at the corner of East Patriot Street and South Center Avenue was dedicated in 1877. A new Church was dedicated in 1927. Since 1947 it has been a two-point Charge with Wesley Chapel. Its membership in 1968 was 451. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 284.

Location: Located at 149 West Patriot Street and Main in the Borough of Somerset, Somerset County, PA.

History: United Brethren - Allegheny Conference. It was an outgrowth of Saint John's Church, which was one mile southwest of Somerset. In August 1887 Dr. L. W. Stahl, presiding elder, preached in Croffroths Hall, a Class was organized, and Reverend J. N. Medsgar was appointed as pastor. Services were held in Croffroths Hall and later in the Presbyterian Church. During the year 1889 the lot on West Patriot Street was purchased for $1,000 and the erection of a new church building began and was dedicated by Bishop J. Weaver June 22, 1892. Shanksville and Somerset were constituted the Somerset Charge in 1890. The building was enlarged and remodeled in 1916 under the direction of Reverend J. M. Feightner and was rededicated by Bishop W. M. Weekley on December 17, 1916. The parsonage was built under the pastorate of Reverend J. M. Leshar. In 1929 Saint John's merged with Somerset: First Church. In 1956 an educational unit was erected behind the church. In 1970 there were 510 members. In 2000 there were extensive renovations done to the Sanctuary and it was rededicated in April. The membership on January 1, 2004 was 269.

History: Evangelical Association - Pittsburgh Conference. Evangelical Association preachers set up Somerset Circuit in 1813. In 1836 the Sixth General Conference of the Evangelical Association was held in the home of John and Susanna Ferner near Somerset. In 1874 Somerset Mission was formed. In 1876 a small brick building on East Patriot Street was purchased for a sanctuary. A new building, "little white church with the steeple," was dedicated December 18, 1898. A new Church, on the same site, was dedicated April 19, 1914. An extensive renovation program in 1966 provided more adequate facilities for Christian Education. In 1970 there were 494 members. The congregation built and moved into their new location in 1994. The previous location was sold to the Somerset Hospital. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 381.

1831-1958

Location: Located in the Village of Stahlstown on Route 711, eight and eight-tenths miles south of Ligonier and three and three-fifths miles north of Donegal, in Donegal Township, Westmoreland County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal – Pittsburgh Conference. The original congregation grew out of a class organized in a home of the community. The first meeting house was purchased in 1831. Another plot of ground was purchased on May 11, 1857 and a frame church erected. It was removed in 1890 and a brick building was erected. At the Methodist Union in 1939 the name was changed to Stahlstown: First Methodist Church. An educational unit was added in 1947. On May 25, 1958 the Methodist Protestant congregation and the Methodist Episcopal congregation voted to merge. Using the Methodist Episcopal building, the merged congregation voted to name their new church the Stahlstown Trinity Methodist Church. The church is famous for its annual Flax Scutching, which was started by the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1907. Transferred from Greensburg District in 2004.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This was the central point of the original Redstone Circuit of 1784. The Widow Ann Murphy moved to her farm about one mile west of Uniontown in 1781. There was occasional Methodist preaching in Uniontown by Robert Worster and John Todd between 1777 and 1784. When Richard Owings laid out the nucleus of the Redstone Circuit in the fall of 1783, its starting point was the Murphy home and when John Cooper and Samuel Breeze arrived in 1784 to organize the Circuit, Uniontown was the place they commenced. The second Church building west of the mountains was the log Church erected where the old Methodist cemetery is now located, on Peter Street, in 1785. Asbury's Union School was erected on a lot adjoining the Church in 1793, under the leadership of Reverend Charles Conaway, Presiding Elder of the District. The third School of American Methodism had a brief history of only a few years. The Church is named "Asbury" in recognition of the fact that Bishop Francis Asbury made Uniontown a focal point of his trips through Western Pennsylvania, having preached there in eighteen of his twenty trips through the region between 1784 and 1815. In 1833 a brick Church was constructed on the original site and this served the congregation until 1878. A third Church was built on Morgantown Street in 1878, which was used until 1919, when the congregation moved into the brownstone Church and parsonage on Beeson Avenue and Dunbar Street. Uniontown was the site of Asbury's first three District Conferences in this region west of the mountains in 1788, 1790, and 1792, and the Asbury Church was host to the Pittsburgh Conference sessions of 1830, 1846, 1880, 1891, 1919, 1938, 1948 and 1957. This is one of the historic Churches of American Methodism. Its membership in 1968 was 1114. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 697.

History: Methodist Protestant - Pittsburgh Conference. Originally called Minernd Chapel. Organized February 11, 1894 under the leadership of Reverend David E. Minernd with 48 members. Received into Pittsburgh Conference Methodist Protestant membership in 1895. Later it was known as East End Methodist Protestant Church and then Second Methodist Protestant Church until the spring of 1938 when the name was changed to Calvary Methodist Church. A frame structure was built and was opened for worship July 28, 1894. In the spring of 1932 a brick educational wing was added and consecrated May 14, 1933. The last church service in the frame building was held March 13, 1938 at which time the frame building was replaced with a modern brick building. In 1956 a second brick educational wing was added thus History: Methodist Protestant - Pittsburgh Conference. In the fall of 1830 the "reformer" portion of the Uniontown Methodist Episcopal Church (later Asbury) withdrew from that Church and organized a Class of the Methodist Protestant Church in the Fayette County Courthouse. The first church building was erected about 1841 at the corner of Beeson Avenue and Church Street and was affectionately known as the "Little Old Radical Church." By 1892 the congregation had outgrown this building and a new structure was erected at the same location. This building was only adequate until 1925 when a new church structure was built, being dedicated September 12, 1927. Although the name of the church became Christ Methodist following the 1939 Union, the church is still chartered as a Pennsylvania Corporation under the name of First Methodist Protestant Church, Uniontown, Pennsylvania. This was the first congregation served by Reverend John Calvin Broomfield when he came to America in 1896 and who later became one of the two original Bishops elected by the Methodist Protestant Church at the Uniting Conference. The 1968 membership was 438. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 307.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This Church claims its origin in the Class that met in the John Jones home on Redstone Creek, which was a preaching appointment on the original Redstone Circuit of 1784-1787. Reverend Robert Ayres preached there regularly in 1786-1787 and on his first visit on June 21, 1786 Bishop Francis Asbury accompanied him. The record of the event, in the Ayres Journal is as follows: "At friend Jones. Heard Mr. Asbury preach from Genesis 18; 19 and Harry (Black Harry Rosier) from 'If any man have not the spirit of Christ he is none of his.' They both spoke very lively and close. Lodged with Mr. Asbury and rested well." The first log Chapel was built sometime after 1800 and was called Asbury Chapel. It was in the Pittsburgh District of the Baltimore Conference in 1801. A second Church, built of stone, was erected in 1829. And in 1838-1840 the brick Church was built. It has been remodeled several times. Originally the village was known as Plumsock. It was on the continuing Redstone Circuit until about 1870, and has been on other Circuits since that time. In 1968 it is part of a four-point Charge with Evans Manor, Juniata and Phillips. In 1982 it was joined with the Uniontown Larger Parish: Coolsprings/Evans Manor/Community/Hutchinson/Juniata/ Lemont Furnace/Upper Middletown: The Church has the distinction of having contributed more than twenty-five men to the full-time Christian ministry. Its membership in 1968 was 122. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 15.

Liberty and a place of worship maintained until 1813. During the pastorate of Reverend Josiah Mansell, pastor of the Brownsville Circuit 1872-1875, it was abandoned and merged into the Dawson Appointment. The church property was sold and converted into a dwelling place. Members of this church in 1896 remembered the ministry of the Reverend James Babcock, who died in 1829. In 1888 Reverend David Flanagan, pastor of the Dawson Circuit, organized a Sunday school and a Society in Vanderbilt and was enabled by the generous contribution of James Cochran to erect and pay for a building, called Cochran Chapel. After his death it was renamed the James Cochran Memorial Church. On the Dawson Circuit until 1898, Vanderbilt became a station charge for two years, until 1900, after which it was on and off circuits. Since 1991 it has been on the Dawson Circuit with Little Summit, Dawson, and Bryan. The membership in 1968 was 141. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 111.

WALNUT HILL

METHODIST EPISCOPAL – BALTIMORE CONFERENCE

Mailing Address: 132 Collier Road, Uniontown, PA 15401-6908
ID: 100782

Location: Located at 132 Collier Road, Amend Road and Ball Diamond Road, three miles off route 119 from the Uniontown Shopping Center, south of Uniontown, in Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Episcopal - Pittsburgh Conference. This congregation grew out of a Class at the Michael Mink home on the continuing Redstone Circuit. The Reverend Nathaniel B. Mills Journal for 1813 shows that the Redstone Circuit at that time reached from Elizabeth south to the Western Virginia line on the east side of the Monongahela river. It had twenty-five preaching places on it, one of which was at Mink's. Among the members of the Mink Class were George Watters, George Griffith, Michael Mink and Noble McCormick. George Watters was the Class Leader. The community of Walnut Hill was then known as Thomastown. In 1821 a plot of land, near the residence of William Trader was purchased from Thomas Downard and the first log Church building was erected on it. This building, becoming dilapidated, services were moved to a nearby School House. In 1850 John Freeman donated the new lot of land to the Church and a brick Church was erected on it. A new Church replaced it in 1893. The membership in 1968 was 116. The membership on January 1, 2003 was 135.

WHITE ROCK

METHODIST PROTESTANT – PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE

Connellsville District

ID: 010088

Location: Located 300 yards off the Hopwood-Fairchance Road in the village of Oliphant Furnace, 3 miles south of Hopwood, Fayette County, PA.

History: Methodist Protestant – Pittsburgh Conference. History associates the name White Rock with Dulaney's Cave, Robber's Den, Polly Williams and her lover who pushed her over the mountain cliff because she was becoming aware of their activities. Polly lies buried in the White Rock Cemetery. It was organized in the White Rock School House in the early 1880s. The Reverend John McCarty traveled by horseback from Haydentown, some 8 miles distance to conduct the services. By 1892 the need for a Church building inspired Oliver Johnson Hart to donate the property and one year later the Church was dedicated under the pastorate of the Reverend Peter Thorton Conway. In 1948 the Church purchased the school house for extension, principally for a children's department. This was not practical for the children had to cross the highway. When the congregation learned that the Union Supply Store in Oliphant Furnace was for sale, the purchase was made in 1959. The work started immediately. A splendid job of remodeling was done and the new Church was consecrated on October 8, 1961. The 1968 membership was 92. In 1977 White Rock closed and merged with Brownfield and formed the Brownfield United Methodist Church.
